

Saint Mary's Beacon. COUNTY NEWS.

Localwise and Otherwise. Another hot spell!

Miss Mary Ollie Maxwell, of Baltimore, is visiting Leonardtown friends.

Mrs. William Hekey, of Baltimore, has been on a visit to her relatives in this town.

Miss Emma Dillow, of Baltimore, is visiting her cousin Mr. Jos. A. Dillow, this town.

Mr. J. H. Garner, of Chicago, brother of Hon. George R. Garner, is visiting his relatives in St. Mary's.

Read the article on "Ancient Maryland History" by Vincent Camalleri, published on our first page.

Mr. J. Philip Greenwell has sold the Brown Store property in this village to Mr. William H. Jones and wife.

Misses Estelle Hayden and Annie Ford left for Washington and other points per Arrowsmith Tuesday evening.

James H. Eliff, an old and respected citizen of the Second district died at his residence near Valley Lee, Tuesday last. He was a truly good man.

A Mr. Say, of the Eastern Shore, is in the 6th district looking out for a farm to buy. He has come to the right place to get what he wants.

There will be a game of ball at the Leonardtown grounds Monday afternoon next, at 5 o'clock, between the Jun'or Nine of this town and the Glebe Club.

Dr. Thomas Lynch, of May, Texas, requests us to state that he expects to return to St. Mary's about December next and will resume the practice of medicine here.

The meeting of the Orphans' and Commissioners' Courts Tuesday last brought quite a crowd to town and the BEACON was honored by the visit of several esteemed friends.

Among the recent visitors to Leonardtown we notice Capt. A. A. Lawrence, of Washington. The Captain is looking well and is still interested in the welfare of our town.

George Macbubin Thomas, son of Dr. James Thomas, has been elected principal of Charlotte Hall Academy. Those who know Prof. Thomas say that his selection is a good one.

We have heard with regret of an accident to our friend Mr. W. E. Burch, of Charlotte Hall district, wherein he was severely bruised and a valuable horse had one of its legs broken.

It is reported here that Captain Geoghegan has severed his connection with the Md. and Va. Steamboat Co. We should be very sorry to part with Captain G. and hope the report is not true.

Despite earnest efforts to correct proofs errors will creep in. The account of Leo M. Wathen, late sheriff, in the recent publication of the levy is printed as $163.30, when it should have been $363.30.

The rumor is current that Mr. James T. M. Raley will soon take charge of the old Fenwick Hotel. Mr. R. is a hustler and when he gets to hotel keeping will make Count Moore look out for his laurels.

The Ladies of All Faith parish, Mechanicsville district, will give a Dramatic Entertainment, August 15th instant, for the purpose of raising funds to build a belfry for their church. Don't forget to attend.

We are informed that Mr. P. Gough Edelen will continue the Commission house of Edelen Bros., under the same firm name and style as heretofore. This is a good business man and a first class commission merchant.

Mr. Ames, of Scotland, has purchased the McCallum property on the Patuxent river, 6th district of this county. Mr. A. is a pleasant gentleman and we hope that more like him will find their way to old St. Mary's.

Mr. J. T. West, of Washington, one of the most experienced brick men of that city, says that he has seen during his visit to our county as good clay for brick-making and as fine building and foundry sand as is to be found in the Union.

Mrs. R. G. Robinson, of Hayre de Grace and Miss Sallie Bryant, of Philadelphia whose father George W. Bryant fought in the Confederate army under Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, are visiting the family of Mr. P. H. Dorsey, St. Clement's Bay.

Lieut. J. S. R. Reeves, U. S. N., and family are at Moore's Hotel. During previous visits to our town the Lieutenant and family made many friends who are pleased to see them again with us. From the Lieutenant to Commander Joseph the family is deservedly popular.

We hope our county fathers will soon determine upon a road system for the county. The Commissioners' Court has not the time to give to the supervision of the roads but it has the power to appoint a commission or an engineer to attend to them. We hope some system will be speedily determined upon.

In our remarks in a recent paper in reference to the extra road expenses left over by the late Commissioners' Court to be included in this year's levy, we omitted to state that none of it was chargeable to Mr. Ballenger's districts and the books show that, instead of exceeding his appropriations, left small amounts to the credit of his districts. Our attention has been called to this matter and we cheerfully make the amend. We have it further, on good authority, that the roads under Mr. Ballenger's charge were the best kept in the county.

