In pursuance to the plan of organization adopted by the Democratic County Convention, held on the 3rd day of September, 1890, the Democratic Voters of St. Mary's county are requested to meet at the usual place of voting in their several election districts on SATURDAY, the 29th of August, 1891, and vote by ballot for such persons as they may desire to be candidates of the party at the ensuing election, for the following county ticket, composed of

Two candidates for the House of Delegates; One candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court;

One candidate for Sheriff; Five candidates for County Commissioners; Three candidates for Judges of the Orphans' Court;

One candidate for County Surveyor.

The voters in the several districts at the opening of the polls will appoint three Judges and two Clerks to hold said election, and the Judges shall return to the Central Committee for the county, at Leonardtown, a certificate of said election within three days after the closing of the same, to wit: on or before the 1st day of September, 1891.

That under rule the 4th of said organization, the candidates for County Commissioners at the last election were drawn from the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th districts, leaving the 7th, 8th and 9th districts now entitled, with one to be determined by lot from the said first named five districts.

J. THOMAS BROME,
G. DOUGLAS CARPENTER,
G. HARRIS CAMALIER,
Central Committee
for St. Mary's county.

Aug. 13.

We hope that every Democrat in the county will hearken to the call of the Central Committee and come out to the primaries on Saturday, the 29th instant. The prospect for success is bright and if Democrats will prove themselves worthy of the name and make a harmonious effort we will achieve, this fall, a glorious victory.

Everyone can't win in a primary fight. You take your chance, and if you succeed you expect those who opposed you to yield their preferences and give you hearty support. "Do unto others as you wish others to do unto you."

The most sickening product of modern politics is the pharisee who takes no interest in the selection of his party ticket, makes no effort to secure good men and after the nominations sets back and finds fault with the ticket. From such, deliver us.

Democrats, you will have fair primaries and an honest count. The voice of every man who will come to the polls will be heard. Take one afternoon off and come out and help put up a strong ticket, a good ticket and a ticket that will win.

We have an exceptionally good State Ticket. See to it that our county ticket is equally as good.

Local Dottings.

At Court.
All the goods in the Brown Store, at Leonardtown, are fresh at cost. Don't miss this chance. Clean, fresh goods. Other fields call the owner away, and they must go.

No More Disappointments.
Owing to inability of some of the actors to attend, "The Flowing Bowl" will not flow as advertised. There will, however, be no failure of the "Little Brown Jug" on the evening of August, the 24th. The proceeds of the entertainment will be applied towards liquidating the indebtedness of the Leonardtown Baseball Club. Performance will begin at 8 p. m. Doors will be opened at 7:30. Don't fail to attend! There will be Grand Ball after the play.

Religious.
The Bush meeting at Ebenezer P. E. Church will commence on next Sunday, the 23rd of August, inst., and hold at least three days and perhaps longer. Able and distinguished preachers are expected. The public are respectfully invited.

Sacred Heart.
The festival in aid of Sacred Heart Church at Bluff Point on Wednesday, August 12th, netted the handsome sum of $200, notwithstanding the driving rain storm which set in at 4 p. m., and interfered with the tournament. The beautiful fancy table attracted the attention of every one, some of the articles donated coming all the way from California. The pretty gold lock-bracelet brought in $37, which was all voted on the day of the Festival.

BASKETBALL.

The Hollywood Club played its second game of ball in Calvert county, Saturday, 15th instant. The contest was with the Prince Frederick team and not a better played game has been witnessed in the two counties this season. The score stood 4 to 5 in favor of the Calvert Club. At the ending of the 8th inning the score was 4 to 4 and things looked bright for the St. Mary's boys in the 9th, until the umpire gave the game away by rendering a decision which was hard to swallow. We were told by Calvert bystanders that the Calvert base-runner was not within six feet of the bag when our first baseman received the ball. Had it not been so clear and plain we would willingly have submitted to the decision. We were but little encouraged by the frequent secret conversations which were held during the game by the umpire and the captain of the Calvert club and which were noticed by every one. Umpire, Robert Martin. The score:

Lewintown Locals.
Although the weather was warm and the better part of the afternoon was rainy on the 12th instant, the tournament, dinner and supper for the benefit of St. Michael's Church was a success in every particular. It seems that the early history of chivalry is involved in obscurity. The best supported account is that which fixed the date of its origin as a regular institution 1199.

