MORSE TRIAL IS DELAYED

Illness of Juror Causes Day's Postponement

CALVIN AUSTIN GRILLED

Miss Wilson, C. W. Morse's Secretary, Got $125,376 from His Bank on Her Own Note, Says Witness.

New York, Oct. 23.—An unexpected halt was called in the trial of Charles W. Morse and Alfred H. Curtis for alleged violation of the national banking law, when United States District Attorney Stimson asked for an adjournment until to-day because of the illness of juror No. 9, Gordon Wendell. Judge Hough after a consultation with counsel for both sides, granted the request.

Mr. Stimson said that Mr. Wendell, who is a business man with offices at 61 Worth street, had become ill with indigestion after dinner Wednesday night.

The name of Miss Kate A. Wilson, secretary to Mr. Morse, was introduced, and the prosecution produced witnesses who told of large loans made by the National Bank of North America to her. A government bank examiner, who has proved at this hearing that he is a wizard at figures, was the principal witness to tell of the big loan's made to the financier's faithful secretary. Summed up, his testimony was as follows::

"On her bare and unsupported note Morse would loan Miss Wilson a sum of money. Miss Wilson's note would be cashed by the National Bank of North America, and with the proceeds stock of the American Ice company would be purchased. Then the ice stock would be used to obtain another loan from the bank. With the money thus secured, bank stock would be purchased, and the bank stock aided in supporting the ice stock pools in which Morse and other financiers were interested. The failure to raise the price of ice above par was what caused the break in the endless chain."

For the first time since her husband has been on trial, Mrs. Clementine Dodge-Morse appeared in the court room. She appeared deeply interested in the proceedings.

Calvin Austin, president of the Eastern Steamship company of Boston, was a witness in the afternoon. He testified that Mr. Morse had induced him to buy 1,250 shares of ice stock, for which Mr. Austin gave in payment a note for $100,000. The witness produced a letter signed by Mr. Morse, guaranteeing Mr. Austin from all loss.

Mr. Austin says that he subsequently learned that his note had been discounted at the National Bank of North America. Just before this information came to him, the witness testified, Miss Kate Wilson came to his office with a letter from Mr. Morse, asking him to surrender the certificate for the 1,250 shares of the stock. Mr. Austin indorsed the certificate in blank and surrendered it.

Then, Mr. Austin said, Mr. Curtis, president of the National Bank of North America, told him his note had been discounted at the bank. Mr. Curtis informed him, the witness said, that Charles T. Barney, one of the directors, had suggested that he (Mr. Curtis) see Austin and ask him to either pay the note or furnish collateral.

"I told Mr. Curtis that Mr. Morse had put the loan in the bank and that he would have to take care of it," said Mr. Austin.

"Could you have made good the note?" was asked.

"I could not—that is, not without the ice stock," replied Mr. Austin.

Upon cross-examination of the witness by the defense, it was brought out that Mr. Austin had been in many deals with Mr. Morse and that he had derived large profits.

REYNOLDS NAMED RECEIVER.

He Will Take Charge of The Affairs of E. H. Gay and Company.

Boston, Oct. 23.—John P. Reynolds, jr., was appointed receiver for the banking firm of E. H. Gay & Co., of this city by Judge Dodge in the United States district court yesterday. Since the petition of three of the creditors of the firm asking that bankruptcy proceedings be instituted, they have made an examination of the firm's affairs and yesterday consented to the appointment of Mr. Reynolds.

The liabilities of the fidm are said to amount to about $7,000,000, mostly in connection with the Hudson River Power company and the Pittsburg and Binghamton railroad, in which the firm was heavily interested.

ARTHUR KING HELD FOR MURDER.

Indicted Less Than One Day After the Crime.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 23.—Less than 24 hours after the crime was committed, Arthur King was indicted by the Worcester grand jury yesterday for the murder of Aide George Azeen, a Syrian peddler, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Clement at South Clinton Wednesday. Mrs. Clement and Thomas Ryan, both of whom were present when Azeen was killed, were each held by Judge Francis A. Gaskill of the superior court in bonds of $500 to appear as witnesses when the case comes to trial.

Yesterday's indictment of King is believed to establish a record for quick action in the courts of Worcester county.

Clinton, Oct. 23.—Arthur King appeared in the district court yesterday. His counsel waived reading of the complaint and asked for a continuance of one week, which was granted.

