of Prince George's county.

Thursday's Baltimore papers report that there is no cholera in the United States.

How to Win the Election.

I believe that a large majority of the people of this country are convinced of the rightfulness of democratic principles and want them to prevail. But the election will not win itself, and there must be complete organization. I repeat the injunction I uttered before the democratic State Convention at Albany, in February last, "It is our duty to organize, organize, organize." With this motto inscribed upon our banner, "Public office is a public trust," supplemented by the other sentiments which I have endeavored to present to you to-night, "No public taxation for private purposes," and "no Force bill," let us close up our ranks and buckle on our armor for the fight, with the determination to do all in our power for the triumph of our party and the election of our honored standard-bearers, Cleveland and Stevenson.—Senator Hill's Speech.

The Democratic Position.

In the imposition of necessary tariffs there should be exercised a wise discrimination in the amounts exacted and in the articles taxed, free list and what should be most heavily burdened are questions not free from difficulty and require the most careful consideration.

The Mills bill of 1888 and the separate tariff bills passed by the present democratic House of Representatives indicate in a general way the democratic position. They show:

First—That the necessities of life should be absolutely free.

Second—That luxuries should bear the heaviest burdens.

Third—That there should be free raw materials for the benefit of our manufacturers.

Fourth—That the tariff upon manufactured articles should, as a general rule, be larger where similar articles are manufactured in this country than where they are not.

Fifth—That the tariff imposed upon all manufactured articles (other than those which, for good reasons, are placed on the free list) should equal the difference between the rate of wages paid in this and foreign countries, so far as labor enters into the cost of the production.—Senator Hill's Speech.

A Menace to Liberty.

The Force Bill has been well described as a "menace to liberty"—the liberty of the North as well as the South, the liberty of the black as well as the white, the liberty of every citizen, no matter to what party he may happen to belong.

Whence comes this objectionable scheme for federal interference in our elections, and who are its originators and sponsors? Until recently the author of the measure was supposed to be the eminently respectable Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, who introduced the bill. But not long ago a gentleman not unknown to fame, Mr. John I. Davenport, of New York city, the chief federal supervisor of elections, and also a United States commissioner, a diminutive, polite and amiable person, "as mild a man as ever sailed a ship out a throat," came to Washington and appeared before the committee on immigration in behalf of another project dear to his heart—to promote "the purity of elections," and I had the honor of examining him, and he stated in answer to my question that he was the bold and sole author of the notorious force bill. The borrowed plume was immediately stripped from the proud person of Mr. Henry Cabot Lodge and the bill has since been properly styled "The Davenport force bill." Permit me in this connection to further state that Mr. Davenport, on this same occasion, with brutal frankness, avowed his purpose to have his bill introduced again whenever "a favorable opportunity" should occur, and when asked what he meant by "a favorable opportunity," he unblushingly replied: "When the republicans shall again have a majority in both Houses of Congress"—an event not likely to occur, I trust, for many years to come. In the open and public expression of his intention to press the measure again it must be assumed that he spoke in behalf of his party and reflected its sentiments.—Senator Hill's Speech.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

From the Baltimore Sun.

Friday, September 16, 1892.

Governor Brown has issued his proclamation setting apart October 21, Columbus Day, as a legal holiday.

Mrs. Harrison's symptoms were better yesterday, but little hope of her recovery is entertained at Loon Lake.

Returns for the entire State of Vermont give Fuller, republican, a plurality of 19,664 for Governor. The republican loss compared with the vote of 1888 is 9,262.

Gen. Adlai E. Stevenson opened the North Carolina campaign at Asheville with an address upon the issues before the voters of the South.

It is said that Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance will be very brief.

Wisconsin is considered the most likely Northwestern State for the democrats to carry.

It is said the republicans are making a strong effort to carry West Virginia.

It is believed that Judge Werts will accept the democratic nomination for Governor of New Jersey.

Court Clerk Tritt, of Wisconsin, has issued 536 oyster tongs licenses.

Salisbury business men are endeavoring to secure better steamboat facilities.

That oyster tongsman became oyster law by Captain Bryan, of the State fishery force.

Mrs. Amos Ward, of Anne Arundel county, put to flight a burglar who had concealed himself beneath her bed.

The inability of President Harrison to attend the Grand Army reunion on account of the illness of his wife will be a source of disappointment to thousands of veterans. Vice-President Morton may receive at the White House.

