Herbert Rhodes.....Defendant.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff by her attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Circuit Court in vacation, that said defendant, Herbert Rhodes, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and does not reside therein, it is shown that he has absented himself from his usual place of abode in this state, so that the ordinary process of law of this state cannot be served upon him; it is ordered that said non-resident defendant be notified by publication, as required by law, that said plaintiff has commenced her suit in this Court against said defendant by petition and affidavit, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from defendant on the grounds of indignities such as to render her condition in life intolerable, in this, to-wit: That he frequently cursed and abused plaintiff, applying to her foul and abusive epithets, all without justification or excuse; that he continually refused and failed to support plaintiff, compelling her to rely upon her own efforts and upon the efforts of her relatives for support; that he was habitually and continuously intoxicated and in a drunken condition when at their home and in the presence of this plaintiff.