Victory at a tournament was almost as glorious, and perhaps at the moment, more exquisitely felt, than in the field; for no battle could assemble such witnesses of valor. Admitting that tournaments of today are tame affairs in comparison of these animating scenes, we unhesitatingly state that the gallant knights acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner. Mr. Geo. W. Joy, of Leonardtown, delivered the address to the knights, and also the coronation address, both of which were replete with noble and beautiful expressions, showing a fertile imagination and a thoroughly cultivated mind. The successful knights manifested much warmth of feeling during the crowning ceremonies.

Jno. Clarke, Knight of Ivanhoe, crowned the Venus like Miss Mary Hebb, of Patuxent, Queen. B. Clarke, Knight of Scotland, crowned the fair Miss Myrtle Bean, first Maid. Harry Raley, Knight of St. Inigo's, crowned the amiable Miss Eugenia Smith, second Maid. Willie Rawleigh, Knight of Calvert's Rest, crowned the sedate Miss Ross Ridgell, third Maid.

Before the katydids commenced their tell-tale call, the soul stirring strains of the violin announced that the music of Terpsichore was waiting to receive her devotees; and soon the Queen and her Maids, accompanied by their respective knights, entered the ball-room and the dancing began and was kept up until a late hour. Many beautiful ladies were present, and all appeared to enjoy the occasion. Many thanks are due the lady managers for their faithful discharge of duty; and also to Mrs. Rosa Yates for her untiring exertions in soliciting chances for a large lord cake.

Capt. W. S. West, Thomas Pembroke, S. L. Rawleigh, R. M. Abell and others are accommodations a number of summer boarders.

Corn, since the recent rains, is growing remarkably well. Tobacco gives entire satisfaction to those who have crops of same. A young man was overheard to ask one several years his senior "which was the most bitter thing that a man could experience?" The reply was quickly given, "unrequited love."

Mr. Frank Ford is gaining friends daily. The friends of Mr. Elias C. Milburn, of 3rd district, are pleased to see that he has consented to become a candidate for Commissioners' Court.

Miss Martha Hatton, of Prince George's county, and Miss Barbara Kausenau, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Adams, of the Pine.

We have been reliably informed that Mr. J. T. Miller contemplates erecting a storehouse at an early day near his wharf on Smith's Creek.

Messrs. Herman & Bio, merchants at the Trappe, are said to have sold 4,200 lbs. of granulated s; within thirty days, and other goods in proportion.

"Fillow and Sheet" and "Spook" parties are running their course at the Rawleigh Summer Resort.

Mr. Jas. D. Dunbar, postmaster at the Ridge, is quite sick. Mr. D. makes an excellent P. M. and is trusted that he will be able to attend to his routine business soon.

Melons are plentiful and cheap. Capt. W. P. Dickerson is shipping boat loads to Washington.

The friends of Mr. A. Burroughs, of Choptico, are anxious for him to become a candidate for the Legislature. Mr. B. is a gentleman of scholarly attainments, and his election would reflect credit upon his county.

The monthly meeting of the "W & B. Club" will take place 22nd instant; and we are informed that the subject for discussion is "Friendship."

There was Mass at St. Michael's 6th instant. Rev. Father DesReis officiated.

A CARD.
When I announced myself for the Clerkship it was because I had been approached by leading county Democrats and advised that I was available as a candidate. I flattered myself that I could make a good vote, and was willing, if I could obtain the nomination without a contest, to make such an earnest effort for election as to deserve, if I did not win, success.

Since my announcement some of the clouds that darkened our party prospects have been dissipated and the sunshine that presages success has induced others to announce themselves as candidates. I think the present is no time for factional contests. I place party success above personal aggrandizement and am not disposed to create any ill-feeling between Democrats by canvassing for a nomination at this time.

Believing that my withdrawal from the fight for the nomination will be to the interest of the party, I take this opportunity of saying to my friends and to my party that I am no longer a candidate.

