In St. Paul Social Circles

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burgower was celebrated yesterday at the residence of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Burgower, on Kent street. The celebration took the form of a reception, the aged couple receiving their friends informally with their son and daughter.

The rooms were decorated with great bunches of chrysanthemums and different colored roses. The mantel was banked with yellow and crimson roses, and palms and ferns were used effectively about the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burgower received their friends seated in easy chairs in the main drawing room. Mrs. Burgower wore a quaint gown of black silk, trimmed at throat and wrists with folds of white lisse. The assisting ladies were: Mrs. Jacob Westheimer, Mrs. G. Meyer, Mrs. D. Aberle and Mrs. Felix May. Gretchen Burgower and Rita Meyer assisted in the dining room.

Fifty years ago in New Orleans was solemnized the wedding whose golden anniversary yesterday celebrated. Mr. Burgower is now eighty-four and his wife seventy-nine. The former was born in Haigerloch, Germany, the year of the formation of the German federation. When about twenty years of age he went to Paris, remaining there five years. He then came to America. The trip from Havre to New Orleans, made in a sailing vessel, took exactly sixty days. Mrs. Burgower was also born in the old country, her birthplace being Essingen in Bavaria. She, too, came to this country when twenty years of age, coming to New Orleans. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Burgower moved to Woodville, Miss., and later to Rock Island, Ill., where they spent forty years of their lives. They have seven children, five boys and two girls, all living. Two of the sons are in Chicago, one, Gabe Burgower, lives here in St. Paul and the daughters live in Texas. A great granddaughter will be married in Texas next month. Mr. Burgower is an Odd Fellow, and for thirty-three years was treasurer for the Masonic lodge.

MATRIMONIAL.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Mildred Whitbeck and Dr. Herman H. Matteson, of Eau Claire, Wis., which was celebrated Thursday evening, Oct. 26, at the bride's home, 59 St. Anthony avenue. Dr. Maurice D. Edwards performed the ceremony. The rooms were elaborately decorated, the reception hall being in yellow and green; the parlors pink and green. The ceremony was performed in the front parlor in a bower of palms beneath a lover's knot of pink and white roses. The bride was attended by Miss Jennie Caesar, of Chippewa Falls, as maid of honor, Miss Nellie Van Duzer, of Van Slyke court, and Miss Mame Stanley, of Chippewa Falls, Wis., as bridesmaids. De Wayne Silliman and Harry Dysinger were pages. The groom was attended by Stephen Somsen, of Winona, as best man. The ushers were: John Tirrell, of Minneapolis, and A. J. Dickinson, of this city. The bride wore a white satin gown, made en princess, with mousquetaire sleeves of liberty silk and a Van Dyke of pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of blue violets. Miss Caesar wore a mousseline de soie gown, over blue taffeta. Miss Van Duzer, pink organdie; Miss Stanley, pink silk tissue, over pink silk. Each carried a long-stemmed American Beauty rose, tied with white satin ribbons. The pages were dressed in white satin, with point lace, and carried white satin wands. A colored orchestra of five pieces dispensed music throughout the evening, playing and singing the Lohengrin wedding music. A reception followed the ceremony. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Whitbeck, Mrs. Nellie Matteson and H. D. Matteson, of Minneapolis, assisted by Mrs. A. B. Silliman, of Marshalltown, Io., and Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dysinger. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Nellie Matteson, H. D. Matteson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew and son, Miss McAllister, Mr. Frank Lovering and Mr. and Mrs. Waldron, of Minneapolis; Mr. A. B. Silliman and son, of Marshalltown, Io., and Mrs. L. M. Snow, of Brookfield, Mo. Dr. and Mrs. Matteson will be at home after Nov. 24 at Eau Claire, Wis.
