It Saved Her Life.

Gooch's Mexican Syrup has accomplished a cure in this neighborhood which has astonished the people. Miss Davis was given up to die by her attending physician. She had lung fever. The beotor said she would die before morning and advised to discontinue his medicine as it was doing her no good. Her parents had a bottle of Gooch's Mexican Syrup and Gooch's Quick Relief in the house They at once began to give the Syrup in boxes one hour apart, and frequently dathed her chest with the Quick Relief. Before morning she was better, and after useing a few potties of each, she is almost as well as ever. It was almost like raising the dead, and has established the reputation of Gooch's Mexicans Syrup here as a cough remedy; we can sell nothing else.

Death of Mrs. Howard.

Mrs. Emily A. Howard died October 26, 1901, at 11:55 p. m., at her home ½ mile east of Avilla.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gideon at the home at 9:30 Monday, after which the remains were followed to Park cemetery and laid to rest by the side of her husband who preceded her just ten months.

The deceased was born Dec. 27, 1836 in Hardin County Ky. her maiden name being Triplet. She was married to Ralphee Howard Jan. 11, 1858. There were eight children from this union two of whom preceded her to the better land She leaves three sons and three daughters, one brother, four sisters and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn her loss. The deceased was identified with no church at the time of her death Although she had not been well for some time the end came suddenly being up and about as much as usual Friday until 5 o'clock in the afternoon she had a sinking spell but had apparently gotten over it, and Saturday seemed a great deal better. About 8 o'clock Saturday evening she was talking with her daughter Minerva when she suddenly commenced gasping for breath and she said it seemed as if there was a knot in her throat. Every thing was done that could be to relieve her but she continued to grow weaker until 11.55 o'clock when her spirit took its flight. The end came peaceful and quiet. She was conscious until the last and talked with those about her until within a few moments before she passed away.

There was none of her children at her bedside when the end came except her single daughter Miss Minerva who has so faithfully and patiently waited on her.

Farewell mother, Farewell mother,
Peaceful be thy silent rest.
Slumber sweetly, God knew best,
When to call thee home to rest.
Farewell mother, Farewell mother,
We must say our last Farewell
Till we meet beyond the river
Happy there with thee to dwell.

We miss thee from our home,
Dear mother, we miss thee from thy place
A shadow o'er our life is cast
We miss the sunshine of thy face,
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care
Our home is dark without thee
We miss thee everywhere.

O mother thy gentle voice is hushed
Thy warm, true heart is still
And on thy pale and peaceful face
Is resting death's cold chill.
Thy hands are clasped upon thy breast
We have kissed thy marble brow
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no mother now.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN

Conducted by the W. C. T. U.

Notice.

The W. C. T. U. offer a prize to the writer of an original essay on "Temperance" not exceeding four hundred words to be left at the News office before Dec. 1st. The prize winner will receive a book and the essay will appear in the W.C.T.U. column of this paper. We hope the pupils of the public school will enter this contest as it is free to all.

Czolgosz it is said can neither read or write. That is good enough excuse to have compulsory educational laws and have the Bible restored to the public school, and have the children taught the Ten commandments. We can neither high license anarchy or prohibit it, but we can educate our growing population to know that "Righteousness exalteth a nation." We pride ourselves of being a Christian nation, yet our public school shut out any form of worship, and children are not taught the evil consequences and punishment of sin. Czolgosz is an American born and bred citizen, and there is something radically wrong in his bringing up.

Card Of Thanks.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their help and kindness in the sickness and death of our beloved mother, also to those who furnished flowers, etc.
