Neighborhood News.

Written by our assistant editors.

ZION

Miss Edna Ballard.

Mrs. Reynolds of Maple Grove and Mrs. J. F. Curtis visited Mrs. Gardner and family Thursday.—Mrs. C. B. Earl visited Mrs. J. Earl Monday afternoon.—Misses Clara and Geneva Hubbard spent Thursday night with Elsie Gresham.—Mrs. Dye Sunderland and baby visited Mrs. Fellmer Thursday.—Mrs. Cap Tiller, who was threatened with pneumonia, is better.—Alec Keith spent last week with relatives at Webb City.—Mrs. Bertha Baird of Jasper spent last week with Mrs. Cap Tiller.—Everett Thompson and family of Carthage and Fred Earl and wife were guests of Isaac Thompson and family Sunday.—Will Peters and family attended birthday dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Peters of Jasper.—Miss Jessie Johnson, Kenyon Robertson and Charles Bell rode out Sunday with Julia and Bessie Bell.—Mrs. McLean, Mrs. S. [illegible] and Mr. [illegible] near Carthage, were guests of Mrs. [illegible] with Mrs. Frank Truesdell, who has been very sick.—[illegible]

[illegible] Earl Lockhart and Miss Nellie Patterson of Carthage were married at Carthage on Tuesday, March 3. The young folks are extend their wishes and congratulations.—Lester McCorkel spent Sunday with Roy Hickey.—Ed Pritchard spent last week in West Vaughn.—Don Johnson spent Sunday with Leonard Sadler.—Mrs. E. E. Hubbard and Clara Earl spent Sunday with Mrs. Arthur Probert.—C. V. Bell made a trip to Webb City Friday and took interest in Cities Exch. and Trust.—Misses Lee, Ruth and Le Vaughn spent Sunday with Fanny and Carrie Stephens.—Alec Spell and Jessie and Mr. Moler visited the Rinker of Barton County.—Misses Bessie Templin and Pearl Johnson visited Mrs. F. Bone and son Hershel Sunday evening.—Carl Bellard purchased a new set of harness Tuesday.—A. L. Thomas and wife visited at Joe Purcell's Sunday.—Misses Clara and Geneva Hubbard took the teacher's examination at Carthage Friday and Saturday.—Charley Teeter and family and Elias Cearnal and family of Jasper were guests of J. R. Cearnal and family Sunday.—Lee Johnson and family from near Avilla visited Ben Johnson and family Sunday.—A. J. Campbell and family of Barton County visited Sunday with Frank Campbell and family.—Mrs. Joni Byers visited Mrs. Fred Hickman Monday afternoon.—Edna Bellard visited Mrs. H. N. Covert Friday afternoon.—Miss Geneva Hubbard visited Oliver Sunday with friends in Jasper.—Fred Bommer and wife visited at Carthage and family Sunday.—Bertha Bedell and wife visited Rose M. Cearnal and family Sunday.—D. L. Lockhart moved his family onto Sunday with Will McCorkel.—[illegible] Nina Lockhart spent Sunday at [illegible].—[illegible] Sunday morning and evening.

DEWEY

Mrs. May Watkins.

Ben Cox took out Sunday and gave two interesting talks which pleased his hearers very much because they were not long.—Every office is materializing for a good social Friday evening.—A rehearsal at the Church Wednesday of the Sunday school. Everybody invited to the social.—Miss Leola Patrick is visiting in Duenweg.—Mrs. Woods Buster in Jasper is visiting her son during their sickness.—Mrs. Ethel Rice and children were in Jasper Thursday at the surprise dinner on W. H. Hoover and wife.—Mr. Bull's family visited Sunday at Mrs. McAdoo's near Carthage.—Mr. Wagner, who moved in Mrs. McCarthy's new house at Carytown, had the misfortune to have a horse die last week.—Arch Rice has his engine and saw busy at work west of the railroad, sawing ties.—The Sewing Circle meets with Mrs. Rice this week and next week with Mrs. Simmons.—Some farmers have oats and potatoes planted.—A young bull dog has been turned loose and is making havoc in henneries. Allen Kyle found him in his hen house after he had killed four hens and crippled two. He killed some chickens for Herman Rorsch.—Mrs. Carter's son is visiting her from Cartersville.—Clarence Simmons bought a fine new range Saturday in Jasper.—Miss Bedell and little Robert Estey are still on the sick list.—Mr. Kaels and family and Mr. Brock dined with Matthews Sunday. The Sunbeams were there in the afternoon.—News comes from California of the death of Harry Pingle, who was well known here. He suffered with tuberculosis a long time. He passed away last Sunday afternoon.

