Appalling.

Boston, Mass., March 11.—A heavy loaded passenger train on the Boston & Providence railway, met with a terrible accident about seven o'clock Monday morning in Canton, the locomotive and several cars going down the embankment into the river. Four cars are said to have gone through the bridge and many persons were killed. Advices from the scene of the wreck on the Boston & Providence railway state that fifteen bodies have already been taken from the ruins.

The train was made up from the scene of the accident on the Boston & Providence railroad and it is feared that thirty-three persons were killed and forty injured. Among these are many women.

Gigantic.

Information concerning one of the grandest railroad deals that has ever been made are announced in the telegraphic columns. The Atchison, Topeka, & Santa Fe proves to be the real purchaser of the Baltimore & Ohio roads and the negotiations were carried on under cover to prevent the Missouri Pacific, or in other words Jay Gould from sting hating the scheme. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe now becomes the most powerful railroad corporation in the world. The Baltimore & Ohio added to their system makes them the owner of twelve thousand miles of road. They now have a continuous line from ocean to ocean and from New York to the halls of the Montezumas, as the Mexican Central in reality belongs to them. This deal also gives the Santa Fe one of the most powerful telegraph corporations in the world, it being second only to the Western Union. Jay Gould has at last been out generaled. Who else could have conceived a more gigantic scheme than the shrewd owners of the Santa Fe.

There are many men and women in Holt county, who, if they will, can attend our meetings and help to make them still more interesting and profitable. Come out and let us tell each others what we have learned. There is sociability and enlightenment in a county horticultural society. Its meetings are pleasant occasions.

Fruit raising—all horticulture is—an employment, is one of the highest grades of industry, and there is money in it.

The next meeting will be at the office of Dr. Goslin on Saturday, March 26th, at 1 o'clock p. m.

W. R. LAYCOCK, Sec'y.

In the House at Jefferson Wednesday the general railroad bill of that body was defeated by a vote sufficiently decisive to encourage the hope that the defeat was final for the session, so far as this particular kind of destructive legislation is concerned. The measure in no way reflected the sentiments of the people of the State on the railroad question. The people want railroad regulation, but they do not want that particular kind of regulation which threatens the free exchange of commerce, and which forces those engaged in it, quite often, to leave the country.

Mineral Springs.

—Rider Gibb went to Maitland on Thursday.

—Henry Fehrman went to mill at Forest City, Tuesday.

—Mrs. Berkie Keller was calling in our vicinity Saturday.

—Miss Hettie Weaver spent Wednesday evening with Mrs. Ashby.

—Rev. Weaver preached at Harmony school house Sunday morning.

—John Bucher bought a valuable horse Saturday; price paid, $50.

—John Podeck spent Thursday and Friday, of last week in New Point, the guest of his brother George.

—Mrs. Ann McKinney is visiting her many friends in Mound City at present.

—Rev. M. W. Weaver, of Center, made a pleasant call in our community Thursday evening.

—The Center school closed Monday for want of scholars to attend, all being down with the measles.

—Mr. Long returned from Russell county, Kansas, last week. He gives a glowing account of that country.

—Ed. Williams and family, of Franklin, have moved on the Pearce section, where Ed. will put in a crop this season.

—The Center Literary Society closed Tuesday evening, with the promise of meeting again the coming fall and reorganizing their society.

—Mrs. George Terhune, accompanied by her estimable daughter, Miss Mattie, and son Ben, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fount Donan, Friday.

—Our Sunday School was favored with a few visitors last Sabbath, among them were Mrs. Rosa Fuhrman and Mrs. Hart; also Mr. Talbert, Miss Myra Hall and sister. "Welcome, all."

—Measles are rapidly spreading in Center district. We learn (at present writing) they are in six families, and from one to five in each family down, and one entire family. Most all are getting along nicely.

—Chris Stoble threshed 1612 bushels of oats on Wednesday of last week on the McCoy farm. We think it quite early to hear the "chan, lum" of the threshing machine, but Chris says the oats was not raised this year. Therefore we are set in quite such a wonderment now.

