Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest From Different Sections.

The judges' stand at the Valley fair grounds at Brattleboro was split in two by lightning Sunday night. The roads in the county were badly damaged by the heavy rain.

J. B. Wilbur of Manchester has been appointed by the governor a member of the state fair commission in place of Charles C. Jones of Bennington, who lost his life on the ill-fated Titanic.

Fred E. Hall of Hardwick, a farmer, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with Clerk F. S. Platt of the United States court. His liabilities are given as $3,755 and his assets as $2,635, with $600 exempt.

Rev. Frederick Sherman Arnold, rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal church, Brandon, has tendered his resignation, to take effect October 1. Mr. Arnold expects to return to his former home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and engage in business with his father, C. N. Arnold.

John Peters, who lives on a farm in West Shaftsbury, was struck by lightning during the severe storm Tuesday afternoon while at work in his barn. He did not entirely lose consciousness because of the shock, but has not recovered the use of his limbs sufficiently as to be able to move.

William Yates, an employe in Prouty & Miller's mill in Newport, was killed on the railroad track at Beebe Junction Memorial day. It is not known just how he was killed, as no one witnessed the accident; but it is supposed he attempted to board a freight and fell between the wheels. The body was found beside the track the next morning.

Capt. Gilbert Hart, who died May 24 at his home in Detroit, was the donor of the library in Wallingford village which bears his name. Captain Smith was a native of Wallingford and would have been 84 years old had he lived until August. He invented and had patented the celebrated safety emery wheels, which brought him fame and fortune.

During May ther were 21 deaths in the city of Rutland. Two of the deaths resulted from accidents, and of the others one was caused by pneumonia, one by tuberculosis, one by the grip, one by diabetes, three by cancer, and four by senile debility. The 13 contagious diseases reported during the month were as follows: Chickenpox, 8; measles, 2; typhoid fever, 2; diphtheria 1. None of the contagious cases proved fatal.

Waldo G. Knapp of Middletown Springs, who will be graduated this month from Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., has been chosen secretary to President E. F. Nichols to succeed A. K. Skinner, who has resigned. He will take up his duties in September. The two sophomores who were chosen to represent their class in the prize-speaking at Dartmouth college commencement, June 22, are Wilfred C. Gilbert of Dorset and Gordon J. Platt of Swanton.

The body of Miss Jessie B. Moore of Springfield, who had been missing since April 28, was discovered Tuesday, May 28, in the river below Gilman & Sons dam, by Harry E. Lamson, and to him was awarded the $50 which had been offered for knowledge of Miss Moore's whereabouts. Miss Moore left her home for an evening's visit and never returned. She had been in a New Jersey institution for treatment of the insane and is said to have threatened to take her own life. The body was held down by a rock in such a way that it could not float. She was 42 years of age.

Betting on Life's Chances.

Betting on other people's chances of life was a favorite amusement of the young blades of the eighteenth century and once led to a famous lawsuit. "Old Q." when Earl of March, laid a wager with a Mr. Pigot that that gentleman's father, aged seventy, would not survive Sir William Codrington, who was fifty. The odds were $8,000 to $2,500. Quite unknown to either, Pigot's father was actually dead at the time the bet was made, and Pigot refused to pay. March, however, sued him in court and after a sensational trial obtained a verdict in his favor.—London Chronicle.

Why Coat Lapels Have Nicks.

The following is said to be the story of the origin of the nick in the lapel of men's coats: When Napoleon first felt the sway of ambition he tried to implicate General Moreau in a conspiracy. Moreau had been Napoleon's superior and was exceedingly popular, but in the circumstances, with the Man of Destiny in power, it was not safe to express publicly sympathy with Moreau. His admirers and supporters quietly agreed to nick their coat lapels to show their fellowship, the outlines of the coat after the nick was made forming the letter M.

Haunting the Spot.

Still do I haunt the woodlands, O my sweet,
Where we together in the pride of June
Wandered throughout a blazing afternoon
Till, halting where o'erhead the branches meet,
I cast myself in suppliance at your feet
And begged you fervently to grant that boon
Which forms the first step to a honeymoon
And make your Donald's happiness complete.

Even though you scorned the offer of my heart
When pressed upon you in imploring tones,
Even though henceforth we're doomed to walk apart
(You now, in point of fact, are Mrs. Jones),
Oftimes I seek the spot whereon we stopped,
Hoping to find that half crown which I dropped.

—Punch.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Barre People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills,
For Barre kidney sufferers,
Have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Barre people.

C. A. Churchill, 35 Merchant street, Barre, Vt., says: "I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills publicly in 1897 after I had taken them a short time and had found the best of results. After that I continued their use and was entirely relieved of backache, pains across my loins, and other symptoms of kidney trouble. During the time that has since elapsed, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions, getting them at Drown's Drug Store, and good results have always been received. I have also advised their use to friends and acquaintances whom I have heard complaining of backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