SHARLEY.

Miss Willa M. Veale.

Wesley Wright has been cleaning in Omer's orchard.—Dosie Williams took his mother to Webb City Tuesday to take the cure for her [illegible] at Cartersville.—Mrs. F. J. Scott visited Mrs. Walter Howres last Monday.—Irene Pugh, little daughter of Chas. W. Pugh, started to school on the third.—Horace Shapley has cleaned out some old trees from his orchard, where he fed his oats.—Clarence Dunlap dragged the roads Tuesday as also did Ora Dunlap.—There was a wolf hunt Monday. Men from Carthage, Jasper and Joplin joined the hunt with the farmers.—Homer Shapley went to Carthage Thursday.—Mrs. Lee Ingle visited the school Thursday and started her little boy, Carl, to school.—Mrs. Walter Howres and children Rose and Edwin visited the school Thursday.—There was no school Friday because the teacher had to take the pupils to examination in Lamar Friday and Saturday.—James Price and family visited at John Williams' Sunday.—F. A. Scott and son Fred bought two loads of seed oats in Pittsburg City.—On Saturday Fred bought another load from his uncle, Elmer Witters.—Will Dudgeon and wife visited at Horace Roseburgh's Sunday afternoon.—Little Ruth Dunlap started to school Monday.—Mrs. Chas. Stonebocker and children spent Sunday at Clarence Dunlap's.—Jesse Harlen and wife of Jasper and Lewis Smith visited Hiram Shapley Sunday.—Walter Howrey sowed oats Friday and Saturday.—Bernice and Maurice Scott went to the school party given by Thomas Worthen Friday evening at the Duval school.—Clarence Dunlap went to Webb City Monday.—James Cook and family visited Abb Cook's Sunday.—Chas. Stonebocker and F. J. Scott butchered Wednesday.—Homer Shapley and Lewis Smith visited at Horace Roseburgh's Sunday.—Chas. Stonebocker and wife went [illegible]

Jasper Friday and the children Lizzie and Archie spent the day with their cousin, Irene Pugh.—Horace Roseburgh went to Joplin Tuesday.—[illegible] Shapley, O. [illegible] [illegible] meeting given at [illegible] W. A. League of Nashville. [illegible] Story.—Best [illegible] Pugh Sunday.

DIAMOND

Mrs. Charles Eudge.

J. F. Gollick returned from Kansas City Thursday, where he went to meet the cattle he bought in Indiana last week. He brought home some beauties and we are proud to have such cattle brought to our community.—Harve Lee and Jake Byers bought seed oats of E. Pfender last week.—Chas. Elting sold a load of hogs to Ward & Moulton last Thursday.—Mr. Obergtel sold a cow to D. McKib-

See Us In Our New Location

New Spring Goods

Our line of spring dress goods and trimmings includes the latest weaves and the most popular shades. We have the

RATINE CREPES
EMBROIDERY CREPES
PRINTED CREPES
RATINES and VOILES

Our Spring Oxfords are in and we invite your inspection.

Watch for our Spring Millinery Announcement

We want your produce: chickens, eggs, butter and cream.

Crow Mercantile Co.

See Us In Our New Location

ben this week.—Joe Wardlow spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Osborne.—Among the sick in our neighborhood are J. F. Gollick, C. Land's two children, Joe Rodes and Henry Oberstel.—Will Wood finished moving into the place occupied by Clyde Wagner. Leroy Garrett moved to Clint Rinds farm last week.—Fred Model is helping gravel roads this week.—Budd Bros. sawed wood for Chas. Nett this week.—Mrs. Carey and Mrs. Osborne were Jasper shoppers Friday.—Mrs. C. M. Buzzard spent Wednesday with Mrs. Chas. Nett.—Mrs. Lee Mitchell spent Monday with Mrs. Milton.—G. F. Wagner was busy hauling corn last week.—Miss Cora Buxton spent Friday night at S. Bertshill's.—John Hartlee had a very sick mule last week.—Theo. Mitchell called and visited in S. Carey Friday.—Grace Gollick returned Saturday from a week's stay in Elizabeth.—Mr. and Mrs. Wardlow were Jasper shoppers Saturday.—A few in our [illegible] Wardlow [illegible] Thursday [illegible] Wilson, entertained [illegible] Sunday with Thomas Estes [illegible] and wife.—Wives are still plentiful and as blossoms.