The police have decided not to bring any charge against Mrs. Margaret M. Clement, but to have her held as a witness. Chief Murphy yesterday brought in Thomas Ryan, who was also held in $100 as a witness, to appear before the grand jury. Medical Examiner Tobey requested that an inquest be ordered. Judge Smith fixed October 30 as the date.

GROWTH OF PROHIBITION.

Mrs. Stevens on Work of the W. C. T. U.

Denver, Col., Oct. 23.—Meetings of the executive committee, official board and organizers of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union were held yesterday, completing preparations for the thirty-fifth annual convention which opens to-day in the Auditorium, with seven hundred delegates. The president, Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens of Portland, Me., attended all preliminary meetings yesterday. Miss Anna Gordon of Boston who has general charge of the W. C. T. U. work among the children of the country, said she thought the campaigning which had been most active in bringing about the recent wide sweep of prohibition throughout the country was the holding of mass meetings, with torchlight processions and brass bands, followed by hundreds of children singing and bearing banners. More than two hundred delegates and several hundred other members of the W. C. T. U. have already arrived to attend the sessions. "I predict that in ten years the prohibition movement will cover the entire nation," said Mrs. Stevens Wednesday. "It is not a spasmodic effort but a substantial and healthy gain which cannot be checked by any amount of opposition."

BETHEL.

Death and Funeral of William Davis, Victim of a Runaway Horse.

The death of William Davis occurred at his home in Bethel on Wednesday, the result of an accident which he received while managing a horse the Friday before. Mr. Davis was found lying in an unconscious condition, from which he never rallied. It is supposed he must have suffered concussion of the brain but no marks could be found.

Fillis Clark Davis was the oldest of three sons born to Clark S., and Hattie M. Town Davis June 9, 1867. His boyhood and nearly all his entire life was passed in town. He married Edith, daughter of Edwin Hatch of this town about twelve years ago and to them were born two children, a son and daughter who with his wife survive him. Deceased is also survived by his mother and two brothers, Fred Davis, now living on the home farm near Findley Bridge and Bert E., who is a postal clerk and resides in New Hampshire. Mr. Davis was well known and highly esteemed in town.

The funeral will be held from his late home this afternoon, the Rev. J. Wesley Miller officiating, and interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

WHY SUFFER?

Breathe Hyomei and Kill the Loathsome Catarrh Germs.

Just as long as you have catarrh you nose will itch, your breath will be foul, you will hawk and spit, and you will do other disgusting things because you can't help yourself. The germs of catarrh have got you in their power; they are continually and persistently digging into and irritating the mucous membrane of your nose and throat. They are now making your life miserable; in time they will sap your entire system of its energy, its strength, its vigor and vitality.

If you do not kill the loathsome germs of catarrh, their desperate assaults will in time undermine your reason, rob your brain of its brilliancy and activity, and leave you not only a physical but a mental wreck.

This picture is not overdrawn; the writer has seen thousands of just such cases. He has personally experienced the demoralizing results that come from the ravishing attacks of the horrible catarrh germs, the greatest pest of civilized nations.

But there is one remedy that will kill the germs and cure catarrh, and that is Hyomei, the Australian dry air treatment. There may be other remedies, but they are not guaranteed as The Red Cross Pharmacy will guarantee Hyomei to cure catarrh, or money back. Don't delay this pleasant antiseptic treatment. Every day you allow these germs to exist in your system brings you nearer to complete demoralization. The Red Cross Pharmacy will sell you a complete Hyomei outfit for only $1.00. Ask them about it. It is also guaranteed to cure bronchitis, asthma, coughs, colds and hay fever.

BASKET BALL SEASON OPENS

Vulcans Defeated Italian A. C. Last Night

BY SCORE OF 29 TO 20

Both Teams Showed Lack of Practice and the Scoring Was by Individual Effort Rather Than by Team Work.

The basket ball game at the Socialist hall last evening between the Italian athletic club team and the local team called the Vulcans resulted in a 29 to 20 score in favor of the latter team after three 15 minute periods of hard play. Both teams showed lack of practice and did not get their team play to working to any advantage and most of the scores were made by individual effort.

Both set a rapid pace from the start and kept it up throughout the entire three periods. While the teams have not got the game down to where they will have it later in the season, it was fairly interesting and the opponents fairly well matched.