—The Mineral Spring school closed Friday, of last week, on account of measles in the district. We learn the Trustees have engaged Mr. Fickes to teach our school the next term, which we think a wise plan, as he has the good will of the entire district, and is one of our most worthy school teachers.

Kunkelville.

—D. C. Webster made a flying trip to New Point one day last week.

—Quite a number of our boys Sundayed at Nodaway Grove on last Sunday.

—Mr. M. E. Chapman and family are spending a few days at Gideon Kunkels.

—That dreaded contagion, the measles, has almost run its course in our burg.

—Grandpa Kunkle took in St. Joe at a glance, on business, on Friday of last week.

—John Wesley Kunkel, of our burg, spent Friday evening at the Grove, with Mrs. Dreher's boys.

—Miss Mollie Kunkel talks of making an extended visit of a few weeks in Kansas in the near future.

—Mr. Yankers and family, also Mr. Selby, all of Brown county, Kansas, were the guests of R. C. Beaton a few days last week.

—Mr. Gaunt has been laid up in the house for about a week, not being able to cut his own firewood. We have failed to learn the nature of the disease.

—Wesley Kunkel and Dan. Webster attended the Nichols Grove literary on last Friday evening, and report it a very instructive and profitable lyceum.

—Four of our burg has turned to manufacturing the Rocker Washing Machine, which is on a boom and bound to stay there. See picture and "ad" in another column.

—We understand that John E. Kunkel was admitted into the Lodge of United Workmen on last Friday evening. He said the goat bucked, but it was all the good it done him.

—Wesley Kunkel, better known as Dobe Kunkle, was a caller in our burg one day last week. Dobe is good, big and hearty yet, and able to walk his five miles an hour all day, and smile in the evening. Come again Dobe.

THE announcement that under the interstate commerce law it will be necessary to regard that Missouri River as the western boundary of trunk-line business, and to make through rates from there, is very important one. It implies, in a general way, that the discriminations in the light rates, by which Chicago has heretofore had so much advantage, must soon come to an end; and, furthermore, that said town will cease to exercise an arbitrary influence over the prices of grain and live stock by mere force of its position as a stopping-point on the line of western railroad traffic.

Bearing Fruit.

—So far we have not heard of a single case of measles in this district.

—Quite a number from here attended church at Forest City last week.

—The many friends of Mrs. Irena Lewis will be glad to learn that she is recovering.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Waggoner, of New Point, were visiting here last week, the guests of Mrs. Brasel and family.

—Mr. George Miller, who has lived on Mr Porter's place for the last two years, moved to the Chamoers district last week.

—Miss Nella Varnel was looking after her school, in the Oakland district, last week. Miss Varnel is an excellent teacher, and we wish her success.

—While your fair cities are booming our neighborhood is on a boom also. There is a great deal of improvement going on, besides the new county road is now opened from Mrs. Brasel's north to the levee, and we have some talk of another new road to run from Iowa Point to Carson's switch.

THE ravages of cholera in Chili continue, and the disease is spreading rapidly and is attended with great fatality. The warning to our health authorities upon the Gulf coast, the Pacific, and the inland route through Mexico should not be unheeded. Better to virtually seal all our ports against the infected countries rather than to take the chances of introducing the plague.

THE Greenbackers of Michigan have a compact organization of about 30,000 votes, which for several years have been sold to Democratic candidates in exchange for favorable legislation. With their help the Democrats did once elect a Governor, and Congressman on several occasions. The results of last fall's election convinced the Greenbackers that there was little to be gained by alliance with Bourbonism, and at the State convention held the week they exacted conditions that the Democrats would not accept. The result is that each convention nominated a ticket to be voted for in April. In 1878 Hartsuff's vote in the State was 16,836, and the fusion vote 14,018. For Governor in 1880, the Republican vote was 181,171, and the fusion vote 172,032. Subtracting the Greenback vote from the fusion strength will enable the Republicans to carry the State by 40,000 majority.

