Question: Low price minus good quality equals what? Answer: Worthlessness.

Question: High price plus good quality equals what? Answer: Extravagance.

Question: Reasonable price plus good quality equals what? Answer: Morse-Made clothing.

The difference between 1852 and 1907 indicates the number of years that Morse-Made clothing has been giving satisfaction to its wearers, in other words, the number of years it has been made.

Ask your dealer for it, and look for our label inside the inside coat-pocket. If he doesn't sell it, write us and we'll tell you who does.

We make boys' clothes, too, from size 7 years up.

Otter Creek Nice Fur Season.

Shipments of fur from the Otter creek region this year it is estimated will be worth about $12,000 as compared with $4,000 three years ago. Mink skins are now selling at from 25 cents to $15 and muskrat pelts at 15 to 22 cents. Two years ago mink skins brought 25 cents to $3 and muskrat, eight to 15 cents. Red fox and coon skins remain at $2 for a good coon and $3.50 for a good fox. The skunk market is weak, 50 cents for a skin this year as compared with $1.25 a year ago. The banks of Otter creek, Cold river, Castleton river and Chittenden pond are in many cases lined with dens of these fur bearing animals and the trappers are experiencing a profitable season.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

An addition to the hospital at the Vermont Soldiers' home, Bennington, is nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy in a month.

Dr. Henry D. Holton of Brattleboro, will attend the meeting of the National Municipal league and American Civics association in Providence this week.

The Burlington Commercial club will make an effort to have the state board of railroad commissioners arrange for a slight modification of schedules so as to improve railroad connections between trains of the Rutland and Central Vermont roads at that point.

The price of hay in Bennington this year is high in comparison with that of other years. The grade of hay that sold last year for $12 a ton now readily commands $15. The crop of rowen was very light, as haying operations were not begun until late in the season and the second crop did not have time to grow to much size.

Dr. Richard Dana Bloss, one of the oldest physicians and surgeons in Troy, N. Y., who died Sunday morning, was born at Royalton March 25, 1835, a son of Dr. Richard Bloss, a well known physician both in Vermont and in Troy where he took up his residence in 1840. In 1863 he was married at Manchester, and his wife and one son survive.

Believing that an attempt was being made to throw the entire blame for a burglary upon his shoulders, Ralph Smith, a prisoner at the Addison county jail, Middlebury, has in a confession, implicated George Phillips in the occurrence which resulted in the former's arrest. Phillips, against whom a charge of burglary also has been brought, has given bail in the sum of $600. The men's homes are in the north part of Lincoln.

Miss Margaret E. Chestnue, court stenographer of Burlington has been granted a year's leave by the judges of the superior courts. Miss Chestnue will sail January 16, on the Carmania of the Cunard line and will pass the year abroad, going first to Naples. After passing two months in Italy and Sicily, she will go to Paris, where she will remain for the greater part of her time. Miss Chestnue will resume her official duties at the March term of Chittenden court in 1909.

It is announced that the big mill of Holden, Leonard & Co., Bennington, will resume operations in full in about a month. The mill has been running on light weight Panama women's dress goods, which have not been as acceptable to the trade as fabrics of heavier weight. The new samples of fine worsteds have supplied the demand and a number of sizeable orders have been booked. The spinning department, which had been especially slack, has shown much more activity during the past few days.

Rutland people who have visited Mount Killington recently report that hoodlums have been getting in their work of destruction at the hotel near the summit. The conditions have for some time been such that persons needing shelter could easily get into the building by opening a window and many people who visited the peak took advantage of this opportunity. The hoodlums, however, were not content with using the property decently. They broke up the front steps and used them for firewood, smashed in two or three windows, sash and all, and destroyed some of the chairs and tables within the building.

Frank Worden of Halifax, and Fred B. Pier of Rawsonville, the assistant judges of the Windham county court, have under consideration four recommendations of the grand jury for improvements at the county jail at Newfane. The jail was greatly improved a year ago by the installation of steel cells, but a few things remain to be done. The recommendations of the grand jury were that a bath be put in for the use of the prisoners and furnished with hot and cold water; that the lower and upper rooms be ventilated; that new mattresses be furnished for the beds; and that the beds be supplied with army blankets instead of old quilts now in use.

Question of Telephone Rights.