The tournament at Leonardtown, Wednesday of last week was numerously attended and was quite a success. Eleven knights contended. Bernard Guy, Knight of St. Clement's Bay, won the Queen's crown and bested the honor upon Miss Violet Mattingly. The Knight of Newport, crowned Miss Nina Davis, of Charles county First Maid, Briscoe Bond, Knight of Rosedale, crowned Miss Nannie Wilson, of Calver, Second Maid, and Warren Leach, Knight of Careless Bay, gave the honor he won to Miss Prendell, of Washington. The Leonardtown Base-Ball Nine went to Marlboro' last week and was defeated by the team of that town in an exciting game by a score of 10 to 4. We have tried to get a report of the game but have thus far failed. We learn, however, that our young men are not pleased with the treatment they received at the hands of the Marlboro' Club. On the way home our boys stopped at Bryantown, Charles county, played with the club of that place and it seems impossible for them to say enough in praise of the courtesy and hospitality of that portion of "Charles county, God bless you!"

Picnic. A most enjoyable picnic was given at the residence of Mr. John T. Johnson by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mattingly on the 9th instant. The day being beautiful and the place selected nicely situated for such an occasion it is almost unnecessary to state it was a great success. The host and hostess were untiring in their efforts for the enjoyment of the guests. The "spread out" was excellent, consisting of every delicacy, and the most fastidious epicure would be happy at such a repast; the oyster scald was an especial feature of the occasion and Zach was found there "when the sun went down." Time and space will not permit the mention of those present, but it is sufficient to say that each and every one had a most delightful time.

Commissioners' Court. Court met Tuesday, August 9, 1892, all the members present. Pensions granted to Mary Hanson, 4th district, $10; W. H. Thomas, 6th district, $10; Martha Ann Owens, 7th district, $20. James R. Redmond, appointed constable 3rd district.

Clerk ordered to adjust claim of M. S. Hammett, late collector. Ordered that Stephen Jones be relieved of amount due by him to St. Mary's county as surety for James H. Alvey—about $30—in consideration for a deed for public road bed running from his house to Patuxent river and thence to wharf.

Several accounts examined and passed. Bonds of W. W. Cecil, collector for 1st, 2nd, 5th and 9th districts filed and approved. Board adjourned to meet September 20th, ultimo.

Orphans' Court. Tuesday, August 9, 1892. Court met—all the officers present. The Court passed the 3rd and final account of William E. Burch, guardian to William F. Burch. Order to sell stock of goods granted to Isiah Canter, administrator of Isiah W. Canter.

Case of Ashlor Cawood vs. Jos. H. Ching admr. Petition to revoke letters. Argued before the Court and petition dismissed. Hammett for petitioner; Combs, Camalleri and Ching for admr.

Bond of Emily Spalding and Dr. S. E. Spalding filed and approved, and order for sale granted on usual terms. Citation ordered for Mrs. Harding and the Cooney brothers. Court adjourned to August 23.

A Rodeo Treat. Monday evening next, the 15th instant, the Steamer Wakefield is to bring an excursion from Nomini to Leonardtown. The excursionists will be accompanied by the choir [ten voices] of St. Dominic's Church, Washington, and five orchestra pieces, and will give a Grand Concert in the Society's Hall, this town. The proceeds of the entertainment are to go to St. Francis de Sales Church, Westmoreland county, Virginia. Our readers will doubtless remember that some months ago the Beacon reprinted an account of the dedication of this church—the first Catholic house of worship erected in the Northern Neck. St. Francis de Sales has a congregation of but thirty souls, is in debt, its few members are poor and hence it is obliged to appeal to its co-religionists of Maryland and the charitable of other denominations for help. This church, however, is not asking you to give it something for nothing but, for your contribution will give a rare and enjoyable musical treat. We appeal to our readers to turn out in force and liberally help our Virginia friends. The price of admission will be: Single tickets, 50 cents; for lady and gentleman, 75 cents.

A Handsome New Church. The new Sacred Heart Church, the foundation which was laid in March, was dedicated on Sunday, July 24th, by Rev. E. V. Boursand, S. J., Rector of Woodstock College, Md., who also preached a very appropriate sermon. The new structure was rendered necessary by the increasing needs of the parish, over whose spiritual welfare the Jesuit Fathers have watched since 1775. The Church is 111 feet long, including sacristy, and 63 feet wide. The distance from the ground to the top of the cross which surmounts the steeple is 94 feet. The Church contains 90 pews, with a seating capacity of about 600. It cost $6,000. The dedication ceremony being over, solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. E. V. Boursand, S. J., with Rev. Jos. Hanselman, S. J., as Deacon; Rev. Andrew P. Keating, S. J., as sub-Deacon; Rev. O. S. Lancaster, S. J., as Master of Ceremonies; and Rev. Jos. Woods, S. J., assistant Master of Ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Renahan, Mrs. Kate Abell, Mrs. Madge Boyd, Mrs. Josie Burch and Mrs. Mary Herbert rendered very efficient service in the choir. A three-days mission commenced on the evening of the 24th under the direction of Rev. Daniel Doherty, S. J., assisted by Rev. Jos. Hanselman, S. J., and Rev. Joseph Woods, S. J., who, notwithstanding the intense heat, labored with untiring zeal for the success of the mission. The Church was well-filled at all the exercises and the sermons and instructions or the great truths made a marked impression on a very attentive audience. When we consider that there were 632 confessions and 61 First Holy Communions, we must conclude that the mission was a success beyond expectation. The clergy were kindly entertained during the mission by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Renahan, whose reputation for hospitality is well-known. About 1,200 persons were present at the Dedication Ceremony, some of them residing 15 miles distant.