WHEN you have found something that pays you for the effort of finding do not be selfish with it. Ventilate the fact to your friend, giving him or her a chance to "go and do likewise." Selfishness is an unprofitable characteristic, and riches attained through its practice are only secured at the expense of a warped soul, a lone life's existence and a somber death. No sunshine penetrates to the selfish heart; no room for love or tenderness is there; and what is existence without its sunshine, love and its gentle associations? Be grateful for your own opportunities, and when you see a struggling brother at the way-side, extend to him the helping hand, the welcome information of your own success and the happy means of its accomplishment. There will be plenty of room in the world for both of you.—Exchange.

How is this for a problem and solution? A man had three sons and all the property he owned was seventeen horses. Dying, he made a will that the oldest son should have one-half of his property, the second oldest one-third, and the youngest one-ninth. The boys were unable to divide the horses among them and called in a wise man to make the division for them. The wise man had a horse of his own which he added to the seventeen, making eighteen horses. The oldest son having been willed one-half, the wise man set apart nine horses, the second oldest having been willed one-third, was given six horses, and the youngest having been willed one-ninth, was given two horses. Thus it will be seen that the wise man would have his horse left and the boys would all get more than their share.

THE President's party will find it impossible to justify the pensioning for service merely of soldiers of the Mexican war, many of whom participated subsequently in the rebellion, and devoting pensions to Union soldiers who are dependent entirely upon charity for support.—New York World.

There is not a Democratic State but will approve the President's action, and for the very reasons the World gives for opposing it. The Democratic States are not the friends of Union soldiers. There are Democrats in the North that "will find it impossible to justify" the act, but they are a drop in the bucket to the masses in the South who will stand by the President and mark the act as one of justice.

THE United States Senate did not "pan out" as the House expected, and agree to pay the Pacific Mail the larger $5,000,000 as earned for in the deficiency bill. The force increase of appropriations for current expenses, over that of any former Congress, made the last Congress noted as for its extravagance instead of for its economy.

THE militia bill was defeated in the House at Jefferson City by a close vote, but it is not dead yet, by any means. The Senate bill is yet pending in the House, and there are strong hopes of its passage.

Bridge Commissioner Morris was instructed, in conjunction with the same officer of Andrew county, to contract with Mr. McArthur, in the sum of $500 for the raising of the bridge across the Nodaway river at Thralkill's ferry; Holt county to pay her proportion of the contract price.

Squire Carter was appointed Justice of the Peace for Forbes township.

Collector Boyer recommended Henry Shults as his attorney, which was confirmed by the court.

Road overseer of district seventeen was ordered to open the public road in his district as established and running along the line of the center of sections 22, township 60, of range 39.

The court ordered that a bounty of ten cents be paid in accordance with chapter 110 of revised statutes, which provides "any person claiming such reward shall produce the head or scalp to the clerk of the County Court of the county in which such gopher or gophers are killed, within three months thereafter."

In the death of James B. Eads, the country loses one of its most eminent and energetic civil engineers. All are familiar with the magnitude of his greatest and most successful undertaking, the construction of the great bridge at St. Louis. The bridge project was first conceived in 1869. Various sites were selected and the project met with varying fortunes until Mr. Eads began to take an active interest in it in 1867. In that year he was elected engineer-in-chief of the company then formed. He at once procured the services of Colonel Henry Flad and proceeded to develop plans which were successfully followed out and the gigantic bridge constructed. It was completed and opened in 1874. In 1879 Mr. Eads began the construction of a system of jetties for increasing the depth of the water at the mouth of the Mississippi under a contract with the government. His plans were proposed were secured by promises of success, and proved eminently successful. He secured a depth of water which allows the largest ocean vessels to sail in the river and unload their cargoes at New Orleans. His latest plan was the construction of a ship canal across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, but had even in progress of its execution received government grants which he deemed essential.—St. Joseph Herald.

—Rumor tells us that a drug store from Maitland will open up at New Point ere long. We welcome a first class drug store in our midst, but don't want no second class saloon.

