

Saint Mary's Beacon.

LEONARDTOWN, MD.

THURSDAY Morning, July 13.

Our editorial brothers of the Port Tobacco Times and La Plata Crescent are enjoying an exchange of editorial amenities. We hope they may soon amicably adjust their differences.

After many weeks of argument the Bering Sea case has at last been submitted to the board of arbitrators who will consider it for three months before they announce their decision. It is thought that the United States will win the case.

It is generally conceded that Ex-Speaker Crisp will be re-elected when Congress meets next month. This indicates that the Democrats are getting together, and that Mr. Cleveland and Congress will proceed without friction to redeem the pledges made in the platform last year.

We beg to again remind our friends that we are always glad to have them send us any news items from their neighborhoods. If they have not time to write up the "happenings" why send us the facts and we will prepare them for publication. We want to give all the news of our country and, if our friends will lend us a helping hand, will do it.

On our first page we reprint a paper by Hon. Henry W. Yates, of Omaha, Neb., on the "Silver Question." Mr. Yates is a native of St. Mary's county and is pleasantly remembered by many of our older inhabitants. He left Leonardtown during the war and went West. He is now president of the Nebraska National Bank, of Omaha, and is one of the leading men in his State.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

From the Baltimore Sun.

Saturday, July 8, 1893.

The first arrival of peaches of the season carload in Baltimore.

Oyster navy vessels in need of repairs have been ordered to the ship-yards.

It is announced that ex-Congressman Eli J. Henkle, formerly of Maryland, is seriously ill in Chicago.

Hon. Samuel Blatchford, associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, died at Newport, R. I., aged seventy-three years.

Eau Cager, colored, was arrested charged with the murder of his stepmother, Rebecca Cager, in Howard county, a year ago.

United States steamboat inspectors have begun an investigation of the alleged racing of the steamers Wakefield and Harry Randall on the Potomac.

Dr. Walter Kempster, who was sent abroad as the agent of the United States government for the study of cholera and its prevention declares that the prevention of the disease is an absolute scientific certainty.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury Hamlin has ordered a general reduction in custodians' forces in public buildings throughout the country, including those at Baltimore, owing to a decreased appropriation.

Over one hundred lives are reported to have been lost in the tornado in Iowa, on Thursday night. The greatest destruction was at Pomeroy, the southern portion of that town being razed. Nearly every living thing in the path of the storm was mutilated. The damage to buildings and crops is immense.

Monday, July 10, 1893.

Some damage was done in Carroll and other counties by the storm Saturday.

A large mortality among infants brought the death rate of Baltimore last week to 25.48 per 1,000 of population—24.10 for white and 33 for colored persons.

The steamer Falcon sailed from Portland, Me., on Saturday, with Perry's Arctic party on board. The steamer narrowly escaped capsizing in the harbor when the tide went out and left her stranded at the wharf.

Officials of the Treasury Department are favorably disposed toward the proposition that the various kinds of paper money now in circulation in this country be redeemed by one uniform treasury note.

In a special bulletin issued by the United States weather bureau attention is called to the fact that the bureau foretold the recent disastrous tornado in Iowa twenty-four hours in advance.

Tuesday, July 11, 1893.

The Treasury Department refused to buy silver yesterday at the price at which it was offered.

The cold storage warehouse at the World's Fair was burned and eighteen persons lost their lives.

The payment of pensions under the dependent act will be suspended for sixty days, during which time pensions will be re-examined.

The municipal election in Annapolis yesterday resulted in a Democratic victory. The Democrats elected their candidate for mayor, councillor and the aldermen in two of the three wards.

Thomas Queen, colored, of Anne Arundel, was struck by lightning and killed. His house was burned and his wife was hurt by a brick from the falling chimney. A mule in the stable was also killed.

Judge Hudson's decision concerning the South Carolina liquor law declares that the government cannot become sole proprietor or copartner in any of the usual known branches of trade. Governor Tillman differs with the Judge and says the Legislature will "set down on him."

IN MEMORIAM.

With the death of Miss JEANNETTE ELEANOR BRISCOE, at the advanced age of ninety-one, on the 4th instant, at St. Mary's city, was ended an unusually long and an exceptionally useful life.

She was born in the country home of her family, "Hill Side," in Charles county, was the daughter of Samuel and Sarah Stone Briscoe, and a lineal descendant of Wm. Stone, one of Maryland's earliest Governors. Indeed, she could count among her ancestors many of Maryland's prominent statesmen and men of merit; but we cannot think that the lives of any of these could have been around them a brighter lustre than did the life of this pure and humble Christian.

From the early age of eleven, when she was left motherless, her life has been one of self-sacrificing love and thought for others; for even at that tender age she assumed all of a woman's cares that were possible to one so young.

Most of her maturer years were spent in the home of her father, where she was the daughter of her mother, Dr. Walter Hanson Stone Briscoe, at Sottery; that of his daughter, Mrs. James Richard Thomas, at "Deep Falls," and with this niece's children at St. Mary's City. Having always made her home where she believed she was most needed; and wherever it was, all who came within its influence were made to feel the benefit of her kind heart and skillful hands.

