ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Unclaimed Letters Remaining in the Postoffice, St. Paul, Aug. 10, 1896.

Free delivery of letters by carriers at the residence of owners may be secured by observing the following rules:

First—Direct plainly to the street and number of the house.

Second—Bed letters with the writer's full address, including street and number, and request letters to be directed accordingly.

Third—Letters to strangers or transient visitors in the city whose special addresses may be unknown should be marked in the left-hand corner "Transient." This will prevent their being delivered to persons of the same or similar names.

Fourth—Place the postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and directions for postmarking without defacing the writing.

Persons calling for letters in this list will please say they are advertised, otherwise they will not receive them.
