Dean of Vermont Bar.

Harvey K. Fowler, of Manchester, the dean of the Vermont bar, was eighty-eight years old January 1. He is still engaged in the duties of his profession at his office every day. Mr. Fowler was born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., the youngest of thirteen children. In 1836 he went to Manhchester, and that has since been his home. Three years later he graduated from Burr and Burton Seminary, began the study of law, and in June, 1842, was admitted to practice, which he has continued ever since. He has not missed the opening of a county court since that time.

New Year's day, 1844, Mr. Fowler married Miss Mary Jane Noble, of Dorset. She died about three years ago. Four children were born to them, and all are living. For twenty-eight years Mr. Fowler was trial justice of the peace, and for twenty-five years was a judge of probate.

He is a past master of Adoniram Lodge, F. & A. M. It is said of him that no legal decision ever rendered by him was ever questioned.

Will Build Colonial House.

During the coming summer a handsome residence will be erected on the Warner farm on Spear street by Charles H. Foote of Chicago, the plans for the structure having already been drawn by Architect F. L. Austin and approved by Mr. Foote. Bids for the construction of the building will be made soon.

It will be of colonial style, with a wide veranda across the front, one end forming a porte-cochere. Another veranda eight feet wide will extend along the south side.

The first floor of the residence will consist of a spacious entrance hall, finished in white enamel and mahogany, a large dining room and a commodious living room, each of which will be finished in mahogany. In rear of the living room will be a den finished in quartered oak, while in rear of the dining room will be a working and serving room, pantry and refrigerator.

In the southwest corner on the second floor will be the family chamber, finished in white enamel, having a private bath connected. There will also be two guest chambers with baths connected. The third floor will be devoted to guest chambers.

In rear of the residence and connected with it will be an ell for the use of the farmer. The entire building will be lighted with electric lights and in addition Mr. Foote will have a private acetyline gas plant. Mr. Foote will build horse barns, cattle barns, piggeries and henneries.

A PRIZE ESSAY.

Danger of Narcotics.

Written by Jennie Mills, a sixth grade pupil of the United States Indian School at Phoenix, Arizona.

A narcotic is any substance that deadens the brain and nerves. Tobacco is a powerful narcotic, and contains a substance called nicotine. An ordinary cigar contains nicotine enough to kill two men if taken pure, for nicotine is deadly poison. Boys who try it say that at first it gives them a headache, dizziness, and sickness at the stomach. That is the way their poor bodies try to tell them that they are taking a poison. If they keep on, the nicotine deadens their nerves so their bodies are more and more injured. Many boys and young men learn to smoke beginning with cigarettes These seem harmless because they are so small, but they are one of the most dangerous preparations of tobacco, and boys especially should not use tobacco in any form while they are growing, because its use is likely to stunt their growth.

Opium is also a deadly narcotic poison, although it is sometimes used by doctors to erlieve pain. It has a very bad effect upon the man who uses it, although it does not make him so violent as alcohol usually does. Through the use of this narcotic the power of self-control is lost.

Alcohol, a colorless, poisonous liquid, is also a narcotic. Its nature is to injure the health, reduce the strength of the body, destroy life, and dull the mind. Much of the alcohol goes to the brain, and it cannot do its proper work if one is in the habit of using alcohol. Whiskey, as well as many other drinks of the same nature which contain alcohol, are narcotic.

People who smoke, chew, or use opium nd alcoholic drinks to excess, can seldom be trusted. I am very sorry to say that I know some white people who do these things. No one who has these habits can live right and he leads other people to do many wrong things. It is awful to think of all the sin caused by intemperance.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

LIBEL FOR DIVORCE.

FRANK O. SABIN vs. ETHEL D. SABIN. } STATE OF VERMONT, WASHINGTON COUNTY, SS.

In County Court, March Term, 1906.

Whereas, Frank O. Sabin of Barre, in the County of Washington, has this day filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court his libel for divorce against Ethel D. Sabin of Woolcott, in the County of Lamoille and State of Vermont, setting forth in substance that he was lawfully married to the said Ethel D. Sabin at Woodbury, in the County of Washington and State of Vermont, on the 30th day of May, A. D 1889; that he on his part had faithfully kept the marriage covenant, and performed all the duties appertaining thereto; but that the said libellee on her part had not kept the marriage covenant but had violated the same; for that the said libellee during said coverture for three consecutive years had wilfully deserted the libellant; and praying that, for the causes aforesaid, the court would grant him a divorce from the said Ethel D. Sabin; also praying for the custody of his minor children. And, whereas, it is made to appear that the said Ethel D. Sabin resides and is without this state where service of the process of this Court cannot be made upon her. Therefore it is ordered that the said Ethel D. Sabin be given notice of the pendency of said libel, given opportunity to make defence therein and summoned to appear and make answer thereto before the Honorable County Court next to be held at Montpelier, within and for the County of Washington and State of Vermont, on the 27th Wednesday after the first Tuesday in March A.
