Notice of Mortgage Sale.

DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE IN the payment of the sum of twelve hundred and ninety-seven dollars and forty-two cents (1,297.42), which is claimed to be due at the date of this notice for principal and interest upon a certain mortgage duly executed and delivered by Andrew Hedlind (then unmarried) to The St. Paul Trust Company, a corporation duly incorporated and organized under the laws of Minnesota, bearing date the twelfth day of November, A. D. 1891, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Ramsey and State of Minnesota, on the sixteenth day of November, A. D. 1889, at 11:50 o'clock a. m., in Book "265" of Mortgages, on page 154 of the records of said Ramsey County; and which mortgage was given to secure the payment of twelve hundred dollars and interest at seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, according to the conditions of eleven promissory notes, which are particularly described in said mortgage, as so recorded;

And which said mortgage, and the notes thereby secured, was afterwards sold, assigned and transferred by said mortgagee to The St. Paul Trust Company as the guardian of Malvina Adelaide De Camp and Anna Lee De Camp, minors, by an assignment in writing, dated December 21, 1891, recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on June 5, 1894, at 4:15 o'clock p. m., in Book "39" of Assignments, on page 470, of the records of said county;

And Whereas, The said principal note, as well as the said mortgage, contained a provision and condition, that if any or either of said coupon interest notes shall remain unpaid for ten days after maturity thereof, the holder of said principal note may, at its option, and without notice to the maker thereof, declare the said principal sum, as well as any or either of said past-due coupon notes, as fully due and payable, as fully as if said principal note was payable on demand, and may proceed and collect the same by foreclosure of said mortgage, either under the power of sale therein contained, or by suit or other proceedings in Court, or otherwise, as he or they may elect;

And Whereas, The said coupon interest notes which became due and payable, according to the conditions of said mortgage, on the 12th day of November, 1893, and May 12th, 1894, each for the sum of forty-two dollars, were not paid at the maturity thereof; and by reason of default in the payment of said two coupons, and more than ten days after said May 12, 1894, the said owner and holder of said principal note and of said past-due coupon notes, did duly declare the whole of said principal note for twelve hundred dollars as fully due and payable, and did then and there present the same for payment, at the place of payment therein named, and payment thereof was then and there duly demanded and refused; and said The St. Paul Trust Company, as said guardian, is now the lawful owner and holder of the said principal note and said past-due coupon interest notes;

And Whereas, In and by said mortgage, the said mortgagor did further covenant and agree that he would pay and discharge all taxes, assessments, or other charges that then were, or might thereafter be levied, assessed or imposed or become a lien upon the real estate described in said mortgage, or any part thereof; that he would pay the same before any penalty, interest, or other charge should attach to said property, or any part thereof, by reason of the non-payment of any such taxes, assessments, or other charge or lien, under or by virtue of any State, City, or County Laws, whether for local improvements or otherwise; and that, in default thereof, the said mortgagee, its successors or assigns, might pay such taxes, assessments or other charges and expenses, and that the amount so paid, and the interest thereon at the rate prescribed by statute in such cases, from the time of such payment, should forthwith be due and payable from said mortgagor, and should be deemed to be secured by said mortgage, and collectible in the same manner, and upon the same conditions, as the interest upon the principal sum therein mentioned;

And Whereas, The said mortgagor failed, neglected and refused to pay the taxes levied and assessed upon the real estate described in said mortgage, for the year 1892, and the same became delinquent; and on the 25th day of June, 1894, the said The St. Paul Trust Company, as such Guardian and Assignee of said mortgage, duly paid to the County Treasurer for said Ramsey County, the said taxes, to wit: Twenty dollars ($20), together with $3.55 penalty, costs and interest thereon, amounting in all to twenty-three
