STATE OF MISSOURI,
County of Holt } ss.

I, SAMUEL O'FALLON, Judge of the Probate Court within the above and foregoing County, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing contains a true and correct list of the settlements made at the Regular February Term, 1892, of said Probate Court, so far as the same relate to estates in charge of said Court. Witness my hand and seal of said Court, this 1st day of February, 1892.

SAMUEL O'FALLON,
Judge of Probate Court.

Labor Notes.

Nashville colored farmers organized.

Author Stockton warm on ever.

New York has 12,000 telegraph boys.

Cincinnati carpenters have 20 cents an hour.

The average cost of raising a boy is estimated at $4,000.

New York building workers won a strike against nonunion men.

New York architectural iron workers struck for nine hours.

The Denver clerks are fined 50 cents for smoking cigarettes.

One of the largest and the newest companies in this country goes to a woman manager.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen paid $36,000 last month for death benefits. The receipts amounted to $62,000.

The next union [illegible] to be organized in Sacramento will be the hotel, and its membership will include all unorganized labor.

The American Federation of Labor, in annual convention, passed a resolution favoring a woman suffrage amendment to the constitution.

A recent report on the labor of women on the mining industry showed clearly that about 50 per cent of the total value of the coal and iron ore mined in Great Britain in 1890 was received by labor, the total wages amounting to over $[illegible], or an average of $[illegible] per miner.

Country travelers must often notice, as they pass from towns the large windmills of different patterns that may be seen from the highways. They will notice also, on by far the larger number of them, the large lettered signs of the makers—signs as large, in fact, as the signs of a country doctor or dentist. What is peculiar about them is that the advertising is had for nothing. The maker simply puts his sign on, and the farmer doesn't think to object. As it covers about two blades of the wheel, why doesn't the farmer get a rebate in price for holding it up to every wind that blows, and to the Infinite Sky, and then sell the remaining space to his neighboring village traders and merchants? To carry the maker's imprint on his buggy or farm wagon is not the same matter, for the imprint is always modest and can never be read at a distance or without a little attentive scrutiny. The sign on the windmill is surely worth paying for, or else it deserves painting out. But farmers do not live up to all of their opportunities, and as a class lack the commercial instinct. Printer's Ink.

The list of murders in this country last year footed up six thousand, while but 123 legal executions took place. The result of such tardy justice was 125 unlawful executions by lynchers. The truth of the situation is lynch law will continue until the courts are swifter to mete out punishment to those who transgress the law.

The ruin wrought by the McKinley bill still continues. During the month of November, the value of exports from the United States was $110,000,000—the largest amount ever exported in one month, in our history. And the bulk of this was stuff raised by the farmers of the United States.

A partisan sheet remarks that U. S. Hall should not be allowed to write letters for publication, "at least until he goes a few terms to a good district school." This is a nice way to speak of a member of the Missouri state school book commission.—St. Joseph News.

The "Twice-a-Week" St. Louis Republican is larger, cleaner, and better than any weekly paper published in America. Other papers may claim to say more for their money, but it is unquestionably true that the "Twice-a-Week" Republican prints more news, and fresher news, than any weekly paper dares to print. It is issued on Tuesday and Friday of every week. During the long interim of from four to six days between the issues of the Republican, it gathers the news of the world, and prints it in its eight pages every other week. As other big metropolitan dailies are printed exclusively for distribution from early points, the "Twice-a-Week" Republican is unquestionably the best and most complete weekly newspaper published in the United States. Its special features, which no weekly paper can claim, will be found in The "Twice-a-Week" Republican uninterruptedly during this great campaign year, 1892. Sixty-six dollars buys a full year's subscription (104 papers), or address for free sample copy. The Republican, St. Louis, Mo.

The Executive committee of the Michigan state grange opposes the free coinage of silver on the following grounds:

That if the government coinage stamp is of no value upon the metal, the people also give it the value should have the benefit.

