ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Hebrews of St. Albans have taken steps to secure a rabbi for that city and a free Hebrew school may also be established.

During the month of May, up to the present date, 26 marriage licenses have been issued from the city clerk's office in Burlington.

Co. G, V. N. G., has been formed in Winooski and the first drill was held last night. Quarters have been leased and uniforms will be ready in a few days.

David Donald, the 12-year-old son of James Donald, a Bennington blacksmith, was badly injured a few days ago by a spent bullet fired some distance from where the boy was at play.

Professor George K. Cherrie of New Jane, who has just returned to New York from a trip to the South American jungles with a party of naturalists, is very ill in New York and his wife has been summoned.

After some investigation into the automobile accident in Burlington Saturday night, in which Harold Wright was killed, the authorities have decided that no further action is necessary, it having been proven beyond a doubt that the auto was traveling slowly and on the right side of the road.

Walter H. Crockett, long-time editor of Vermont newspapers, favorably known to every newspaper in the state, and to all sorts and conditions of Vermonters, has been appointed by the trustees of the University of Vermont to the newly created position of "Editor of University Publications." In his new capacity he will edit and publish the catalogue and the bulletins of the several colleges of the university, as well as the bulletins, circulars, brieflets, etc., of the experiment station and of the agricultural extension service, and will endeavor to a greater extent than has hitherto been possible to relate the university activities to the people of the state through the agency of the press. He will continue to bear relationship to the office of the secretary of state in his capacity as publicity agent.

WIFE BEATER SENTENCED.

William J. Collins of Burlington Given Four Months.

Burlington, May 27.—William J. Collins of Archibald street, a laborer, was sentenced by Judge Palmer in city court yesterday for beating his wife. Garments of the woman containing blood stains were put in evidence and her testimony was damaging to the respondent.

It appears that Collins became peeved because his wife wouldn't do as he wished Tuesday night and he hit her a terrific blow, which drew blood.

He admitted that he had a few drinks down, but said that he didn't mean to hurt her. Collins has been convicted twice for intoxication and once before for breach of the peace.

He will spend not less than four nor more than five months in the house of correction.

WAR MAKES HARD TIMES

Although Persia Is Neutral To the Belligerents.

Teheran, Persia, May 27.—War is responsible for hard times in Persia, although the country is neutral. Business and financial conditions could be no worse if Persia were the center of hostilities. Trade has been at a standstill since the beginning of the war. The exchange rate is so unfavorable that the silver kran, formerly worth about 10 cents, now brings only about six and a half to seven cents. The government is at its wits' end in an effort to find money to pay salaries to government officials. There is an unprecedented scarcity of silver coins, and many well-to-do citizens have buried all their savings, fearing the uncertain times of war.

Trade with foreign countries stopped at the outbreak of war. Caravan routes are made dangerous and risky by the activity of tribesmen and bandits. The usual large shipments of tobacco and opuim have accordingly been stopped, with very serious results to the considerable sections of the community dependent on this trade for their livelihood.

Financially, Persia is dependent upon Russia and England, the two banks, one English and the other Russian, are facing very serious difficulties. The Russian government originally prohibited exports of petroleum and all sorts of food supplies into Persia, fearing that these commodities might indirectly reach Turkey. This caused a sweeping rise in the prices of petroleum, sugar and other things. The prohibition was abolished some time later, and prices went down again, but not to their previous level.

The industrial centers where woven fabrics, rugs, silver and leather ware, sword blades, earthenware and articles of luxury are manufactured, are all in a state of prostration. The Armenian dealers and agents have received notices from all their clients in England and America that no further imports are to be expected for a long time.

The alliance between Russia and England has caused much speculation and alarm in Persia. With only a limited acquaintance with the geography and current history of western Europe, most Persians jumped to the conclusion that the alliance must have some foundation in Persian affairs. They soon found an explanation, which is still generally accepted. The two great nations, this explanation avers, decided to put an end to their squabbles over Persia by forming an alliance and dividing Persia between them in accordance with the "spheres of influence" established by the convention of 1907.

Accordingly, the Persian sympathies naturally went in most cases to Germany. The addition of Turkey to the list of combatants created a tremendous impression, more especially upon the clergy. The German legation at Teheran fostered this feeling of friendship toward Germany. Matters came near crisis with the discovery of a plot to murder the Russian, British, French and Belgian ministers. The plot failed only because of a premature explosion of some bombs which were to have been used.