The War Department will turn its attention to the problem of securing a satisfactory smokeless powder for use in the Krag-Jorgensen rifle, which has been adopted as the future small arm of the army.

Senator E. Stanley Towner announced himself this morning as a candidate for nomination in the first congressional district. Ex-Governor Jackson, who is at White Sulphur Springs, addressed a letter this morning to Senator Towner to the effect that he would not be a candidate under any circumstances.

Crittenden Harper, of Talbot county, has been placed in command of the oyster police sloop May Compton.

Prince George's county commissioners will consider the purchase of the bridge over the Patuxent river at Mill's Landing.

The Italians of Baltimore have arranged a programme for the unveiling of the Columbus Monument to be placed in Druid Hill Park.

The pupils attending the public schools of Frederick county during the past year numbered 10,037. Of this number 1,237 were colored. The county now owns 157 school-houses and rents 10 additional ones. The disbursements for the fiscal year ended July 31 for school purposes amounted to $74,727.30.

It is not likely that the killing of Seaman Reiley, of the Newark, in Genoa, Italy, will be made an international issue by the administration.

The trustees of the Corcoran Art Gallery are considering the matter of commencing work on the new gallery at an early date.

Vice-President Morton has volunteered his services to assist in carrying out the programme arranged for Grand Army week.

Secretary of State LeCompte, as secretary of the board of public works, is sending out commissions to deputy commanders of the oyster navy who were recently appointed to command the additional vessels put on the force. Oyster Inspector James Cusick has entered upon his duties.

The commissions of General Jos.

B. Seth, commanding the oyster navy, Captain James A. Turner, of the steamer McLane, and Captain J. H. Horney, of the schooner Helen Baughman, expire early in October. The appointments, however, are not likely to be considered by the board of public works until in the oyster season.

The cabin passengers of the steamship Normannia were released from quarantine at Fire Island and left for their homes. The Regia's passengers, now on the United States training-ship New Hampshire, will be transferred to Fire Island. One death in New York city supposed to be from cholera was reported to the New York health board yesterday. The steamship Bohemia, from Hamburg, which arrived at New York yesterday, had eleven deaths on the passage and brought several sick persons in the steerage. At Washington it is said the steamship companies will stop bringing immigrants without waiting for the President to issue a proclamation. Several States are taking measures to have railroad trains inspected.

DIED.

In Washington City, September 12, 1892, STEPHEN, son of J. Ford and Adria Wether, aged 7 years and 6 months. "Of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

OFFICE STATE BOARD EDUCATION.
BALTIMORE, Md. September 7th, 1892. The County School Commissioners of St. George's County, Maryland. Gentlemen—I am instructed to send you, for your information, the following copy of the opinion of Hon. John P. Poe, Attorney General of Maryland, given in response to the request, in writing, of the State Board of Education, viz: "I see no reason why District School Trustees should be excused from taking the Oath of Office prescribed by the Constitution. They are undoubtedly officers appointed under a law 'made pursuant' to the Constitution and the general regulation requiring 'every officer, before elected or appointed to office in this State' to take the Oath of Office plainly includes them. Section 19 of Article 77 of the Code, as amended and re-enacted by the Act of 1889, Chap. 538, does not provide by whom the Oath shall be administered to them, nor repeat, either in express terms, or by implication, Sections 6 and 7 of Article 70 of the Code, title 'official oaths,' and, accordingly, I am of opinion that the District School Trustees should take and subscribe the Oath before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the several counties, as provided by Section 6 of that Article. Respectfully, JOHN PRESTON POE, Attorney General. Please communicate the above to the District School Trustees in your county. E. B. FRETTYMAN, Secretary State Board of Education.

ORDERED—That the Trustees appointed for the Scholastic year 1892-93 be and they are hereby notified to qualify in pursuance to the above instructions. By order of the Board,
HENRY WINGATE, Secretary. Sept 15 '92—3*

Selling off at Cost!

Owing to my engaging in the commission business in Baltimore city and the exclusive attention which that business demands of me, I have determined to sell my entire stock of goods in the store at St. Inigo's at cost. The location possesses great advantages on account of its being the centre of a large and fertile surrounding country. The Post Office for that section has been established there for several years. Parties wishing further information in regard to same, can address me at No. 8 W. Camden St., Baltimore, Md. In the meantime, the stock of goods will be retained at cost. P. G. EDELEN.