The needy found in her a generous friend, but first, and before a consideration of necessity or gift, her income was unflinchingly divided, one-tenth being set apart to "God, the giver of all."

When trials, afflictions and troubles came, she was prepared to meet them with a pure and childish faith in the loving Father who sent them, and who "knew what was best."

She was never known to murmur against the dispensations of an "all-wise Providence." Even when attacked by the infirmities and sufferings of old age, and the tired hands that had done her Master's work so well were longing for that blessed rest awaiting them—she would not wish to die. She was ready to go, but waited, patiently and submissively, the will of "Him who doeth all things well." Thus she passed peacefully away, surrounded by all that love and affectionate gratitude could do for her comfort. And while we know that her loss cannot fail to be a great grief to those who loved her, we know also that to her it was a blessed release, and that her pure spirit has entered that blissful realm for which it longed, and where so many of her loved ones were gathered before her.

Let us hope that none of those who were permitted to know this saintly character will be allowed to go down to the grave without testifying to his holy influence.

In the death of Miss JEANNETTE BRISCOE at St. Mary's Seminary last Tuesday, July 4th, this county has lost one of its oldest and best known inhabitants, one of the few remaining links to a past generation. She was laid to rest on Wednesday at St. Andrew's, where

"The mossy marble rest
On the lips that she has pressed
And the names loved to hear
Have been carved for many a year
On the tomb."

Miss Briscoe was born in Charles county, but passed most of her life in St. Mary's, living first at "Sottery" with her brother, Dr. Walter Briscoe; next at "Deep Falls" with her niece, Mrs. J. R. Thomas, and for the past thirteen years at St. Mary's Seminary.

Her life was a long and eventful life, and one which was most conspicuously distinguished by untiring energy and useful devotion to the welfare of others. Many a homeless school girl has found in her a motherly hand, her care was ever open to the sorrows and cares of others, and her hands ready to help those in need, even to the humblest servant about her. Her Christian character was specially marked by faith and humility, and love for her church was the mainspring of her life.

To all who knew her, "Auntie" was a familiar and loved household word; her presence and example have found a resting place in grateful hearts and her memory will long be cherished by those who know how truly "She hath done what she could."

Mrs. MARY HERRIMAN, wife of H. M. Herriman and daughter of Alexander Lyon.

After a short illness and in spite of all that medical skill could render our friend has fallen "asleep in Jesus," to wake in the realms above. There she shall live and reign with Him whom she so faithfully served on earth. She felt an interest in the prosperity of her home, and as far as possible labored to that end. Endowed with a comely face, a cheerful disposition, mild manners and a pure and congenial nature, she drew around her a circle of friends and acquaintances who loved her devotedly. But only those acquainted with her home life know how sincere and spiritual were her private devotions, and how devoutly she loved and faithfully read her Bible. On her bright eyes were written the truths of which she now verifies: "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things have passed away." The last few months of life was a patient, heroic struggle for life, and revealed to those around her "whose sun is gone down"—how closely she lived to her faith. At last she gave up the struggle, and resigning her children and stricken husband to the care of God, she peacefully fell asleep. She was a devoted wife, a kind and tender mother, a conscientious, earnest and faithful Christian.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

OF VALUABLE
in St. Mary's County, Maryland.

BY virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage from Edward S. Frey to Eleanor C. Darrah, wife of Frank H. Darrah, dated the sixth day of April, 1889, and recorded in Liber J. F. F. No. 11 at folio 177 et seq., one of the Land Records of Saint Mary's county, Maryland, default having been made in the covenants of said mortgage, the undersigned Attorney named in said mortgage, with power to make sale in case of default in the premises, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Leonardtown, St. Mary's county, Maryland, on TUESDAY, the 18th of July, 1893, between the hours of 12 o'clock, m. and 2 o'clock, p. m., all those tracts or parcels of land called and known by the following names:

"Susquehanna,"
"Susquehanna Point,"
"Addition,"
"Edlow's Addition,"
"Smith's Discovery,"
"Edward's Addition,"

and more completely called and known as "Sunnah," containing 697 Acres, more or less.

This tract or tract of land was formerly the home farm of the late Henry I. Carroll, and is most beautifully situated in the 8th election district, directly upon the Patuxent River near Millstone Landing; comprising a view that extends for several miles, if any, on the river, and is one of the finest estates in Southern Maryland. The soil is fine and is adapted to the production of grain, fruits, etc. There is now on the place an orchard of over 50,000 fruit trees in bearing.

The improvements consist of a comfortable DWELLING and all necessary OUT BUILDINGS, also a fine CANNERY.

The waters of the Patuxent, adjacent, afford the finest oysters and fish. The property is convenient to churches, schools and landings. The Weems line steamers afford almost daily communication with Baltimore.

Terms of sale as prescribed by the Mortgage are: CASH.

WALTER L. DAWKINS,
Attorney named in Mortgage.
