WANTED HIS CAP

In Addition to the Job of Saving His Life the Rescuer Was Expected to Do More.

A small boy of the Jewish persuasion who was playing at the end of the pier fell into the sea and was only rescued after great difficulty by an intreped swimmer, who dived off the end of the pier and succeeded in getting the boy in a rowboat.

Half an hour afterwards, much exhausted by his effort, the rescuer was walking off the pier when a man came up and tapped him on the shoulder.

"Are you the man who saved my son Ikey's life?" he said.

"Yes," answered the much-exhausted hero.

"Then," said the Hebrew in indignant tones, "v'ere's his cap?"

Mr. Edward C. Matthews, a banker and farmer of Sikeston, gets the bronze medal and $250 cash prize for alfalfa in the Farm Journal National Crop Contest. He came mighty near getting the silver medal and $500 cash prize, his yield being 6 tons 586.8 lbs. and that of the Illinois farmer who stood second being 6 tons 813.4 lbs., average for five acres. The hay was calculated to the low moisture content of 12½ per cent.

"This hat was made for you, dear," said a millinery saleslady to a Boonville teacher, who is young and pretty, and the teacher says that the next day she saw a very old lady wearing the same kind of hat very becomingly.
