remotable. Whenever a child is found to be invariably lined with fleshy gnawed pieces of red color, flannel, etc. Peculiar isn't it?

The different stores are replete with goods and we presume that merchants will do a fair business during the holidays. New fashions are occasionally introduced and it seems to be a useless multiplication of monotonies, etc., to convince the devotees of their philosophy but the mandates of custom are impassable and impudently attributed to those who do not bow to them.

W. P. Powell is visiting relatives in Accomac county, Virginia, and Theodore L. West is attending to his store during his absence.

Report has it that several marriages are to take place soon, all young persons.

Miss Essie Jarboe, Miss Lena Adams and Ernest Adams, are visiting in Washington, D. C.

The steamer Arrowsmith makes regular bi-weekly trips to Miller's wharf. It is an additional accommodation to shippers.

Rev. Fr. Sullivan celebrated Mass at St. Michael's and there was preaching at Ridge Chapel on last Sunday.

There is no greater woe than to remember days of happiness amid affliction, and we take this occasion to state that there is no greater happiness than to cherish the good deeds of friends particularly when the same are bestowed upon persons who have naught but the soul inspiring 'thank you' to proffer in return.

Court adjourned for the term Tuesday. Gardening is now occupying the attention of our citizens.

The recent good weather has greatly improved the roads.

Governor Brown has designated by proclamation the 14th of April as Arbor Day.

The cost of the Juris, witnesses &c., for the term of Court just ended was about $2000.

There will be preaching at St. Paul's M. E. church, Leonardtown, Sunday, April 9 at 3:30 p. m.

There will be a meeting of the Teachers-Association on Friday, 21st day of April next at 10 o'clock a. m. A full attendance is requested.

Joseph F. Morgan Esq., of our town, is off on a trip to Texas to look after some investments in that State of his late brother-in-law Mr. Albert Edelean.

To make room for the report of the Grand Jury we have been obliged to hold over an interesting Baltimore communication and several correspondences.

Friday evening, Bernard Clayton, youngest son of Mr. Bernard Long had his left leg broken above the knee while romping with mail driver, Joseph Morgan. Dr. Leonard B. Johnson relieved the fracture.

The annual convention of the Martins put in an appearance about 3 p. m., April 1st and 'baying out the country' returned to make their report. It is strange but true that these birds send out scouts who go and look at nesting boxes, then leave and within a few days return in force.

Easter Monday a party of colored men at Jar osville, in the 5th district, got into a fracas and were ordered out of his store by Mr. J. F. Jarboe. The men refused to go and in attempting to put them out it is alleged that Mr. Jarboe was hit by Edward Chase with a pair of steel knuckles and badly cut. Justice R. T. Hammett issued a warrant for Chase's arrest.

At a meeting of the members of the congregation of St. Andrew's Parish in accordance with the rules and canons of the Church, held at St. Andrew's Church, on Easter Monday, the following named persons were re-elected members of the vestry: Joseph H. Key, J. Parran Crane, Walter H. Briscoe, John W. Williams, Martin L. Hammett, John A. Evans and Daniel O. Hammett. John F. Who Says Rheumatism Can Not Be Cured? My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson, of C. J.