Russian prestige suffered a further set-back soon afterward when Tabriz and Urmia were temporarily occupied by the Turks.

The handful of Belgians residing in Persia, most of whom are engaged in work as finance controllers and customs officers, has also been the subject of popular animosity, and on one occasion nothing but the lucky arrival of a force of gendarmes under a Swedish military officer saved the finance controller at Ispahan from violence.

GO NO FARTHER

The Evidence Is at Your Door

Barre proof is what you want, and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

Mrs. N. M. Nelson, 20 Merchant street, Barre, says: "A severe attack of grippe had left my kidneys weak, and, instead of getting better, I became worse. The slightest housework tired me, and if I was on my feet for an hour or so, sharp pains across my back made me stop and rest. I paid out over one hundred dollars for doctors' treatments and medicines, but got no relief and finally became discouraged. Doan's Kidney Pills removed the trouble, and I have never been without a supply on hand since."

Price 50c, at all dealers'. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Nelson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"HUNGARY NEVER WANTED WAR."

Count Michael Karalyi Made Bold Speech in Parliament.

Budapest, May 27.—During the discussion on the indemnity bill, one of the government's new war measures, Count Michael Karolyi was selected, in the name of the Independence party, to express the feelings of the opposition, and to state the reasons why the party refuses to sanction the methods of Count Tisza and his cabinet. His speech was the boldest pronouncement that was made during the sessions of Parliament. He said:

"Even in the face of the war and the present situation, we cannot give our votes for the indemnity bill and thereby express our confidence in the government, for we never placed so little confidence in the government as we do now.

"I must declare with the greatest emphasis that Hungary never wanted the war, for she had no reason to do so. She had no territorial aspirations.

"Yet the whole nation was ready to support the war, for we trusted and hoped that it would create a new Hungary in which honesty would be the dominating factor; that she would be able to show, as indeed she has done already, that she is the source of power on which the monarchy rests; and would succeed in gaining the confidence of her rulers and of the world.

"If we cannot realize the new situation which arises out of the war, if we cannot secure substantial benefits, the soldier will justly ask himself whether it was worth while to fight for a country which does not want to acknowledge the sacrifices undergone for its sake. He will rather leave Hungary and migrate to America, though we want even those who migrated to return.

"We cannot proceed on the same lines as we have done up to now. Militarism in its present form will have to be subdued and replaced by an army of the people. It is impossible that after this war diplomats and rulers should decide the question of war and peace. It is unbearable that humanity should be at the mercy of secret agreements and be thrown into war for reasons that it is not allowed to know.

"The reasons why we decline to vote our confidence in the government are strictly connected with the war. I am sorry that I am not allowed to define these without harming the cause and the operations. But I must express the opinion that for the success of the war the government ought to give up their place to another cabient. The responsibility for the resignation of Count Berchtold rests with the prime minister and the time will come when he will have to explain."

WHITMAN CLEARS COMMISSION.

Members of Public Service Body Exonerated of Charges.

Albany, N. Y., May 27.—Members of the down-state public service commission yesterday were exonerated by Governor Whitman of charges of misconduct in office and neglect of duty. The commissioners under fire were Chairman Edward E. McCall, J. Sergeant Cram, George V. S. Williams and Robert Colgate Wood, all Democrats. The charges were brought against them by a legislative investigating committee. Removal was not recommended by the committeemen because, a majority statement said, they desired the governor to pass on the evidence.

While admitting that the commissioners have not been wholly efficient in attending to many matters of detail, the governor thinks their work will improve in the future.

FOUND DEAD NEAR CHILDREN.

Mrs. Charlotte O'Neill of Brooklyn Shot Through the Heart.

New York, May 27.—Mrs. Charlotte O'Neill, wife of Francis O'Neill, an architectural engineer employed by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co., was found dead yesterday with a bullet in her heart, at her home at 311 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn. In an adjoining room by two of her three children, Josephine, one year old, and Francis, aged four. Both apparently were dead, strangled by cords drawn tightly around their necks. The boy later revived, but the baby died.

The police theory of murder and suicide was strengthened by assertions made by Mr. O'Neill. He said that his wife had shown signs of nervousness and had been somewhat irrational after the birth of her youngest child a year ago, and once had threatened to kill herself.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION IN WATERBURY NEXT

Annual Session in Barre Concluded Yesterday Afternoon and Several Papers Were Read.

