ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Pownal is to have a new railroad station to take the place of the one destroyed when a freight train crashed into it.

Will Lund found in his hawk trap in West Burke recently a large owl, which measured four feet and two inches from tip to tip of its wings.

A rolling log caught George Cole as he was working in the millyard at East Burke a few days ago and broke one leg badly. A number of pieces of bone had to be removed at the hospital.

The horse barn of O. S. Moffatt in East Berkshire was struck by lightning during the storm Sunday night, some of the timbers being torn out and others splintered. The horses were made totally deaf.

Mrs. Maria Emery, nearly 92 years of age, took an automobile ride Saturday from her home in Monroe, N. H., to Montpelier, where she visited her granddaughter, Mrs. Lester Lang.

While excavating for the foundation of a new soldiers' monument in Barnet, workmen struck the ruins of a building which the oldest residents have no recollection of, and among the ruins was found a gold cuff button, which was in good condition.

While painting a traveling crane at the Center Rutland plant of the Vermont Marble company, Joseph Emery of Rutland was caught by the hand as a carrier passed him, and lost three fingers. This caused him to fall 20 feet to the ground, when one leg was fractured.

A little son of S. B. McFeeters, while with his father, who was cutting brush near his house in Sheldon Springs, narrowly missed fatal injuries, when he got too near the axe, which his father was using and which came down on the youth's head. Only a slight wound was made and this will not prove serious.

An attempt was made Saturday night to burglarize the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Enosburg Falls, during the absence of Rev. John Wriston at conference. When the elder son arrived at home, he saw the shadow of a man between the light and curtain of a chamber, but the invader escaped through a rear door before Mr. Wriston could apprehend him.

Lye poisoning may cause the death of the two-and-one-half-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sargent of St. Johnsbury, the child being in a serious condition. On Tuesday, she, with another girl and boy, was playing, the boy acting as a doctor, the other girl as a nurse and the Sargent girl as a patient. What the "doctor" administered to the "patient" was potash and the girl's throat, lips and tongue were badly burned. The other children were no older than the victim.

Rev. Walter R. Curtis of North Clarendon has been called to the pastorate of the Congregational church at Westminster West. Mr. Curtis has become well known through the state because of his varied lines of work. He has conducted services at North Clarendon for many years and supplied in other places; has carried on for a long time a butter, egg and poultry business, has had a picture framing business in connection with his other work and has also been a rural free delivery mail carrier.

A Gentle Reminder

Fare need alterations and repairs before they are put away.

Work done now, while the season is quiet, means careful and thorough attention. Saves you the trouble of packing them away, saves worry about moths, and saves you money.

Don't be one who will wait until the last minute and then ask for them in a hurry. Prices on work brought in now are much lower.
