John A. Gladish to Laura Mitchell, both of Barton Township.

Conductor Bullwas called to Mineral Point last Wednesday afternoon to view the remains of a tramp who died at that place, without doubt, of a heart disease. The man had been beating his way from Tucson, Mexico, and was on his way home, Lodi. He had been ill for some time, and the hardships and exposure he had undergone aggravated his disease, so that by the time he reached the point he was unable to proceed further. He was about sixty years of age.

Mr. Gus Lapre, of Richwoods, on last Friday celebrated his 22nd birthday, by giving all relatives and friends a grand dinner. Sixty-seven guests sat down at the table, children, grandchildren and friends. The occasion was enjoyed by all present, and all joined in wishing Mr. Lapre many returns of the day. Mr. Lapre is member of the firm of Lapre & Daugherty, and is a member of esq. He built the roller mills in Richwoods, and is now building a saw mill in Washington County, where he will remain in business for a short time.

Messrs. J. W. and Joseph Marler, of Dome Grove, were attending to the above named place from Potosi Monday afternoon in a buggy. When about three miles out of town, near New Dorphus, the kingbolt broke and let the tongue drop down. This frightened the team and they started to run away. Joseph Marler attempted to jump out of the vehicle and fell in such a manner that he was kicked on the arm by one of the horses and had it broken. He was brought back to Potosi, where the injured limb was set and returned to Dome Grove on Tuesday.

A Liberal Brother-in-Law.

Some twenty years ago Polite Landusky, then a resident of this county, departed for the west. He engaged in farming near St. Paul, Minn., and met with success. Last week he returned to Union Township, in this county, on a visit to his brother-in-law, Joseph Pollitte, who is also a miner. Before leaving Montana, Mr. Landusky purchased 160 acres of land and erected a $1200 residence on it, also furnished it completely, and upon arriving here he made Mr. Pollitte a present of it, on condition that he would go to Montana to live. Mr. Pollitte accepted the offer, and left last Friday with his wife and seven children, accompanied by Mr. Landusky. We wish Joe success in his new home.