The Vulcans made a total of eight in the first period while the Italians registered three. The Italians seemed to play in hard luck, and throw after throw missed the basket by a small margin. The Vulcans made their lead still larger in the second period and made a total of 12 while the Italians registered seven.

In the final period the Italians seemed to get the swing of the game and displayed more team work than at any other time during the game. They registered 10 points during this period to the Vuncan's nine. The features of the game were long throws for scores by Bruce, Nicora Calcagni.

The line-up:

Vulcans.	Italian A. C.
Knapp, r. f.	l. g., Comolli
Bruce, l. f.	r. g., Soldini
Bell, c., Smith, c.	c., Nicora
Clark, l. g.	r. f., Scampini
Carson, Bell, r. g.	l. f., Calcagni

Summary: goals from floor, Bruce 4, Knapp 2, Clark 3, Carson 2, Bell, Nicora 4, Calcagni 3, Scampini; baskets from free throws, Bruce 5, Scampini 2, Nicora 2; referee, Harrison; umpire, Wihl; time, three 15 minute periods; attendance, 100.

KAISER'S FOURTH SON MARRIES.

His Wife Daughter of Duke of Schleswig-Holstein.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—Duchess Alexandra Ictoria of Schleswig-Holstein, daughter of Prince Frederick, Duke of Schleswig-Holstein, was married in the chapel of the imperial palace yesterday to Prince August William of Prussia, fourth son of Emperor William. The ceremony was witnessed by the members of the imperial family and some fifty princes and princesses of the minor German royal houses. Chancellor von Bulow, as well as the other higher state functionaries, the members of the diplomatic corps, including Ambassador Hill and the members of the embassy staff with their wives together about eight hundred guests also were present. The civil ceremony was held in the private apartment of the palace, after which the empress placed the Hohenzollern crown on the head of the young princess. The royal party then marched to the chapel. The bride was clad in a white silk dress trimmed with lace, and her train, which was embroidered with silver and thirteen feet long, was born by four pages. The ceremony of the Lutheran state church was used by Dr. Dryander, the court preacher. The emperor and the empress kissed the bridal couple. Prince August William is twenty-one years old and a lieutenant of the First Regiment of Foot Guards. His bride is three months his junior.

TAFT EMPHATIC IN HIS ANSWER

To Charges of Candidate Bryan

ON BUSINESS DEPRESSION

"So Long as I Have Lungs I Purpose to Tell Workmen if Bryan Is Elected Times Will Not Be So Good," He Says in Indiana.

Judge Taft and W. J. Bryan continued yesterday their exchange of campaign arguments. Mr. Taft, after his rest of Wednesday, entered Indiana for three days of campaigning, while Mr. Bryan is making a tour of West Virginia.

Mr. Taft answered Mr. Bryan's charge that it is bribery on the part of Republican orators to tell workingmen that if Bryan is elected times will not be so good.

"So long as I have lungs and throat," Mr. Taft declared, "I purpose to make that argument. It is a legitimate argument, because it is a fact that the laboring men have a right to have the truth told them."

Mr. Bryan likened the position of the Republican party regarding the panic of last fall to that of the boy who was being led by his father from the house to the woodshed. He wants to talk about something else.

"If Mr. Taft wants to protect you from business depression, why did he not protect you from that of last fall. The Republicans have no plan for the restoration of prosperity," said Mr. Bryan.

Chairman Mack announced in New York that Mr. Bryan would answer President Roosevelt's letter to Senator Knox.

Both candidates will spend Sunday in New York City, resting and planning for the last week of campaigning in that state. Each party is planning for monster meetings at Madison Square Garden.

Governor Hughes is finding large and enthusiastic audience at all stopping places. At Geneva the governor said Mr. Chanler's reply on the anti-gambling bills proves that the administration's position is right, and even the Democrats dare not attack it.

John Brooks Leavitt, in a letter to Governor Hughes, said he would vote for him while supporting Bryan for the presidency. Mr. Leavitt declared the issue in this state was above politics.

Wall street is preparing for business with London on election night, for the market opens in London at about two o'clock New York time, and offers a chance for profitable speculation.

