PLANS FOR SCHOOL

New Plad Ginghams 12 1-2c

Had you realized that the "first day of school" was so near by? We have thought of it and planned for those new dresses for the girls.

TWELVE PIECES of Armor weave, double width goods, in the new Fall shades of blue, green, red and brown, also black and white. This is as pretty a cloth as we used to sell for 50c---its never been sold for less than 39c a yard. We bought them in large quantities and got a little better prise, so we make them a special at 29c yard

NOTE—No more of the above can be had after this lot is sold.

The full programme of the affair has not yet been arranged. It is expected, however, that a large delegation from all the lodges in the state will be in attendance.

This is the last week in which to pay your taxes and get the benefit of the lower rates. Citizens would do well to go as early as possible during the day as there is always a big rush after 6.30 in the evening. The tax money is being paid in just about as fast as usual, indicating that there will be a great rush the latter part of the week.

The Times has been informed by J. E. Bentley, general passenger agent of the Central Vermont railroad, that the apparent discrimination in passenger rates in favor of Barre over Montpelier, from Barre to a certain point in Canada was due to a mistake on the part of the Montpelier agent in quoting prices. The overcharge to a Barre man has been straightened out, and the matter settled.

The Republican city committee has called the caucus to nominate a city representative to be held at the City Hall Friday evening of this week. Thus far only one man has been mentioned in connection with the nomination, S. Holliister Jackson, although there may be others before the caucus. The Montpelier Republicans hald their caucus this evening, and it is expected that John N. Harvey will be nominated.
