LOST AMONG STRANGERS.

Pitiful Plight of an Arabian Woman in Bennington.

Persons who go through life without ever traveling out of the land in which their language is spoken are incapable of comprehending the predicament of a middle-aged Arabian woman who arrived in Bennington on the midnight train Monday morning from New York. She had with her a letter addressed to some person living at "16 King street, Bennington, Vt.," and was therefore sent by the conductors of the trains over which she traveled to that village. There is no King street in Bennington, but there is a King street in Burlington, and in all probability it was to that city that the woman should have gone, and where she would have arrived early in the morning.

As it was, however, she reached Bennington at about 1 o'clock at night, not knowing a single person in the place, and unable to make anyone understand a word she said. Not knowing where to go, she camped on the asphalt walk in front of the station and there she was found asleep when the station was opened about 7 o'clock in the morning. Her distress was pitiful, and all the time that the passengers were about the station waiting for the morning trains she went from one to the other endeavoring to make some one understand her situation. She was well supplied with money, having a bag of English sovereigns about her neck, a bag of English gold of smaller denomination in her hand, and another bag of English coin tied to her clothing. It was apparent that she had become discouraged in her effort to reach her destination, for she finally secured a ticket back to New York, after Ticket Agent Roberts had exchanged one of her English sovereigns at the bank.

ITINERARY OF THE FLEET.

The Dates on the Pacific Cruise Are Made Public.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7.—The itinerary of Admiral Evans' battleship fleet on its voyage to San Francisco, was made public at the navy department yesterday. As heretofore announced, the fleet will assemble at Hampton Roads on December 9, and sail December 16. It is scheduled to arrive at Trinidad December 24, at Rio de Janeiro January 11, at Punta Arenas January 31, at Callao February 18, and at Magdalena bay March 14. At each place it will remain from five to eleven days, except at Magdalena bay, from which place the date of departure depends upon the completion of target practice there. For the same reason, the date of arrival at San Francisco was not determined. The torpedo flotilla will leave Hampton Roads December 2.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

Miss Bertha Rice, who was employed as a clerk at the Old Bee Hive, Burlington, met with a peculiar accident in which one thumb was dislocated. In fitting gloves to a customer the thumb caught and snapped out of the joint. Assistance was at once given by other clerks and the joint put back without the aid of a physician.

The report of the Vermont Soldiers' home, Bennington, for the ten days ending October 31 is as follows: On the morning of the 31st sixty-six inmates were present and 24 absent, making a total of 90 accounted for absent and present. The average daily presence for the ten days was 64; average absent and present, 89; three members were admitted during this period and one discharged.

A petition largely signed by business men and other of Bethel has been forwarded to the state board of railroad commissioners praying that they issue an order that the Central Vermont railway passenger station there be kept open for some time previous to the arrival of the northbound and southbound night trains. The town probably suffers no greater hardship than the one aimed at by this petition.

Former Gov. John G. McCullough of Bennington is one of the executors of the will of the late Trenor L. Park of New York. The estate is estimated at more than $1,000,000. To the wife and daughter are left $100,000 each and Mrs. Park is to have the income from a trust estate of $600,000. The daughter will enjoy the income from a similar fund of $400,000. There are several minor bequests to relatives and $25,000 to erect a memorial at Bennington Mr. Park's father. The only educational bequest is one of $25,000 to Harvard university. The Park block, Bennington, and a half interest in mill property at North Bennington is left to a nephew, Percy Hall Jennings.

Gen. Levi G. Kingsley of Rutland recently found an interesting paper among some old documents belonging to his father, the late Harvey Kingsley. It is a copy of the original charter granted to the township of Rutland by King George III in 1761. It requires about two columns of ordinary newspaper space to print the charter in full, and there are 62 grantees. The charter, among other things, entitles the town to open a market place and to hold two fairs annually. Any grantee who failed to cultivate at least five acres a year for five consecutive years was compelled to forfeit all the land he had taken. It was unlawful to cut pine trees without license. Taxes were paid with corn on the ear.

MUDDLED THE FIREMEN.

Rutland's Fire Alarm System Out of Order, It Proved.

Rutland, Nov. 7.—The members of both fire departments responded to an alarm from box 37, Madison street and Strongs avenue, at 1:15 o'clock yesterday noon to extinguish a fire in the cellar of the store of H. W. Cheney. How the fire started is not known, although it is thought that a lighted match was thrown into some rubbish. The damage was slight.