J. PHILIP GREENWELL.

Morgan's Goods.
The Goods Firm, under the direct management of Father Scholan, assisted by a committee, composed of "the ladies and gentlemen" of St. Joseph's Parish, promises to be the best ever offered to the people of St. Mary's and her sister counties. This affords an unusual opportunity for the students to entertain their city friends and give them a "good time" while visiting in St. Mary's.

Messrs. Fowler & Payne are selling off their stock of goods at Morgan's preparatory to leaving for Charles. They will be superseded in business by Mr. James Drury, of Baltimore.

Mr. Geo. Mattingly and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenzie Morgan and Mrs. Mamie Morgan, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Miss Fannie Mattingly. Mr. Godfrey Mattingly of same place is visiting Mr. James T. Mattingly. We, in common with their many friends, are glad to welcome this very genial visitor.

Miss Jennie Masterson, of Washington, is spending a short vacation at the residence of Mrs. E. P. Graves. Miss Masterson is accomplished and performs beautifully on piano, mandolin and a number of other instruments.

We are glad to observe, into our midst again, the smiling and happy countenance of Mr. Morgan Raley, who has been in Atlantic City for two months.

Miss Grace Bales, a society favorite of E. Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Alvey, near Morganza. Miss Bales is tall, graceful and remarkably beautiful, qualities that make her presence particularly sought for by the beaux hereabouts.

Beautiful crops of Maize (Indian corn) grace the fields bordering on our public roads. These most interesting, and of necessity most competent to judge, say that the crop has been irreparably damaged by excessive rains. Other crops have likewise been injured.

Political gossip is not unheard of in this neighborhood, and the Republican Local Ticket affords additional food.

Those who have turned their backs on their mother (the Democratic party), thrown principle to the wind and rushed into the Republican camp for self-aggrandizement and secured places upon their ticket which should have been tendered true men, not "deserters," will be sacrificed at the coming election. So say all honest men of both parties.

J. L.

Leaches and Others.
Mrs. J. Oscar Wood, of the 6th district, has been sent to the City Hospital, Baltimore, to be treated for a tumor.

The Choptico sub-Alliance will meet Saturday, August 29th, at 3 p. m. All the members are requested to attend.

A U. S. pension of $12 per month has been granted to Alexander Dorsey, colored, of Leonardtown, a soldier in the war between the States.

Dr. R. E. Sutton, who has attained eminence in his profession at Rome, N. Y., is visiting at "Summerset," this county. The Dr. is "native here."

The Holy-spirit baseball club is booked for a game with the Prince Frederick team Friday, the 27th instant. The game is to be played at Holywood and will begin at 3 p. m.

Saturday last, a destructive hailstorm visited the Wisconsin section, and Mr. Geo. M. Raley informs us that considerable damage was done on Capt. Thomas Ching's home farm.

Among the late arrivals at Leonardtown, are Mr. W. J. S. Combs and wife, of Troy, Ohio; Miss Ida Blisco, Miss Rosa Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Durant, Richard C. Moore, Fred Dillow, of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. Albert Jones, of Baltimore.

Miss Cecilia Hickey, of Baltimore, and Miss Katie Fitzpatrick, of Washington, are visiting relatives in Leonardtown. The mothers of these young ladies are natives of St. Mary's and were great favorites here; the daughters are equally as popular as were their mothers.

On the 12th instant, Edelen Brothers sold for Stephen H. Bowles, of this district, five hogheads of tobacco which netted Mr. B. $448.85. One hoghead sold for 18 cents per pound; one for 18; one for 12, and two for 10. What do you think of these for prices friend Ballenger?

On the afternoon of Wednesday, of last week, lightning struck and killed Lilla Smith, colored, aged about 18 years. She, in company with her sister, a Mrs. Johnson, a small colored girl and a baby, was under a cedar tree in front of the house, when the fatal stroke came. Mrs. Johnson and the girl were stunned; the baby, which was asleep, was not awakened. The accident occurred in the Millstone neighborhood. During the same storm a large wall nut tree, near Mr. William F. Combs', 6th district, was struck and the house was torn by a bolt striking near the chimney, making a large hole in the roof, knocking off weather boarding and doing much other damage. None of the inmates were injured. Saturday evening last lightning killed a horse, ox and hog on the farm of Mrs. Mary Jones, Patuxent district. The horse belonged to James Jones; the ox and hog were the property of Mrs. Jones.
