Picnic for Joy Chapel: The Joy Chapel M. E. Sunday School will hold a picnic on the 20th of July in the grove at the Church.

Orphans' Court: Court met, Tuesday, July 11, 1893, with all the officers present. Petition of Jo. F. Morgan, guardian John S. Spalding filed, and order passed as prayed.

Licenses to Marry: During the month of June County Clerk James J. Greenwell has issued licenses to marry to the following couples:

William Francis Tension and Sarah Roberts Herbert. Luther Daniel Heigert and Ann Caroline Bean.

Hotel Arrivals

The following are among the recent arrivals at Moore's Hotel: Captain and Mrs. E. G. Barnard, Miss Nellie T. Varden, Washington city; Robt. B. Jones, Baltimore; J. G. B. Woodworth, New York; J. H. Hunt, Alexandria, Va.; R. S. Donahue, Kinsale, Va.; Fred. Griffith, Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. Mary Norton and daughter, Miss Alice Lovejoy, Percy Thompson, Washington city; Wm. B. Tension, Baltimore, Md.

Land Sale: Charles E. Gough, has completed the sale of his farm "May Dell" to John H. Garner, of Chicago, Ill. The negotiation was carried on through Mr. Fillmore, Real Estate Agent. The price paid was $2600. Mr. Garner is a former resident of our county, but has been away for many years following the profession of music, in which he has become celebrated.

Valuable Horses Dead: Friday, County Commissioner George F. Tension lost a valuable horse from lockjaw superinduced by a splinter stuck in the left fore foot. The animal was worth at least $150 and was known as Jeff's colt.

Confederate Association: At the meeting of the Confederate Association on the 11th instant the following new members were elected: Judge P. Parran Crane, H. Clay Dent, Daniel Hammett, Joseph B. Gardner, Wm. T. Bailey, Joseph A. Bean, John F. Duke, Dr. R. P. Blakistone and George R. Garner were elected honorary members.

The Confederate War Journal: The Confederate War Journal for July contains a graphic description of the Battle of Manassas, or Bull Run, by General Joseph E. Johnston—also a Biography of General Johnston; The Confederate Forces at Manassas; The Regiments and Brigades, and their Commanders, composing the Confederate Armies of the Potomac and of the Shenandoah; General Beauregard's Plan of Attack; Abstract from Field Return First Corps, Army of the Potomac (Confederate); Abstract from Field Return of the Troops (of First Corps, Confederate) engaged at the Battle of Manassas; Proclamation of Governor Letcher of Virginia; Strength of the Union Army at Manassas, reported by Confederate Authority; Roster of the Officers (with Portraits) of the Confederate States Army and Navy, and their Commands; History of the Civil War, Chronologically Arranged; The Ordinances of Secession of Georgia and Louisiana; Confederate Poems; the Martial Melodies Dear to Southern Hearts; Humors of the Camp Fire, etc. Illustrated with large Portraits of Governor John Letcher of Virginia, 1861; General Joseph E. Johnston, and Generals Beauregard, Braxton Bragg, E. Kirby Smith and John B. Hood. Also a large battle scene, size 9x13 inches, representing the Battle of Manassas; Map of the Battlefield of Manassas; View of Richmond, Va., and the Capitol of the Confederacy at Richmond, Va., etc., etc. The subscription price is only $1.00 a year. Published by The War Journal Publishing Company, Lexington, Ky., and 110 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

A Mormon Elder on the Rappahannock: The officers of the Weems Steamboat Company state that there is considerable excitement among the people at Mill Creek, on the Rappahannock river, Virginia, where a Mormon elder has made his appearance. The Methodist and Baptist ministers have combined and daily joint discussions between them and the Mormon are taking place. Crowds have been turning out to hear the arguments. While the people generally are incensed at the appearance of the elder in their midst it is said a number of them have embraced his doctrine.—Sun.

Republican County Convention: Tuesday's Republican Convention was a tame affair. There was no opposition and no excitement. State Senator Wilkinson called the meeting to order, stated what they were there for and explained the Crawford System of making nominations. Ex-Delegate John F. Cecil was made chairman and E. B. Abell, Esq., and Dr. Wm. Wayson were secretaries. Two districts—the 4th and 9th were not represented in the Convention. On motion a committee on resolutions, of one from each district, was appointed as follows: William F. Chesley, Wm. F. Ford, E. H. Posey, John S. Jarboe, John H. Clarke, John Dickerson and James Jordan. The committee retired and soon returned with a set of resolutions recommending the Crawford County System of nominating as the future law of the party. The resolutions were read, a minor amendment added, and adopted. John S. Jarboe, Luke Clarke and Basil Bankins were chosen by acclamation delegates to the State Convention. The alternates are: Washington Wilkinson, John H. Clarke and Dr. Wm. Wayson.