The fire alarm system was not in good working order when the alarm sounded. At station 1 there was no box registered on the indicator while at station 2 box 47 recorded. Cornelius Sammon of station 2, who drove to the fire, took his team through Merchants Row north of Center street in search of the fire because of the wrong number on the indicator. After searching several minutes he learned of the re at Cheney's and immediately drove there.

The members from station 1, after some minutes' delay finally got a telephone message and went directly to the fire. The fire whistle did not blow. Chief Charles E. McDonald stated that he notified H. R. Grower, superintendent of the fire alarm system, several days ago, that the system was out of order.

REV. JOHN GALLIGAN DEAD.

End Comes Suddenly to Roman Catholic Priest at Windsor.

Windsor, Nov. 7.—The Rev. John Galligan, pastor of St. Francis' church, died quite suddenly at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning from hemorrhages of the stomach. Father Galligan had been here only since last February, having been located at Burlington for several years before that having had pastorates at Waterbury, Northfield, Poultney, and Underhill in this state previous to that time. He was 62 years old, a native of County Craven, Ireland, and had been in this country since he was a young man. He leaves no relatives in the United States.

He had been ill only a few days and no one expected the end at this time. He requested the housekeeper not to send for a physician and no one was with him at the last except this faithful domestic.

A Ballad of Hennessy.

[Inadvertently suggested by a recent visitor to this city who created some amusement by persistently pronouncing "Tennessee" with an antipenult accent and a short ultima.]

When I lived down in Tennessee I met up with Tim Hennessy, Who'd come from far off Genesee to
run a flour mill;
Says I to him: "Now, Timothy, dispinse
with any hymn o' thee;
We ain't been raised up Plymothy—
let's run a licker mill!"

Says him: "The thought is luminous as hard coal or bituminous!
You're on!—Now ain't there room in us for one to bind the deal?"
And so we started lickerin,' at first with jokes and snickerin',
But soon there came a bickerin', and,
hearties, it was real!

For, drinkin' deep and clammily, he slurred my lovin' family,
And then I cussed him dammily, and so we started in.
Well—Tim was but a bugilist (deserted on the fugilist),
While I was bred a pugilist to mix it for the tin.

And though he fit me serious a dancin'
round to weary us,
I done him deleterious and throwed
him down the hill:
And that's what came of Hennessy, who traveled down to Tennessey,
A blusterin' and memacy, to start a flour mill.

SCIENCE [illegible] BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide.

NEARLY DROWNED.

Driver and Double Team Fell Off Into Lake at Morrisville.

Morrisville, Nov. 7.—On Tuesday afternoon Charles Earle and team were the principals in a spectacular and peculiar accident, which occurred near the Rushford place, where dirt is being drawn to the fill, near the smaller of the two new bridges and also to widen the old road in that vicinity. Mr. Earle was backing up to load, when the horses, which were headed toward the bank, from which the dirt is taken, became frightened by a section of earth and bushes caving off in front of them, and backed over the embankment, driver, wagon and horses, dropping straight down fully twelve feet into the lake, the water at this point being about 10 feet deep.

Mr. Earle succeeded in crawling out by means of the plank from the wagon, and the horses were saved from drowning only by the strenuous work of Selectman Gates and a force of men, who cut the horncasses, after which the horses swam about 10 rods, where they were pulled out. The work of rescuing the team was difficult on account of the steepness of the bank, it being necessary to let one man down, where he was held by the others, while he cut the straps necessary to release the animals. The wagon and harnesses were left in the water until yesterday morning when they were fished out. Mr. Earle and horses were on the job again yesterday and to all appearances are none the worse for the experience.

VERMONT VS. N. H. STATE.

The Next Football Game to Be Played in Burlington Comes Off Saturday.

Burlington, Nov. 7.—Vermont vs. New Hampshire State college is the game scheduled for Centennial field Saturday afternoon and a good contest is looked forward to. Vermont's magnificent record on the gridiron this year has aroused great enthusiasm among her supporters. New Hampshire is a heavy and tricky team and will make the Green Mountain eleven hustle for its ground gaining. Vermont is indulging in ard practice daily and also lines up against scrubs occasionally.

SUPREME COURT DOCKET.

Sixteen Cases on Triad Calendar For Special Term in Rutland.

Rutland, Nov. 7.—There are 16 cases on the trial calendar for the special term of the Vermont supreme court which convenes at the county court house in this city next Tuesday. The high court has not met in Rutland for 14 years. Prior to 1893 it sat in this city at least once a year for a century or more.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen' Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at Red Cross pharmacy.
