Pessimist.

"When is your next stock coming to town?"

"Not for some time," said the pessimist. "Mr. Williams, who demonstrated a positive vacation and is taking it in Florida."

SHE DYED A SWEATER, SKIRT AND CHILD'S COAT WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple that women can dye or tint her worn, shabby dresses, waists, coats, sweaters, stockings, coverings, everything, even her home furnishings, without stopping to ask her mother, aunt or neighbor. Buy "Diamond Dyes" at any store. Insist that your druggist shows you what you ask for. Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to spot, stain, streak, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is cotton, linen or mixed goods.—Advertisement.

Dominion is surrounded by a atmosphere with six miles in circumference.

How strength the business policies with knowledge and experience.

And That's That.

On Eighteenth street yesterday. Two negroes driving motors. One driving truck thrusts out his arm for a turn. Other driver, coming from behind, sounds horn and attempts to pass. Both cars stop. Fenders touching. Both drivers pile out to argue.

"Didn't you see my arm?" asks the truck driver.

"Didn't you hear my horn?" counters the other.

"Sure I heard your horn."

"Why didn't you stop, then?"

"Cause, ain't my arm as good as your horn?"

Drivers get back in and both machines proceed.—Kansas City Star.

Trimming Them Up.

New Office Boy—Please, sir, you told me to file these letters, sir, but wouldn't it be easier to trim them off with a pair of scissors.—London Telegraph.

When it comes to stopping late a fortune no man objects to putting his best foot into it.
