DECIDE YOURSELF

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed by Barre Testimony.

Don't take our word for it.

Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Barre endorsement.

Read the statements of Barre citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it:—

M. I. Spaulding, painter, 16 Seminary street, Barre, Vt., says: "I had more or less kidney trouble for four or five years and I think it was the result of the conditions to which I am subject at my work. At night my back ached terribly and I could not sleep well. There were dark spots before my eyes at times and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions plainly proved that my kidneys were at fault. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at E. A. Brown's drug store, disposed of all these troubles, and I have only had to take this remedy once since then. At that time I found prompt relief from an attack of backache. I take pleasure at all times in vouching for the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I gladly confirm the public statement I gave in their favor some three years ago."

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Candidate for Governor of New Hampshire Interests People.

Robert P. Bass of Peterborough, N. H., whose name is now prominently before the people of New Hampshire in connection with the coming election of a governor of that state, is a son of the late Perkins Bass, a native of our town and a son of the late Joel Bass, jr. Perkins Bass was a graduate of Dartmouth college and for years a lawyer in Chicago. It was in that city that he married a daughter of the late Dr. John Foster, a well-known millionaire there, but a native of New Hampshire. Robert P. Bass is a graduate of Harvard and has been in the New Hampshire Senate. On his mother's side, Perkins Bass was a grandson of the long ago Dr. Burnham of Brookfield, whose two sons, Walter and Perkins Burnham, both physicians, were noted physicians in Lowell, Mass. We should expect that Robert P. Bass, if made governor of New Hampshire, would make a good one.

Orange Bannister has the sole work of an expressman, for hauling goods from our railroad station.

Prof. Fred W. Burnham of Goddard seminary is having a vacation, and he was at the old home here the first of the week.

Angus McLeod goes, this week Tuesday, to the Victoria hospital, Montreal, P. Q., for the removal of an inside cataract from an eye.

Tool Sharpener John Dow, son-in-law of the late Lucius S. Simons, has been quite poorly in health just of late, but is now convalescent.

The union chorus will meet next Friday evening, March 25, at the home of W. B. Jones, superintendent of the Grearson-Beckett Granite company's plant.

George Beckett is thought to be doing well, and the opinion is expressed to us that he may yet be as well as before his attack of last week; whereat we are glad.

Miss Mabel Wheatley went to Burlington Saturday to visit her sister in the Mary Fletcher hospital, Mrs. Wayne Wright. She found Mrs. Wright somewhat better.

Rev. Frances A. Kimball, now of Richmond, who has been laid aside from preaching in late weeks by the bad condition of her throat has been for a time staying with her brother, a minister in Marlboro, N. H.

One of our farmers said on Monday last that he had seldom or never seen the ground dryer than at present. The remark was made in speaking of the rather ominious outlook for any great sugar season this spring.

Stated communication of Summit lodge, 104, F. and A. M., Wednesday evening, March 23, at 7:30 sharp. Work, M. M. degree. All master Masons in good standing cordially invited. Refreshments. J. G. Pirie, W. M.

Howell Roberts, a brother of Mrs. Carl W. Seaver, has been gaining in flesh and strength since coming here from Granville, N. Y., a short time ago. He tells us that his father, John Roberts, who, at one time, lived here, has been quite feeble in late years, and it has been feared he would have consumption.

As their custom has been for some years, the Ladies' Missionary society of the Congregational church will have a thank-offering service at the church parlor at 3 p. m. Good Friday, March 25. These services have proved very interesting in the past, and all who will attend the coming one will be cordially welcomed.

We had had a curiosity to know how our granite workmen, as a whole, like the new arrangement of a half-holiday every Saturday afternoon from March 1 to December 1, and our interviews with some of them lead us to believe that they would be better pleased with the previous custom of a weekly half-holiday only through the summer months.

The Houston entertainment last week perhaps suffered somewhat in comparison with the Weeks entertainment of a few weeks ago, which was a much more expensive entertainment for the projectors of the course. But Mr. Houston was allowed to be a fine magician, and Mrs. Houston's "automobile ride" and monologue might be hard to surpass in their way. Other features of the evening elicited hearty appause.

Olney F. Seaver, on his return from Montpelier Monday afternoon, told us that his brother, J. Ryland Seaver, died at his home in Montpelier Sunday afternoon. He was in his 80th year. He was the oldest child of the late Alvin and Amanda Farnham Seaver. He was born in Washington, but when only about a year old his father returned to Williamstown to live. He grew up on the home farm, but later on in life took up the carpenter's trade. His first wife was Flavilla Burnham, a sister of the late Andrew Burnham, who recently died here. He has lived in Montpelier, and with a second wife, for years. We recall him, as he lived here, as a very genial man. He will be buried in our village cemetery, beside his first wife. He left one son, Harry, who lives in Boston.
