TRIBUNE IN TROUBLE.

Foreclosure of J. J. Hill's Mortgage on the Duluth Paper.

Manager Chipman to Remain in Charge, but Editor Costello Retires.

A Big Failure in Clothing at St. Cloud--The Firms Interested.

Murderer Pohlman Must Be Tried in the County of Chisago.

Special to the Globe.

DULUTH, Nov. 24.—Sheriff Sharvy, of this city, took possession of the Duluth Daily Tribune this afternoon. J. J. Hill has held a mortgage of $25,000 on the paper a long time, and for several months gave it substantial backing, but the paper has been gradually getting into deeper water until Mr. Hill, to protect his interests, has foreclosed the mortgage which ran to the Eastern Minnesota Railway company, by which assignment was made to J. R. Cleveland, a St. Paul attorney. This simply means that Hill owns the entire paper and F. J. Chipman will continue to be manager. Editor Costello has gone out. Tomorrow the $35,000 libel suit of Contractors Zimmerman & Moore is to be tried, hence the change in the management at this time is partially explained.

A CLOTHIER FAILS.

Bad Debts Largely Responsible for an Assignment.

Special to the Globe.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Nov. 24.—J. F. Boulter, a well-known clothing merchant of this city, today closed his store and made an assignment to J. F. Wray. The immediate cause of the assignment was an action brought in the district court by the First National bank of this city, on notes amounting to $1,500, and Henry Katz, of Chicago, for $800. Bad debts and poor outside investments are the reasons attributed. The liabilities are between $13,000 and $14,000, with assets estimated at about the same. Among the principal creditors are Friend Bros., of Milwaukee; Whitten, Burdett & Young, of Boston; Keith Bros., of Chicago; David Adley & Son, of Milwaukee; Ramodkie Bros., of Milwaukee, and Wyman, Partridge & Co., of Minneapolis.

NO CHANGE OF VENUE.

Pohlman Must Be Tried in Chisago County.

Special to the Globe.

STILLWATER, Minn., Nov. 24.—Judge Crosby has denied the motion for a change of venue in the case of Herman Pohlman, charged with the murder of Fred Tang at Center City about two months ago. The defendant's attorney asked for a change of venue from Chisago county to either Washington or Dakota county. His motion was denied, and the case is set for trial Dec. 1, in the Chisago county court. Owing to the prominence of the murdered man much interest has been displayed in the case. R. L. Penney, of Minneapolis, the defendant's counsel, visited him yesterday at the county jail, where he has been confined since the murder was committed.

HURON'S WATER WORKS.

A Big Row Over Them Is Developed.

Special to the Globe.

HURON, S. D., Nov. 24.—A few weeks since, when a number of non-resident taxpayers served injunctions upon the county treasurer, city treasurer and city mayor, it was hinted that an effort would soon be made to recover the Huron water works plant from the syndicate that purchased it under peculiar circumstances, and for a sum much less than the real value. The sale was made during the closing weeks of the capital campaign, and the money received from the sale was "blown in" for capital purposes. The amount realized from the sale was $45,000, but no one can or will tell where the money went. A taxpayers' union was formed a short time since, its object being to examine into certain city matters, among them the water works sale. Col. H. Ray Myers, as attorney for the union, has served papers in a suit against the Huron Water Works company for the recovery of the plant. The proceeding has caused a flurry of comment, and the progress of the case will be watched with deep interest.

FLAX FIBER MILL.

The First of the Kind in the United States.

AUSTIN, Minn., Nov. 24.—A flax fiber mill, the first one of its kind in the United States, will be put in operation in this city about Friday. About six months ago a sub-company of the American Fiber company, which is represented with a capital of $150,000,000 at 15 Wall street, New York city, was formed, and representatives sent out over the Northwest to find the most desirable point for the location of a flax fiber plant. It was found that Mower county offered better inducements, having over 40,000 flax acreage. The citizens of Austin donated a site of thirty acres one mile south of the city, on the Cedar river, where the works have been erected.

WOMEN IN WILD MOOD.

Sinful Sisters Switched Till the Blood Flowed.

NEW BREMEN, O., Nov. 24.—There is great excitement at Coldwater, Mercer county, over a raid made Sunday night by masked women on a direpuitable house at that place. Four women had taken up their abode in a frame dwelling in the outskirts of the place. The house was just outside the corporation limits and no arrests could be made. About 9 o'clock Sunday night, forty or fifty women, masked, surrounded the house and battered in the doors. Several men in the place made a dash and escaped, but four women were caught and terribly beaten with switches on their bare backs, the blood running in streams. One was not only whipped, but was afterward taken to a small stream near by and ducked in the freezing water until almost dead. The four women were then given twenty minutes to get out of sight. After that the women literally tore down the house, smashing the furniture to kindling. The mob was composed of the best ladies in the town.

"OWEN MEREDITH" DEAD.

British Ambassador to France Expires Suddenly.

PARIS, Nov. 24.—Rt. Hon. Edward Robert Bulwer Lytton, Earl of Lytton, British ambassador to France, died suddenly today from heart disease. Lord Lytton had long been suffering from inflammation of the bladder. A few moments before his death he was suddenly seized with an attack of heart weakness and called to his valet for some medicine. While preparing the medicine the valet heard a cough, and, turning round, saw his master suddenly expire.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The news of the death of the Earl of Lytton caused a feeling of profound regret in this city. On all sides were heard words of warmest praise and sympathy for the diplomat and for "Owen Meredith."

