Auction Sale
—OF—
Fine Piece of Real Estate
Thursday, July 21st, 1910, at 5 P. M.

consisting of about 15 acres of elegant land just outside the city limits on Camp street; in fact, having a frontage on both Camp and Cassie streets. This valuable land is situated just north of the place owned by W. H. Clough, about seven to ten minutes from Washington street car line. This land lies practically level and is mostly very productive tillage, on part of which from 4,000 to 5,000 strawberry plants have been set out this season and will yield the owner next season at least $400.00. There is about one acre of potatoes now growing, which will be sold with the land and go with it. For gardening, there is no better land in New England; nice, deep, rich soil. Will produce from three to five tons of hay to the acre; there is also some wood. For replotting into house lots, this proposition should appeal to anyone, as houses are already being erected very near this tract, and it is only a question of time when it will be in demand for this purpose. Consequently, it is absolutely sure to make a profitable investment. This is a rare opportunity, and you may never have a chance again to purchase so desirable a property at your own price. You cannot afford to miss it. Sale positive, without reserve or limit. Your price will be ours.

Land will be shown before sale by D. A. Perry Real Estate agency.

About the State

Lake Champlain is two feet, five inches above low water mark, which is about two inches lower than a year ago on this date.

Preston Stowe died last week at his home in South Halifax as the result of a kick from a horse two weeks before. He was injured internally.

The last of the 1,000 shares for the Village Improvement society at Hyde Park has been raised and now the society has $5,000 at its disposal.

Charles Moroney, aged 11 years, jumped from a wagon in Rutland Saturday evening just in time to be run over by a passing automobile. His nose was broken and he was considerably bruised, but no lasting injuries were received.

Lieut.-Col. Francis H. Hardie, retired, of New York City, has been appointed inspector at large of the Panama Railroad Co. Lieutenant-Colonel Hardie is remembered in Vermont as an officer of the third cavalry, stationed for several years at Fort Ethan Allen.

H. B. Ellis, manager of the Prospect house, Lake Bomoseen, has expended about $5,000 during the past closed season for the renovation of his hotel, and is about to erect a new building to include bowling alleys and a pool and billiard room. An entirely new set of boats is housed in a 100-foot boat house and the bookings are heavy this year.

Frank L. Chickering, a horseman widely known throughout New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Vermont, died recently at his home in Westmoreland, N. H. He had owned and driven a large number of race horses, being a familiar figure at the fairs in this state for many years. He had been in poor health for a long time.

The Rev. John Jay Lewis has returned from his trip to Europe and is dangerously ill at his cottage at Queen City park. Mr. Lewis was taken ill on the return voyage and it was necessary to use the ambulance in his removal from the train to his cottage. He is well known in the state, through the various lectures he has given.

A small force of men began work Monday at the plant of the Columbian Marble company after a suspension since last winter. The new shops will be finished and it is expected that a full force will be put on at the plant within a short time and as soon as the buildings and apparatus are in readiness, work will be begun at the quarries and the mills will be started.

Ernest Walton, heretofore car service agent of the Grand Trunk railway system, has been promoted to the position of master of transportation of that road, with offices at Montreal, a circular to this effect having been issued at headquarters last Saturday. Mr. Walton was formerly a resident of St. Albans, having been secretary to the vice-president and general manager of the Central Vermont railway from 1899 to 1904.

James Casey of Jericho was struck by a train Saturday night and taken to the Fanny Allen hospital in Winooski. He had been visiting in Shelburne over Sunday and when he got off his train, stepped directly in front of the other train, which met it at Burlington. He was rendered unconscious by the blow, but that the train was not going at full speed is due the fact that he was not instantly killed. He received a cut over one eye and one side was badly bruised, but his injuries are not serious.

Bernard Woodard, aged 9 years, and his sister, Celia, aged three years, died within a week of each other a short time ago, with scarlet fever, at their home in Walden. Mr. Woodard spent about a year in California when, deciding that he preferred Vermont to that state, he returned. While on the way here, the boy contracted the disease and the little girl took it from him, they being the only children in the family.

Miss Nellie Cross, formerly of Burlington and now of New York City, ranked highest out of 247, who took an examination at Albany, N. Y., last Thursday for the position of secretary of the board of education of New York City. Miss Cross, who was the youngest person who took the examination, will take up her work January 15 next. She was educated in the Burlington public schools and attended Miss Fuller's boarding school in New York for one year.

The clothes repairing and cleaning shop of S. Bloch in St. Albans was destroyed by fire early Monday morning. The loss is about $1,000, with no insurance. The cause of the fire was the explosion of a gasolene tank in Mr. Bloch's room, where he was at the time of the accident, all the suits hanging on the walls being destroyed. William Gilwes ran a barber shop in the same building, but his only loss was the damage by water, and the building itself was little damaged.

Lorenzo D. Porter of Connecticut, who had been canvassing for some time in Jamaica, in order to pay his way in school, was drowned there July 6. A few days before the accident he bought a pair of water wings at one of the stores there, being unable to swim a stroke, and later his body was found standing nearly erect in the water, which was about a foot over his head. The body had probably been in the water 24 hours. The water wings were under one arm when he was found.

Miss Grace Herne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Herne, who reside in the western part of Morristown, attempted suicide Tuesday morning, July 12, by taking paris green. It is supposed that an overdose was taken which probably saved fatal results. As near as can be learned the young girl had been working very hard and had become despondent. The fact that she had taken poison was not known until after dinner when the girl was found on the bed in her room. The family moved to Morristown from Burlington last spring.

John Kelsey of Salisbury, aged 25 years, lies at the point of death as the result of injuries received late Sunday night when the wheels of a heavy wagon passed over his body. Kelsey, who is in the employ of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. as construction man, was driving one of the company's wagons between Middlebury and Salisbury when he was thrown off, the wagon passing over his abdomen. The horses ran and a search resulted in finding the unconscious body of Kelsey by the roadside. Tools and cable to the weight of about 1000 pounds were in the heavy wagon when it passed over his body.

The date set forth for the annual pilgrimage and service at the old town church in Rockingham is Sunday, July 31. Arrangements are being made for some speakers of national reputation. As heretofore the summer residents of both Walpole, N. H., and Westminster are taking a leading part in the arrangements and the citizens of Rockingham are entering into the plans with enthusiasm. The previous annual meetings have called together audiences varying from 300 to 500 from all that section and the occasion has become an event looked forward to with anticipation by those interested in the town and its historical associations.