A Pretty Wedding. One of the most brilliant weddings that has ever been celebrated in St. Mary's county was solemnized at St. Aloysius' Catholic Church at Leonardtown on Wednesday evening last, the 3rd instant, the contracting parties being Dr. William Baltzell Burch, of Baltimore, and Miss Susie Combs, daughter of Dr. Charles Combs, of Leonardtown. A few minutes after 8 o'clock, P. M., the sweet strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Enoch B. Abell, announced the arrival of the bridal party, who, forming into line, marched up the left side of the church to the altar, the ushers and bridesmaids occupying alternate positions in the procession. Messrs. Jeff and Manning Combs leading, followed by Misses Marguerite Combs and Marie Burch, Roger Combs and George Loker, Misses Anna Abell and Mary Loker, with Miss Bernice Combs, as Maid of Honor, followed by the bride, leaning upon the arm of her father. At the altar the bride was met by the groom, who entered with his best man, Mr. A. A. Taylor, of Baltimore, from the sacristy, and the bridesmaids forming in line on the one side and the ushers on the other of the happy couple, formed a semi circle about them. The bride was attired in a beautiful Princess gown of white tulle, wore a long white veil, gracefully caught with rosebuds, and in her hand she carried a bunch of bride's roses.—The bridesmaids wore gowns of silk milie of various colors, Miss Marguerite Combs wearing lavender, Miss Marie Burch Nile green, Miss Anna Abell corn color and Miss Mary Loker blue, which, when blended, by the side of the bride, gave to the scene the effect of the many tints of the rainbow. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles K. Jenkins, assisted by Fathers Lancaster and Bric, which, being concluded, the bride and groom, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, left the altar, followed by her maids and ushers, and proceeded to the home of her parents, where an informal reception was held, and the host of friends of the young couple repaired and extended their congratulations. The bride was the recipient of a great number of handsome and costly presents, that of the groom being a beautiful gold watch. On Monday last the young couple left per steamer "Sun" for Baltimore, enroute for an extended wedding trip, during which they will visit New York city, and thence to Watkin's Glen, Lake Champlain, &c., as far North as Montreal, Canada, stopping at the Thousand Islands, Niagara and numerous other places of interest. They will return in about three weeks and hereafter reside at the home of the groom in Baltimore. We have witnessed many weddings in St. Mary's, but do not remember to have ever seen one in which the popularity of the contracting parties was so unmistakably attested as by the great concourse of people in attendance and the many expressions of good will that were heard on all sides. To Dr. and Mrs. Burch the Beacon extends its sincerest congratulations and hopes that their married life may be replete with every worldly blessing. "And that an old age serene and bright, And lovely as a Lapland night Shall lead them to their grave."

Our Hotel Guests. (Reported for the Beacon.) Mrs. Joe Eapata Daly, of Washington, is domiciled at Moore's Hotel. Mrs. Daly has endeared herself to the residents of our village by her charming manners and excellent singing. Miss Agnes Morgan, of Washington, D. C., has found a new cousin in one of our most prosperous merchants. Congratulations Mr. M. upon discovering so pleasant and fair a relation. Miss Maggie Mundell left for Washington last evening. During her stay she captivated the hearts of several of our young gallants. Miss Ettae Noah left on Sunday for Washington after a pleasant visit. Her departure saddened several many hearts who know of.

Miss Lollie Blandford is one of our charming visitors who delights in affording other pleasures. Her humorous recitations are ever excellent. Miss Laura West, the pretty daughter of a fair mother, charms all with whom she meets. May she visit Leonardtown often.

Mrs. E. N. Thompson and her two sons are guests of Moore's Hotel. Mrs. T. was here years ago and made many friends. Mrs. DeVaughan, Mrs. Coon and Miss Rita Coon—all pleasant ladies—are still enjoying their sojourn with the hospitable Count Moore.

J. K. S. Reeves, U. S. N., wife and family are guests at Moore's. Capt. Joe Reeves is a thorough sailor and enjoys himself with the vim of an old salt.

Several new visitors arrived at Moore's Monday, among the most prominent being Mrs. W. H. Coleman and her lovely children; Messrs. George Kincaid and R. Hutchinson.

Miss Nellie Hodgson and Miss Nellie DeVaughan have made many friends and have many ardent admirers who consider them—Well, we will leave younger people to pay the compliments they deserve.

Mr. Joseph A. Moore left for Baltimore after a short visit to his family. Episcopal Services.
