Atlanta.

On the 22n l inst., Christ Meyer Post, G. A. R. met at the Court House, Commander D. P. Dobyns in the chair, for the purpose of celebrating the 22nd anniversary of the battle of Atlanta. A good program had been prepared and the public was invited to attend. The house was filled to overflowing by comrades and citizens.

The first thing in order was a lecture on the battle by Dr. A. Goshia who was a partidipant therein. With the aid of a map drawn on a blackboard, he was able to point out the exact location of the contending forces. The battle was so fully and plainly described by him that all will remember it better then by reading. The Doctor described in detail the death of that great hero, General McPherson. After the conclusion of the lecture, little Miss Cora Fry, rendered in her incomparable way "Burns, of Gettysburg."

Frank Knickerbacker, of Savannah, gave some of his recollections of the war and gave some good advice to members of the Grand Army.

R. I. Rea was called out and gave a review of army life as he found it.

Music was furnished by Peret's drum corps and Hoffmann's Glee club.

The entertainment was the best ever given by the Post and will not soon be forgotten.

Christ Meyer Post was established in December 1882 and now numbers eighty two men. Two deaths have occurred and they within a year, James B. Curry and Levi Crouser.

Home at Last.

Departed this life on the 23rd day of July, 1886, at her late residence in Highland, Kansas, Eliza Irvin, wife of the Rev. Samuel M. Irvin, in the 86th year of her age.

Deceased was a woman of whom you only find one in a generation; to know her was not only to love her but to respect and wish to be like her—kind, patient, loving and forgiving. She was possessed of a remarkable insight into human nature, capable of finding her way into the inmost recesses of the human heart, and of awakening some latent emotion and causing one to feel that there were higher attitudes to which one might yet attain in this life. To her, the writer of these lines owes a debt he can never discharge. She was possessed of a great amount of energy.

Coming to the state with her husband over fifty years ago as a Missionary to the Iowa and Sac Indians, they established a Mission with these tribes in Platte county under the supervision of the Presbyterian church of which they were both members. Some time after they had established this Mission the Platte Purchase was consummated with tribes and they were moved over the river. They again established a Mission about one mile east of what is now the beautiful village of Highland, Kansas. And here for almost a quarter of a century, away from her young companions and all the friends of her youth, with no one of her race except her husband, and part of the time an assistant teacher, she ministered to the wants, spiritually and temporarily, of these Dusky children of the Forest. And as she taught them to read, write and speak our language, kept them clean and neat in their personal appearance, her greatest desire and prayer was that their hearts and minds might be made pure, and that they might find that peace and happiness that shone forth from her eyes and from every feature of her countenance.

"With unkindness never immersed,
With tears, pure as the dews that fall from Heaven;
In her left hand the Olive Branch; and in
Her right hand the Crown of Immortality.
With noiseless feet she walked the aisles of earth,
Descending men from day to day to turn
From the broad to the narrow path to bliss,
Beseeching evermore and evermore."

Her funeral was preached at the residence in Highland, the ministers of all the different churches taking a part, and all gave evidence of the great good she had accomplished.

She was followed to her grave by a weeping community who felt of a truth she had heard the Divine command:

"Well done of thy Father, come, ye blest,
Enter the joy eternal of your Lord;
Rejoice, ye ever, rejoice and sit with me
At God's right hand in glory evermore."

American Bible Society.

The annual meeting of the Holt County Bible Society was held in the Presbyterian church, Oregon, Missouri, Sabbath evening, July 25th, 1886.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Rev. Stephen A. Blanchard, President.

Rev. T. D. Roberts, Vice-President.

Ira Peter, Treasurer and Depository

Dan Zachman, Secretary.

The resident ministers in and around Oregon with the officers of the society constitute the executive committee.

The last Sabbath in July 1887, was selected for the next annual meeting of the society to be held at the M. E. Church, Oregon, Mo. A collection of $4 30 was taken up for the parent society.

Rev. Edward Wright, District Superintendent for Missouri of the American Bible Society, addressed the meeting, giving an interesting report of the great work being done in this country to supply the destitute with the Word of God by the oughly canvassing each state by the colporterage system, and also the work done on the islands of the sea.

The officers of the society desire to inform the ministers and the public that a large supply of Bibles and Testaments suitable for family use, for schools and to supply Sabbath schools are kept on hand at the Depository at Ira peter's store where they can be purchased at cost. Call and examine and purchase anything you need in that line. STEPHEN A. BLANCHARD, President. DANIEL ZACHMAN, Secretary.

Destroy that Sign.

One may feel that he's getting old, but the naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectually as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hesitate to employ a man who shows this fatal sign. Parker's Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of gray ness removed and bald spots covered by using a single bottle.

—Our Sunday school is very poorly attended now. Parents, why don't you go with your children, and show by your presence, that it is a fitting place for every one to go, instead of playing marbles in the dust up to your eyes. Come, now, go to Sunday school.

—We have an aspirant for the office of Judge down in Forbes township on the sly. Now, Mr Aspirant, you ante up a "V" to the editor, and show your colors, and maybe you'll get that; they can't puff you, or blow your horn for nothing.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

JOHN QUINLIVEN'S TESTIMONY.

A Clear Statement of Facts by an Old Citizen.

"Yes," said Mr. Quinliven of Fourth and Isabelle Streets, "it was my daughter Annie and you may put this down just as I tell you. She was afflicted for over two years with an inflammation of the deep structures of her left eye. All done the duties, such as sewing, reading, etc., were cut off by the pain. We sought eye-doctors for relief only to have the trouble temporarily healed. On the 10th of last April a deep ulcer was found rapidly destroying her eye, and a milky scum forming over the sight. We were recommended to Dr. Boteler, the oculist over the postoffice, as the best talent here. He put my daughter under treatment and she improved from the very first. On May 15th she was entirely well; the eye strong and clear, enabling her to sew and read. Dr. Boteler accomplished a fine result and in a very short time. He did more than we expected and we want you to let the people know it." Mr Quinliven is one of our old citizens and a responsible man. He can be seen any time at the City Hall.—St. Joseph Gazette.
