Nice line of Lap Robes at Reduced Prices at Webb Bros.

Happy New Year to You

WE have been told that a rolling stone gathers no moss and a live store never fills with cobwebs. We have invoiced our stock and expect to make Jasper our dwelling place for 1904—probably more. We do not intend to keep out the young Webbs from our store, but aim to bar out the cobwebs and work for the interest of Jasper, carrying a staple line of goods, with prices right, making this place a good place to trade in our line of goods. Some of our larger towns may pay 40c on the dollar for some of their goods and make cheap prices on a few articles that are old and shopworn, but we say to any of them that buy their goods as we do, paying cash for them that we will meet their price and most of the time go them one better.

In the Drug department we sell Patents at the standard prices. In Paints and Oils our prices are known farther from Jasper than any goods sold here, for we are lower. In Hardware our stock is new and up-to-date and do not allow anyone to out figure us on a hardware bill. Our Implements are the Famous Moline line of goods and our prices are an eyesore to some of competitors in other towns on these goods, so much so they refused to handle them if we did. In our Wagon and Buggy Department we sell the Mandt Wagon and Henney Buggies and if you contemplate buying any thing in this line we just ask you to look at our goods first. Get our prices and we believe you will say Jasper is sure in it this year. We are still selling Dempster Mill Pumps and Simpson Wind Mills and we will put them up for you right.

Yours for Businss, WEBB BROTHERS, Jasper, Mo

A Son's Tribute.

It has been our sad lot since the last issue of the News, together with brothers and sister to look for the last time upon the face of father—he who has guided our footsteps from childhood to manhood and womanhood, advising when advise meant so much, and above all teaching by example the beauties of a clean, upright and unselfish life. Only those who have passed o'er the same sad road can realize what our hearts feel toward him who now lies silent in the grave.

Abraham Worley Monroe was born in Perry County, Pennsylvania, April 27, 1838, where he grew to young manhood. In the spring of 1861 he entered a Quaker academy at Millville, Pa., with the intention of preparing for the ministry. A few months later the country was in a great struggle for life and he was among the first to hasten to its defense, surrendering his youthful aspirations to uphold his country's honor.

He was a member of the 77th and 208th Regiment Penna Volunteer Infantry, serving in various capacities throughout four years of the war, being at Richmond at the time of its surrender.

Four years of the best part of his life spent in camp and hospital and on the battle field made it impossible to pick up the trend of life where it left off four years before and he sought other avenues of endeavor.

Shortly after the war he was married to Miss Emma Leggett and took up his residence at Bloomsburg, Pa., where he had a beautiful home and was in comfortable circumstances. Here he showed his unselfish spirit by giving up all of his worldly riches to aid a friend and relative who had met with financial reverses. This meant that he must begin life over again and he chose the West as his new battle field. Arriving in Carthage in the spring of 1878 with a family of a wife and four children, and but little of this world's goods he set to work with a will at a former occupation—that of a painter exerting his best efforts in behalf of his loved ones, and although never realizing his former prosperity he was contented to know that he had always met his duty as a man and had no feelings of regret.

Just 12 years ago last Monday death came into the home and robbed it of the loving wife and kind mother. The father's health has declined rapidly in the past two years and while he never complained his children realized that his life was drawing to a close. He was aware of that fact also and his sudden taking away was just as he expected it would be.

Last Wednesday while seated at dinner table he was taken with a stroke of paralysis and sank gradually until 10:30 at night when he fell peacefully into the sleep that knows no awakening.

He leaves four sons and one daughter—John D. Monroe, who is located at San Francisco, Cal., and who was unable to be at the funeral; Lynn, publisher of this paper; Arthur (God bless him for he has by his faithfulness kept the family together); James, who is a competent printer with the Carthage Press; and Miss Veda, who is bookkeeper at the Leggett & Platt Bed Spring factory—all who unite in paying this last humble tribute to their departed father.

He also leaves two brothers—C. C. Monroe living 2 miles north of Carthage and John D. Monroe of Pennsylvania.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S,

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

ASHBURNHAM, ONT., April 18, 1903.—I think that it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for of your cough remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your cough remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy.

Respectfully yours,
REV. A. LANGFELDT, M. A.
Rector of St. Luke's church.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 yrs, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and he died from suffocation. St Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1 at J K Schooler's.

Climatic Cures

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is more certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest dang r and dread of the consumption, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size 75c. Webb Bros.