Closing time for the Washington county Woman's Christian Temperance union which has been in session at the Barre Baptist church since Tuesday morning, came yesterday afternoon after the last papers, readings and reports had been heard. They adjourned until the next meeting, which will be held in Waterbury.

For the afternoon meeting Mrs. J. E. Bingham had the honor of leading the devotional service. Several songs were sung and several verses of scripture were read. Mrs. LaPoint also lead in prayer. On account of illness, Miss Scott was unable to give her reading, so Mrs. George Guernsey read an article on "Narcotic Evil." It was short but to the point, showing the evil of tobacco. Cigarettes were also mentioned as one of the most vile forms of tobacco. Tobacco was classed as a poison and a nerve-disturbing evil, especially harmful to the young boy. The women were asked to supply as much help as possible toward preventing the manufacture of cigarettes and also their sale.

Mrs. G. N. French was to have spoken on "Temperance Literature," and Mrs. N. E. Avery on "Medical Temperance," but neither was present. Mrs. F. D. Beckley and Mrs. Frank Waterman gave their journals on "Soldiers and Sailors" and "Quarrymen Work," respectively, in the morning.

Miss Martha Watson read two interesting articles on "The Flag and the White Ribbon," which were attentively listened to and discussed for a few minutes after the reading. Mrs. E. Mead Denny of Montpelier also spoke encouragingly on legislative work, advising it to be done much more promptly than it has in the past.

The exercise that was to have been given by the children was also crossed off, as they could not appear. In its place several minutes were given over to a discussion of the wearing of the white ribbon. Financial affairs were also brushed over by Miss Lillian Phelps, who gave an interesting talk Tuesday morning.

The last thing before adjournment was the passing and adoption of the resolutions. The following were read by Mrs. J. C. Bingham of Northfield, who is chairman of the resolution committee:

"Resolved, That we work with redoubled zeal in arousing the interest of the voter to right action. That more earnest work be given our young people along temperance lines. That we work more diligently to suppress the use of alcohol in medicine. That we extend to the Barre union our hearty thanks for their hospitality; to the Baptist society for the use of their church and to the pastor for his cordial welcome and inspiring songs, and thanks to Miss Lillian Phelps for her address and general helpfulness throughout the convention; to the Methodist pastor, who assisted in the evening service and to all who have assisted in any way in making our convention pleasant and helpful." After the committee's report, Mrs. Bingham added a resolution of her own and wrote an original verse of poetry. The resolution: "Resolved, That the members of the W. C. T. U. always wear the white ribbon."

The meeting passed these resolutions and ordered them printed, including the poem by Mrs. Bingham. Adjournment came directly afterward.

Mrs. Bingham's poem:

Sisters wear the ribbon white,
Wear it every day.
Show your color everywhere,
If you go or stay.

Let it speak of purity
In the wearer's life.
Let it tell the hope of peace
In these times of strife.

May the badge be ever found
On the woman true,
Who belongs with heart and soul
To the W. C. T. U.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

George E. Fenn Was Packing Trunk to Come to St. Albans.

Boston, May 27.—George E. Fenn, 49 years of age, of 24 Pine street, Melrose, a ventilator manufacturer, is in the Melrose hospital and not expected to recover as the result of the accidental discharge of a revolver yesterday, when he was packing his trunk preparatory to taking a trip to St. Albans, Vt.

The revolver was lying in the bottom of the trunk, when Fenn threw something on top of it. The bullet struck him in the right temple.

SEAVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

Have you dyspepsia? If you have, perhaps you want to get rid of it. You can by taking SEAVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS. We do not print any pictures of before and after taking. You get them by standing before the looking glass. If you don't believe this, try the tablets and you will. We have proved that SEAVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS will cure dyspepsia over and over again. We are ready to demonstrate it in your case, and we will tell you how. Go to the store of the Red Cross Pharmacy, Frank Roark, or S. C. Voodry & Co., and get a package. Take it according to directions. If it cures you, step in and tell the druggist so. If it doesn't, step in just the same and tell him that, and he will hand you right back the ducats you paid him. Do you suppose this offer would be made if we had any doubts about what the tablets will do for you? Do you see any way that you can lose money out of it? But if you really enjoy dyspepsia, and want to retain it permanently, let SEAVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS alone, for the tablets won't let dyspepsia alone. —Advt.

ESTATE OF STANLEY JOHN TURNER