Wednesday's contributions to the Democratic campaign fund, made public yesterday, aggregating $10,934, were headed by one of $4,000 from Senator R. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota, Senator W. A. Clark of Montana and Tom L. Johnson of Ohio are credited with $1,000 each. Five hundred dollar contributions came from Ben. T. Cable, Illinois; W. W. Marsh, Iowa; and W. J. Bryan (Commoner profits). Other contributions include Progessive League of New England, Vermont, $200.

FAMILY RESCUED FROM FIRE BY COLLEGE BOYS

200 Students of New Hampshire State College Carry Out Woman and Children and Conquer Flames.

Durham, N. H., Oct. 23.—Fire broke out early yesterday in a tenement house occupied by Frank Doe, his wife and several children, and they were rescued after strenuous work by students of the New Hampshire state college.

When the alarm was sounded 300 students ran to the scene. Resources for fighting the flames were limited and the 300 students, led by older firemen, had formed a bucket brigade more than a quarter of a mile long. So fast did the buckets come than an almost continuous stream was thrown upon the flames.

Meanwhile others had forced their way into the building, and as the members of the Doe family were brought out in safety the whole student body burst into cheers. When, after an hour of hard work, the fire had been conquered, they renewed their cheering, giving the college yell and hurrahing for the town, the class leaders, and finally for themselves. Crowds of citizens stood by and joined in the demonstration.

The loss on the property was limited to about $800.

SMALL HAULS BY BURGLARS.

Rutland Railroad Stations at Vergennes and Ferrisburg Burglarized.

Vergennes, Oct. 23.—The Rutland railroad station was broken into Wednesday night some time between 10 o'clock in the eening and 3 o'clock eysterday morning, entrance being made through a window. The contents of the money drawer, 70 cents, two mileages and a revolver were taken. An extension bag which was checked, two packages of tickets and baggage checks were also taken but were found near the freight house this morning. There is no clue to the burglars and no suspicious characters wede seen about the station during the day.

The Rutland railroad station at Ferrisburg waes also broken into the same night. The thieves made their way into the station by breaking a window, sash and all. Their haul consisted of 28 pennies taken from the cash ddawer, a watch chain belonging to the station agent, and one box of express, contents unknown. The thieves took the precaution to pull down all the curtains in the station. No tickets or mileages were taken although these and other papers in the office had been tumbled over and everything was in confusion when the agent went to work this morning.

A Prognosis.

It was at a children's party in West Kensington. The youngsters had just done more than justice to the luxurious spread provided by their hostess, and games were now the order of the evening.

"Now, children," said she, "we will play the zoo, and each of you must represent a different animal."

Then, going to a little girl she asked:

"Now, Carrie, what are you going to be?

"I'll be an elephant."

"And you, Reggie, what are you going to be ?"

"I'm going to be a lion."

"And what are you going to be, Hilda?"

"I'm going to be a tiger."

Then, crossing to the other side of the doom, the hostess, noticing a youngster sitting all alone, asked.

"And what are you going to be, Tommy?"

"P-please," was the halting reply, "p-please I—I'm going—to be sick."—Tit-Bits.

Youth and Age.

Boston children are sometimes credited with vast stores of knowledge, but one twelve-year-old girl of that city has apparently neglected her opportunities. A travelling circus was putting up its tents in the environs of Boston, when a young girl approached the leopard's cage, put her hand between the bars to stroke the animal's head, and as a result was badly scratched and bitten.

One of her companions hurried home to tell of the accident and concluded her story with:

"Oh, mother, do you suppose Annie will have leprosy now?"

Another story is told of an elderly woman, also of Boston, who told her neighbor that she had suffered from gastritis for nearly a year, and that the only way that she could account for for it was that the sitting room coal stove leaked gas in a dreadful way.—Youth's Companion.

SWAM HOUSE TO HOUSE

Fought Their Way Through the Water of Submerged Village in the Philippines and Found Natives Clinging to Poles of Their Huts.

Manila, Oct. 23.—Additional reports of damage wrought in the Cagayan valley by the typhoon of October 12 indicate that loss of life will reach 500. At Aparri, where a thrilling rescue of 100 natives was effected through the heroism of Lieut. Robert Clark, Lieut. Tredway and Postmaster Foss, the survivors say that 300 residents of the submerged fishing village, which is located some distance below Aparri, were swept away and drowned.