—We met the smiling face of John Price the other day, and he said tell them that an eight-pound dish-washer took up her abode with me the 5th inst. Wife and daughter doing nicely, and John will get along all right if he don't get no back set.

—Mr. Keplinger and family, who have been visiting relatives and friends at Mound City, returned to their home last Saturday. Mr. K. will teach our spring school, which will make him eighteen consecutive months of school work in our district.

—Your correspondent has been credibly informed, that during the present season, hundreds of acres of timber land will be cleared off and put in a proper state of cultivation. Our bottom land consists of a very fertile soil—a soil that will abundantly yield in many fold for all of the laborious efforts put forth to convert it into fruitful and beautiful fields of grain.

---Ladies those White Sewing Machines at Price's Hardware are Beauties. CALL IN, STEP IN, WALK IN, RUN IN, and see them no trouble to show goods.

—The Agitator is thrown back on Mr. Gay's hands again. A few weeks ago R. W. Trimble bargained for the property and took possession, employing Mr. S. S. Hughes to manage the editorial department. After running the paper for a week or two days Mr. Trimble left, and up to the present time has not returned, and to judge from the tone of the letters he writes back from Nebraska City, where he is running a picture gallery, he does not intend to return. His newspaper experience was short lived, but then his ambition has been gratified. Mr. Hughes is still holding the bag waiting for his salary to drop in.—Tarkio Avalanche.

The Markets.

CATTLE.—The past week saw lighter receipts everywhere, and in consequence the general tone of the market was better. Shipping cattle continued to come in in very good quality and such sold a little better than at the close of our last review and may be quoted 10c per cwt. higher than a week ago. Canners are cutting down their output, and as a result, thin and medium butcher stuff has been falling badly. They were not only slow sale throughout the week but may be quoted a shade lower than a week ago. Stockers and feeders continue in very good demand and steady. They are selling very well at $3.30 to $3.80 for general receipts. The eastern and intermediate markets during the week were a little firmer under the reduced supply and the under current of trade seems healthy. What influence this bull movement in her product and boys will have upon the beef market it is hard to say just now. A few sanguine men think that good cattle will rally much as spring advances, but this depends more upon the supply than outside speculative influences. There is yet four weeks of Lent ahead of us, and according to the government estimates the country is full of cattle. Hence the true policy for farmers to adopt is a conservative one. A little waiting can do no harm while a hurry might cost much money. Closing quotations: Extra fine steers, av. 1300 and over, $4.25@4.40; good av. 1300 to 1150, $3.80@4.20.

HOGS.—There was a marked falling off in the receipts the past week everywhere, and the market much unsettled. The opening days of our review week there was a sharp decline at Kansas City, but in Chicago and St. Louis, last week's values were held up. Finding that our markets were holding up, buyers here turned from "bears" to "bull" and began to send prices up again. It did not take them long to learn that they could not successfully squeeze hogs down when provision values were dancing among the stars, and for the past few days hogs have been about as high as ever in Kansas City, and higher in Chicago. Monday the bulk of sales were $5.50 to $5.65; in Chicago $5.65 to $5.85, and in St. Louis, $5.60 to $5.80. The same day last week the bulk of sales in Kansas City were $5.30 to $5.40, in Chicago, $5.40 to $5.60, and in St. Louis, $5.40 to $5.60. Packers, notwithstanding they have closed the winter season, were active buyers, and shippers did a fair trade. Packers took twice the number of hogs they did the corresponding week last year, while shippers' purchases were not so liberal. The number of choice heavy hogs coming in is light, and there is a wide range between light young hogs and choice pork lots. Of course all farmers are nursing their hogs now as they are about the best paying animals on the farm. Yet it takes time as well as care, to bring forth pigs and raise them, and it is thought the shortage in the larger grades will linger during the spring months, and then should there be war in Europe, provisions would go sky high. The extreme range Tuesday was $4.35 to $5.90, bulk of sales $5.50 to $5.65, or rather date last year that extreme range was $3.65 to $4.85, bulk of sales $4.60 to $4.80.
