Have you heard from Woodbury?

Sioux City Journal, Oct. 14.

We have nearly complete returns from the election in Woodbury County, which we present in tabular form elsewhere. It is possible that the remaining townships, Willow and Liston, may come in before we close our forms, but the figures given settle all questions at issue. Liston last year cast 19 votes. Willow is a new township and the vote will not be above 25 or such a matter.

The Republicans have elected their entire ticket, with the exception of School Superintendent, Mr. Wright, present incumbent, having carried off that office by a fair majority over both his competitors.

The Republican State ticket has a majority of about 390; Moffat, for County Auditor, about 500; Kent, for Treasurer, about 280; McDonald, for Sheriff, about 550; Eberly, for Supervisor, about 80. The Court-house proposition prevails by a majority of some 360.

Gilliland, for Representative, gets all the votes cast in the county for that office, save a few scattering.

Two years ago, Kent's majority in the county was only 154, and McDonald's 309. The handsome gain does them proud.

Last year, Young, for Secretary of State, had a majority in the county of but 164, which shows a Republican gain in the county on State ticket of over 150. Not very bad, take it all around, is it?

DAKOTA NEWS.

UNION COUNTY.

Elk Point Courier, Oct. 13th.

On Sunday last, after the morning services in the Baptist church, five more candidates received the ordinance of baptism by immersion. So far, about thirty persons have been united with the church.

On last Thursday three sacks of wheat were stolen from wagons standing near the Elk Point house, and belonging to some farmers from the northern portion of our county. The grain was finally recovered at the mill, where it had been taken. The thief was arrested and arraigned before Justice Wallace, but pleading poverty and promising amendment, after paying for the wheat, as well as all costs, he was permitted to go free.

The little son of P. W. McManus, Esq., met with a serious accident on Sunday, by upsetting a heavy table, which fell on him and bruised him considerably. The little fellow is doing finely, however, and will soon be around again. Since the above was in type we learn that a gash was cut in the boy's face, extending from the eye down to the nostrils. Dr. Conley sewed up the wound and rendered him as comfortable as possible.

The Ohio Elections.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 15.—Neither the republican or democratic committees have received additional returns this morning. The senate is still in doubt, and the result cannot be determined until full returns are received from Wood county, where it is reported the counting out is delayed by fraudulent votes polled.

LATER.

News received from Wood county at 1:30 p. m. claims that heavy frauds were practiced in Perrysburg, which will probably necessitate the throwing out of the votes polled there. If the vote is counted Hayes' majority in the county will be 469, and give the republicans one senator. If it is thrown out, Hayes' majority will be 723, and both republican senators will be elected. In either case a republican representative is elected, which gives the senate to the republicans by two majority, and the house by 12 majority. Hayes' majority will now probably be over 4,000.

Dubuque County, Iowa.

DUBUQUE, IOWA, Oct. 15.—Lefflier has 1,758 majority over Kirkwood in this county, and the whole state ticket runs about at these figures. The republicans elect one representative, J. K. Graves, not two as erroneously reported yesterday.

Failures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Moses S. Herman & Co., of 22 Walker street, the principal member of which is a brother of A. S. Herman, who recently went into bankruptcy, have also failed. The firm's liabilities are stated at $200,000, and assets at $95,000, $50,000 being stock and $45,000 bills receivable.

Harris Rothstern, a hatter, has filed an assignment of his property for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities are given at $37,069.58, and assets $12,015.

Religious.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Oct. 15.—The state convention of the Young Men's Christian Association resolved yesterday to send a greeting to the Young Women's Christian Association in session at Pittsburg, and protested against the encroachment upon the Lord's day.

Promoted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15th.—W. E. Crary, of Michigan, has been promoted from assistant to postmaster of the U. S. senate, and C. C. Jones of Minnesota, has been appointed assistant postmaster.

Foreign.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—A number of coasters were wrecked and several lives lost in a gale yesterday.

Run on a Boston Bank.

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—There has been a run on the Home Savings Bank today, but its officers claim that it is in a condition to pay as fast as claims are presented.