The three Americans, aided by one Filipino volunteer, were informed of the great danger that threatened the village, and managed to reach it by boat. Approaching the shore in a series of short rushes between breakers that threatened at any moment to swamp their frail craft, the rescuers found scores of natives clinging to the poles of their wrecked habitations.

Lieut. Clark and Lieut. Tredway, carrying lines from the boat, fought their way through the breakers, and, swimming from house to house, saved the liveso f about 100 men, women and children. So thorugh was their work that all but siv of those living when the boat reached the village were saved. The half dozen unfortunate in question were swept away by the force of the water, while theA mericans were striving to reach them. More than 50 bodies were recovered in this locality.

It is reported that many were drowned at Haban and that the town was almost entirely destroyed.

It is feared that the storm and the resulting flood has seriously damaged the tobacco crop of the islands. The principal supply and the best quality of Philippine tobacco is grown in the Cagayan district, where two plantations report serious damage.

Up to the present time no communication has been established with the other sections where the condition of the crop is of more importance.

WANTS CONFERENCE ON NICHT RIDERS

Governor Patterson Would Meet Governors of Nearby States to Plan Warfare.

Nashville, Oct. 23.—As a sequel to the lynching of Capt. Quentin Rankin by "night riders" near Walnut Log, on Reel Foot lake, Governor Patterson has proposed a conference at the earliest possible moment with Gov. Willson of Kentucky, Governor Pindall of Arkansas and the governors of Missouri, Alabama and Mississippi, at Memphis, to discuss what he terms "assassins, cowards and degenerates of the lowest type."

Governor Patterson believes the night marauders are the most ignorant set of criminals any state has to deal with, and that bayonets and brass buttons will drive them from the cotton fields of Mississippi and Arkansas and the tobacco fields of Kentucky. He has given orders to his soldiers to shoot if necessary to protect lives and property in the Reel Foot section. He will suggest a standing guard in communities affected.

A Builder of His Own Birthplace.

When the Lincoln log cabin was taken from New York to its final resting place in Kentucky, it aroused a great deal of comment and curiosity as it passed through the different cities. Many curious anecdotes were told of the trip, but probably the best one is this one, which is told with keen relish by Capt. N. C. Bullitt of Company A, 1st Kentucky Infantry, who was in charge of the detail of five privates that guarded the famous relic on its way South:

"The car on which the cabin rested was standing on a railroad siding in Baltimore, when a Marylander, who had exhibited great apparent interest in the cabin, approached me in a very timid manner and asked:

"'Is that really the Lincoln cabin?'

"'Yes; it's the real thing,' I responded.

"'And Abe Lincoln was born in there?'

"'Yes; right within those very walls.'

"'Well, well,' said the questioner, as he ruminatively stroked a meagre tuft of reddish beard, 'and I suppose he cut those very logs with his own hands.'"—Philadelphia Ledger.

SHAKE WELL IN A BOTTLE

Splendid Prescription to Be Mixed at Home

BACKACHE IS WARNING

How to Find if Kidneys Are Affected and What to Do—What Causes Rheumatism and Blood Disorders and the Remedy.

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician, or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer can mix it at home: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

WOULD ADOPT WIDOW.

Chicago Man Wants to Make Daughter-in- Law His Child.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Legal authority to adopt a 45-year-old widow is sought in the circuit court. Edward Lees, a Chicago widower, who is at present in Guadalajara, Mexico, makes the request in a petition filed recently. Mrs. Marie Grace Lees, his daughter-in-law, who is now with him, is the person whom the petitioner would legally place on the same footing at law as though she were his own child.

The court action becomes necessary in order that an insurance policy which Lees has carried on his life may not become worthless. The by-laws of the company in which the policy is written provide that none but blood relatives, adopted children or parents may be beneficiaries.

GOVERNING THE PHILIPPINES.

The War Department Best, Says Lyman Abbott.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Miss Mary E. Coleman, for several years dean of women in the Insular Normal school of Manila, spoke for the department of education in the Philippines before the Lake Mohonk Conference yesterday. Major George H. Shelton of the bureau of insular affairs answered in the affirmative the question: "Is the war department better fitted than any other department to administer to Philippine affairs?" This view was sustained by Dr. Lyman Abbott and Dr. H. L. Morehouse of Brooklyn, however, declared that the war department should not concern itself with civil administration in the Philippines or other dependencies.