Case of Smallpox.

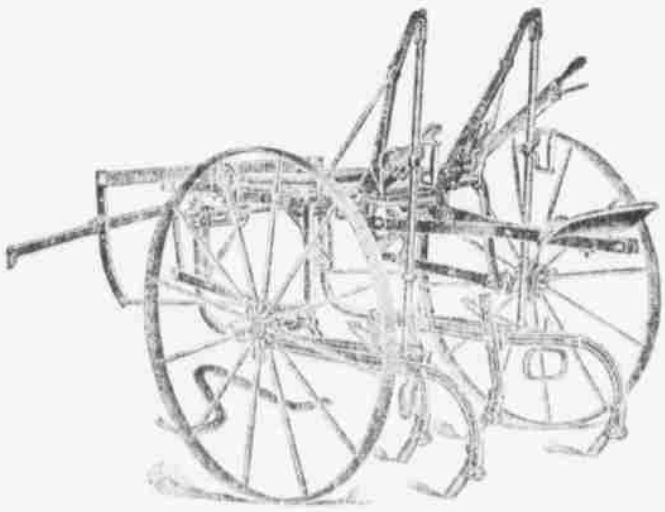
A county health officer came up from Carthage last Friday and pronounced Walter Scott's illness to be smallpox and arranged for the proper quarantining of the place.

Walter is not very sick. He walks about indoors and out. He will be released from quarantine in about a fortnight.

GOING OUT OF THE BUSINESS

Farm Machinery

Cheap for Cash or Bankable Note



We are going to close out all of our Farm Machinery at Bargain Prices

So if you need anything in the Implement line come and see us and save money. We have a good line to select from.

Yours for Bargains,

Jackson Bros.

THE LEADERS IN LOW PRICES

SHARP'S LOCALS

A Bargain Center

A Few Personal Notes Among Our Customers

Illinoy heaters
Majestic ranges
St. Louis buggies.
DeLaval separators
Butchering supplies.
One Minute washers.
Emerson corn planters
New Perfection oil stoves.
Emerson sulkys and gangs.
Robinson manure spreaders
Monogram stoves and ranges.
Buster Brown sulkys and gangs
Robberoid and galvanized roofing.

Dr. Lear bought a bill of nails last week.

We sold Drue Sharp an incubator Monday.

Dan Johnson purchased poultry wire Monday.

V. A. Cavanee bought poultry wire Monday.

Lonnie Streeker bought a Rayo lamp Monday.

D. H. Triplett bought a Dazey churn Monday.

Smith Powers bought poultry wire last week.

We got in a car of American fence, Tuesday.

C. E. Wright purchased poultry netting, Friday.

C. H. Summons bought a good range, Saturday.

D. H. Triplett bought an Illinoy heater last week.

C. L. Purcell bought a copper boiler last week.

W. C. Mackey took out an Emerson plow last week.

Mrs. Tom Bell bought a nice Rayo lamp Tuesday.

We sold an Emerson disc Thursday to W. B. Milton.

Ed Preston bought a Diamond Edge knife Thursday.

We sold Mrs. Chas. Wine a boy's wagon, Thursday.

Will Lane bought poultry wire and hardware last week.

A. L. Patterson bought a Diamond Edge ax last week.

Mary J. Wilson was among our valued customers, Friday.

Will McClintock took out a load of American wire last week.

J. A. Layent took home a Perfection oil stove, Thursday.

A. L. Thomas bought poultry wire and barb wire last week.

Lee Mitchell was one of many poultry wire buyers this week.

L. M. Harriman bought a pump and other hardware last week.

Chas. Haines and W. F. Turner bought poultry wire, Saturday.

Roy Seidner was in Friday and bought Royal American and barb wire.

W. F. Wood bought Royal American hog wire and barb wire, Friday.

Thos. Edwards bought one of these popular Emerson plows Thursday.

A. E. Armstrong took out a load of American hog wire and barb wire Monday.

A. D. Owenaby, A. J. Smith and W. E. Patterson were among our barb-wire buyers the past week.

A. L. Winder bought an Emerson disc, Emerson sulky, harrow and a perfection oil stove Thursday.

H. H. SHARP Merc. Co.