John Quincy Adams has been substituted for General Bartlett, as the candidate for lieutenant governor, on the democratic ticket of Massachusetts.

WASHINGTON.

Cabinet Meeting and the Vacant Chair

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The president arrived this morning and a regular cabinet session was held at 12 o'clock. There were present Secretaries Bristow and Belknap, Attorney General Pierepont, and Postmaster General Jewell, Ass't Secretary Cadwallader, who represented the state department and Ass't Secretary Cowan of the Interior department.

LATER.

The cabinet held a long session and transacted much routine business today. The members state that the secretary of the Interior will not be appointed before next week. It is believed the president is waiting for a response from a gentleman to whom the position has been offered.

Negroes Murdered in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—While some colored men were returning last night from a picnic held in the outskirts of Brooklyn, they were attacked by a number of whites. One of the negroes was instantly killed by a blow from a stone, and another was fatally injured. Seven men were arrested.

Capital Topics.

Washington Republican of Oct. 11th.

THE PUEBLOS GONE.

The Pueblo "Los" were at the Indian office Saturday morning, and their acting parent, Col. Irwin, did the handsome thing for them with shawls, shirts, silver, and so forth. Indian-like, as well as Oliver Twist-like, the delegation, wanted more—and they got it. The additional presents consisted of hats and fish netting. Railroad tickets they were also provided with, as well as a small amount of lucre. Thus accoutred, with hearts brimfull of gratitude and lips chock-a-block with praises, they departed, by way of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, toward the setting sun.

"THE OLD, OLD STORY WAS TOLD AGAIN."

The attorney general is likely to be pretty well-informed concerning matters in Mississippi. He had hardly reached his office on Saturday ere he was called upon by representatives of the faction in the state who are opposed to any action by the government, or to any interference whatever regarding whatever may happen there. These gentlemen think that the result of non-interference may lose to the republican party the next legislature of the state, but, inconsistently enough, draw a rose-colored view of the presidential election, asserting views that the republicans will carry the state in that campaign. The usual characteristic telegram from Senator Alcorn, picturing peace and harmony, came to hand at the department of justice on Saturday.

FINANCIAL.

At the close of business Saturday the following were the balances in the treasury: Currency, $4,968,029; special deposits of legal tenders for redemption of certificates of deposit, $61,835,000; coin, $68,784,332; including coin certificates, $12,477,100, outstanding legal tenders, $373,941,124. The customs receipts Saturday were $551,273.75; for the month, $2,829,921.99, and for the fiscal year to date, $47,428,843.42. The receipts on Saturday from internal revenue sources were $257,956.68; for the month, $3,036,657.54, and for the fiscal year, $31,565,863.25. The treasury now holds $369,791,762 in United States bonds to secure national bank circulation, and $18,782,200 to secure public deposits. The national bank circulation outstanding amounts to $346,769,853, of which amount $2,640,000 are notes issued to gold banks.

MOVEMENT OF SPECIE IN CUBA.

During the week ended September 25 the premium on Spanish gold at Havana fluctuated between $1.33½ and 1.35½, but by October 1st it had fallen as low as $1.22½. The Havana Weekly Report, an authentic mercantile publication, attributes this sudden decline partly to the late decree permitting "the free importation of foreign gold coins, and enforcing their circulation with an additional premium of five per cent.," and in part to "political news of a more favorable character from Spain." It appears, however, from the latest telegraphic news that the premium has again advanced to $1.27½ or $1.28, a fact for which no explanation has yet reached us. The total exports of specie from Havana for the first nine months of 1875 amounted to $2,408,300, and the imports for the same period to $7,946,728, of which upwards of $6,000,000 were imported during the three months from March 1st to May 31st, inclusive. During the first nine months of 1874 the exports of specie amounted to $1,691,184, and the imports to $5,609,331, the heaviest importations occurring in March and June. The imports of specie from the United States amounted to $4,890,356 during the first nine months of 1874, and to $5,509,249 during the first nine months of 1875.