Brattleboro, Nov. 21.—The Vermont supreme court now sitting here yesterday took up the case of state vs. Boston & Maine railroad company for violation of the telephone law of 1906. This law required that every railroad doing business in the state grant to every person or corporation operating a public telephone line in the state, and having at least 500 telephone connections, equal and reasonable terms and facilities for installing telephone instruments in the depots and offices of such railroad company.

The Vermont People's telephone company or Orleans county last March demanded the right to install one of its instruments in the B. & M. railroad station at Barton Landing. The railroad, having a 15-year exclusive contract with the New England telephone and telegraph company, refused permission. The company was adjudged guilty and appeal was taken to the supreme court. The case was argued yesterday before the court.

The company claims that the law is unconstitutional because is provides no compensation to the railroad company for the extra burden imposed imposed upon it because it impairs the obligation of its contract. The state claims the contract with the New England company is in restraint of trade and against public policy and therefore void and that the requirement of the statute relates strictly to the matter of public service only, equal and reasonable erms being demanded.

Several Killed in Riot.

Vladivostox, Nov. 21.—Several were killed and scores injured in a desperate fight between troops and a band of drunken rioters who attempted to massacre men and women employed in the municipal abbatoir today. A mob of 200 to 300 decended suddenly on the abbatoir and the leader ordered all the employes hanged. The men were fighting for their lives when the soldiers arrived and charged the crowd. The rioters either were cut down or forced to flee after a desperate struggle.

Nothing so nice for a luncheon or picnic, as Argo Red Salmon sandwiches or salad.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

GOOD SEASON ON LAKE.

Many More Boat Loads of Lumber Received Than Last Year.

Burlington, Nov. 22.—Just 141 boatloads of lumber have arrived in port this season from Canada for local dealers, which is a record breaker. Wednesday five barges of lumber came for the Shepard & Morse Lumber company and two for J. R. Booth. Some of the boats were among those sunk in the St. Lawrence river during the recent big storm there. The wind dashed the waves against and over the boats, according to the captains, so that the large anchors were washed into the river. Many of the boats were baled out and floated again and those now in port are little the worse for the rough weather. Ten more boats are expected to arrive this season, which will make a total of 151. Last season 112 boats touched port.

Chittenden County Bar Banquets.

At the annual meeting and banquet of the Chittenden County Bar association held in Burlington Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected: President, M. A. Bingham; vice-president, M. G. Leary; secretary, C. P. Cowles; treasurer, C. T. Barney; members of the governing board, Judge M. A. Bingham and A. L. Sherman (to serve with A. G. Whittemore, J. E. Cushman, M. G. Leary and E. B. Taft); secretary of the governing board, A. L. Sherman.

At the banquet thirty-three members of the association, the largest number in its history, were present. Judge M. A. Bingham presided at the after-dinner exercises, and the guest of honor was Judge George M. Powers, presiding judge at the September term of the Chittenden county court, now in session. Responses were made by Judge Powers, M. G. Leary, Robert Roberts, Charles E. Allen, H. B. Shaw, V. A. Bullard, C. H. Darling, E. B. Taft, J. H. Macomber, A. G. Whittemore, C. S. Palmer, S. R. Moulton, E. C. Mower, H. B. Chittenden, E. H. Powell, Max L. Powell and C. T. Barney.

It has been decided that the bar association will hold meetings during the winter, at which papers on various legal subjects will be presented by members.

Roy Winters Landed.

Boston, Nov. 21.—Roy Winters, who is said to be wanted by the authorities at Newell, Chester county, W. Va., for the alleged embezzlement of $800 from the North American Pottery company of that place, by which he was employed as a confidential clerk, was arrested yesterday after a spirited chase by local officers. When taken into custody, a large revolver was found in his pocket. Authorities in several cities have been searching for Winters for about three weeks.

BOTTOM OF SEA SINKS TO VASTER DEPTHS.

Parts of Gulf of Mexico Deepen, Others Rise, by Earthquake.

Mexico City, Nov. 22.—Navigators plying in the gulf trade bring reports of the effects of a great upheaval in the ocean off the coast of Yucatan, due to submarine volcanic action. They declared that in the recent upheaval which resulted in the killing of tons of fish on the gulf coast, the bed of the ocean was changed and that soundings show great depths where formerly were shallow places, and vice versa. They report also that a number of small islands were inundated.