The Earl of Lytton was born Nov. 8, 1815, and takes rank among distinguished Englishmen as a poet and diplomatist. He was well known in the world of letters before he achieved fame in the world of diplomacy. He entered the diplomatic service when only eighteen years of age, being at Washington in 1849. He was appointed to Paris in 1872.

A MUCH-WANTED FOX.

A Nebraska Judge Animadvertss Severely on the Law.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 24.—There was no man in the whole city of Omaha who was more sought after today than was Mortimer Fox. The United States authorities wanted Mortimer and the city officers wanted him, but Sheriff Boyd had the pull, and landed the prisoner safely in the county jail.

Fox arrived in the city some time ago, and was soon arrested by the police. It was charged that he had committed forgery while a resident of San Francisco. The prisoner was held and the California authorities notified. A few days later officer Sullivan, from San Francisco, arrived and secured a requisition. Fox at once made application for a writ of habeas corpus. The case was argued by Judge Estell. The court, in passing upon the case, said that he had given it considerable attention and had concluded that the proceedings were irregular. The Nebraska law on fugitives from justice was a disgrace to the statute books and a hollow mockery upon justice.

The judge announced that he could not hold Fox, and that any attempt to rearrest the prisoner in the court room would be punished. A United States marshal, a California detective, the Omaha sheriff and a half dozen policemen were all in the room waiting for Fox, but when the judge announced his decision they stationed themselves outside the door. When Fox emerged Boyd nabbed him and served a writ of habeas corpus returnable next Friday.

TERRIBLE ITCHING

Used Everything Five Months. In Three Weeks Not a Scar or Pimple. Cured by Cuticura.

When my baby was three months old his cheeks and forehead began to break out with white pimples on red surface. In a few days itching commenced, which was terrible. After he would rub it, matter would ooze from the points. In a short time it spread over the top of his head, then scabs soon formed on head and face. We used everything we could hear of for nearly five months. It grew worse all the time. I saw your advertisement of the CUTICURA REMEDIES in the "Chicago Weekly." We purchased

CUTICURA REMEDIES and commenced their use. In three weeks' time there was not a sore or pimple, not even a scar, on head or face. He is nineteen months old now, and has no sign of the disease. His scalp is healthy and he has a beautiful head of hair. (See portrait herewith.)

IMPORTANT FACTS!

The Dispatch says that owners of real estate, on account of the good crop prospects, are stiffening in their prices. But that is not the case with us. We are selling cheaper than ever before, and we intend to keep it up. We have a large amount of the best property, and we are going to give somebody else a chance to make money on it. Property that is for sale at all is really 50 PER CENT cheaper than it was a year ago, and there is no use denying it. The hoarding up of money all over the world, as a consequence of the London panic of last December, was the cause of this fall in prices, and the continued scarcity of money since then has kept them from rising. This is really a good thing for us all, for it gives people a chance to buy cheap and make money, and will bring on activity very soon. Hence, when the money comes in from the crops towards the end of the winter, there will be an active market, and prices will soon rise; so buy now, while you can.

Dewey, his wife, of St. Paul, Minnesota, mortgagors, to The St. Paul Trust Company, a corporation under the laws of Minnesota, mortgagee, dated the first day of August, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the county of Ramsey, in the state of Minnesota, on the twentieth day of August, A. D. 1889, at 11:30 o'clock a. m., in book "205" of Mortgages, on page 124, of the records of said county;

And Whereas, The said mortgage, and the principal note thereby secured, contains a provision that if any or either of the coupon interest notes thereto annexed shall remain unpaid for ten days after maturity thereof, the holder of said principal note may, at its option, and without notice to the maker, declare the said principal note, as well as any of said past-due coupon notes, as fully due and payable, as if said principal note was payable on demand, and may proceed and collect the same, either under the power of sale in said mortgage contained, or otherwise;

And Whereas, Said mortgage was given to secure the payment of the principal sum of two thousand dollars, and interest thereon, at seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, according to interest coupon notes attached to said principal note, and which principal and interest notes are particularly described in said mortgage; and when the said coupon interest notes, which became due on February 1st, 1891, and August 1, 1891, respectively, became due and payable, the same were duly presented for payment, at the place of payment therein named, and payment thereof was duly demanded and refused;

That ten days after said default in the payment of said last-named interest coupon, the said mortgagee duly declared the whole of said principal note, as well as said two coupon notes, as fully due and payable:

And there is now claimed to be due thereon at the date of this notice, the sum of two thousand one hundred and eighty dollars for principal and interest; and no action or proceeding has been commenced at law or otherwise, to recover or collect the amount now remaining secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof:

Now, therefore, Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the mortgaged premises therein described, and the said mortgaged premises will be sold by the sheriff of said County of Ramsey, at public auction, to the highest bidder therefor, for cash, at the Fourth street front door of the court house, in the City of St. Paul, in the County of Ramsey and State of Minnesota, on Thursday, the seventeenth (17th) day of December, A. The premises described in said mortgage, and so to be sold, are the lot, piece or parcel of land situated in the County of Ramsey and State of Minnesota, and known and described as follows, to-wit:

Lot number seventeen (17), in block number five (5), of Woodlawn Park addition to the city of St. Paul, according to the recorded plat thereof on file in the office of the Register of Deeds for said Ramsey county, together with all the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.
