Opening in Spring Garments

Messrs. Ransom & Horton request the Ladies of the Twin Cities
. . . . . to attend their . . . . .

Formal Opening of Spring Suits and Garments.

3 to 6 p. m. { Monday, April 1st } 7 to 9 p. m.

We feel that a glance through our stock may prove a surprise to even those familiar with our store—as the store has been all rearranged and we never showed such a wide variety of goods. We particularly desire such ladies as are not familiar with our store and stock to give us the pleasure of their company on this occasion. We feel certain they will be astonished to see what elegant garments can be had for moderate prices.

Ransom & Horton

Music by Twin City Mandolin Orchestra.

A CLOSE SHAVE.

Gassaway—Don't you think "William Tell" is Rossini's best opera?
Musicus—Perhaps; but do you know his "Barber?"
Gassaway—No; I shave myself.