It would decrease rather than increase the circulation, and would contract instead of expand the money of a country already the poorest of any of the civilized nations.

It would throw the whole burden of coining silver bullion with gold upon the farmers of the country, who could be relieved for cheaper and gold demanded for importers. Office in demanding Europe of silver and America of gold.

Everybody respects a young man who refuses to drink, and in these days sensible men, even those who are not opposed to drinking on principle, are giving up the consumption of alcohol as a bad practice. They know by experience that it is one of the most serious of the obstacles to material success. Hunt out the real cause of half the bankruptcies and you would find it in drinking. Discover the true cause of the inability of your young men to get ahead and in the majority of cases it would be drinking. The country boy who trims his fortune in the city cannot afford to take that drink. He must be in fighting trim always, with every power at his full command.

Mrs. Hemans and the Princess Louise are the only two women who have ever been permitted to set foot within the cloisters of the monastery of Santa Barbara, in California. And even after their visit, the ground trodden by them was at once consecrated with solemn ceremonies and much fasting and prayer. The monastery is the oldest but one of the twenty four missions established in California by the Franciscans, at the close of the last century, and is the only one now occupied by the friars of the order.

The orators who made so much noise about farmers' mortgages at the beginning of 1891 are now as silent as the grasshoppers that after singing all summer dance all winter to keep warm. The farmers are paying off their mortgages more rapidly than ever before.

The Population of Oregon

Is about 1200, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as these complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50 cents and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Every Farmer and Stockman

Should subscribe for his home paper, to keep up with the local news, but he also needs a first class agricultural, live-stock and market journal, to keep him posted in his own line of business. Such a journal is the Kansas City Live Stock Indicator, a handsome 16-page paper, covering all the lines of stock-raising and general farming, besides giving the best and most complete market reports of any journal published in the west.

Desiring to give our present readers a benefit, and at the same time increase our own circulation, we have made arrangements by which we will furnish THE SENTINEL $1.50 a year and the Kansas City Live-Stock Indicator both for one year, for only $2.00, provided subscriptions are received not later than January, 1892. THE NEW YORK
Family Story Paper
FOR 1892.

SPECIMEN NUMBERS.

In beginning the eighteenth year of its existence, it is with a feeling of just pride that the publisher of states that this great journal has double the circulation of any family paper in the world.

This claim, which all its competitors are invited to investigate, can easily be verified.

The pre-eminence thus acquired can be achieved only by merit. The reading public will buy that paper which best satisfies their desire for stories of the highest literary merit and most interesting character. And the enormous circulation of The New York Family Story Paper proves that it has done this.

All the Great Features of the Paper to which it owes its success of the past will be zealously guarded in the coming year.

Its distinguished staff of authors, among whom may be mentioned

Mary Kyle Dallas, Nellie Bly, Abi S. Jackman, Charlotte M. Kingsley, "Birdie" May, Laura Garrison Jones, Scarlatti M. Stanley, T. W. Hanshew, E. Burke Collins and others equally famous, will be retained, its artistic excellence maintained, its beautiful typographical appearance preserved, and the same judicious editorial supervision exercised to keep the tone of the paper as pure and moral as it has been from its inception.

No Expense of Time or Money will be spared to hold its old and attract new features. Standing as it does, "Head and Front" among all its contemporaries, The New York Family Story Paper cannot stop adding to its columns all that is brightest and best in modern fiction.

A recent method suggested for driving nails that have been set in the wood is to heat a small soldering iron, and insert them into the nails. It is said that they drive very easily, without in any way injuring the finish.

The demand for foot balls is of such large proportions that there are four establishments in this country devoted exclusively to this branch of business, one of the last in New York town in New Haven and one in the west.

About forty-seven cob pipes are daily manufactured in this country, all being in four factories, at St. Louis, Green Bay, N. Y., and in Kansas. The cobs are for the Colley variety of corn, of which they grow unusually heavy, solid and dry.