Lovantown Local

Just as the sun diffused his golden rays upon Calvert's Rest Summer Resort (Raleigh's) the Star Spangled Banner was unfurled to the breezes of heaven amid the carols of sweet voiced birds as they sat perched upon thickly foliaged boughs of maple and sycamore. As anticipated it was a festive day at the Resort, one long to be remembered by the many who participated in the festivities. Many pretty ladies were present, and young men from different sections of the district and Northumberland county, Virginia, enjoyed their bewitching smiles as they danced to the strains of sweet music. Boys, costumed in gay apparel, made the welkin ring with their merry shouts; and at night, balloons of various colors were dispatched upon aerial voyages to be wafted, perhaps upon some distant fove to molest the quiet slumbers of its denizens by their ultimate incineration.

Miss May Robson, of Baltimore, is visiting her Aunt, Mrs. Kate E. Dunbar, Kitty's Point.

Mr. Adams, a retired pilot, visited this section recently, and related the following: "During the war I was in charge of a Government boat, and frequently the President and members of his cabinet would take trips to Fortress Monroe and other places. On one particular occasion we were hurriedly returning from the fort and as we neared the Capital, an officer remarked that Robert E. Lee was not a gentleman. The President immediately replied that he was pained to hear so unjust an expression about a man whom he respected, and with all the candor and dignity which he could command said, "General Lee, sir, is a gentleman." This, Mr. A. said, put an end to the conversation, and the officer was more guarded in his expressions in regard to the great and good man whom even Abraham Lincoln was pained to hear the poisonous breath of slander uttered.

Recent showers have been productive of considerable benefit to vegetation. Corn and tobacco are growing in a satisfactory manner, and truckers have flattering prospects before them.

Mr. Edmund Hoopes is having heads sawed for flour and truck barrels. His farm is contiguous to Calvert's Bay and the historic Potomac. Changes are taking place hereabout as elsewhere, and as time wields its flight brings about the delight of those who now sleep beneath the green turf, have changed hands.

We notice that the roads are in a tolerably fair traveling condition, which, not egotistically speaking, is measurably due to the free and fearless use of our pen; for we never tire to use it, particularly whenever we are convinced that in doing so we benefit to the public will ensue.

The new mail route from Wynne (Baltimore's wharf, Smith's Creek.) to Ridge has been awarded to Edmund Hammett, Esq., for $125 per annum. Distance two miles. Mail, morning and afternoon. The contract for carrying the mail between Baltimore and Washington per steamers has expired, and Mr. Lewis, of the steamboat company, is uncertain whether they will put in a bid or not. It would be a great convenience to this section and elsewhere.

Mr. Henry Abell is sawing lumber for the Catholic Church on St. George's Island, and we are informed by Mr. Joseph F. Robrecht that it will be completed at an early day.

There was Mass at the Catholic Churches on last Sunday. We are thankful that God remembers mercy by sending us messengers to preach the Gospel to us, and although his promises are veiled in sacred obscurity, we hope in his mercy, and utter with humbleness befitting our lowly condition, Alma, Father!

Inflorescence of plants of the genus helianthus indicates that mid summer is here.

Summer Complaint

Last fall I was taken with a kind of Summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks county, Pa. 35 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Wm. F. Greenwell & Son, Leonardtown, Md.

Explosion: Last Monday, whilst Mr. W. F. Saxton, the boiler of Dawson & Russell's engine exploded wrecking the engine and separator. The accident occurred during the dinner hour and but few were around. Mr. Russell was ciling the bearings preparatory to the evening's work, and two young men were filling barrels with water. The boiler was two-thirds full of water and but little steam had been generated, for the water which was showered upon the bystanders was not milk-warm. The explosion shook the country round and fragments were hurled nearly a quarter of a mile. Fortunately, no one was hurt. Messrs. Russell & Dawson are hard working, energetic young gentlemen and we have no better citizens in our section. They have struggled hard and the loss of a threshing outfit is a serious blow.

DEAR BEACON:—A few days ago, for the first time, I paid a visit to Highland Town, a suburb of Baltimore, a part of the Belt that will in a few years be a part of the city. It is one of the most thriving and growing towns in the State and is built almost entirely of brick. The houses run from 6 to 10 rooms, neat and tasty, and better still, substantially built. It is a new town, the first house being constructed about 35 years. It contains from 6,000 to 10,000 souls. It is worth a trip to any one, especially a St. Mary's man, to see it. From Pratt street take a Highland car (going east), lowest 5 cents, and before you get off it you are there. Get off at 3rd street, and at the corner of 3rd and Gough streets you will see an old St. Mary's man. Go in and you will see an old St. Mary's man and meet a regular old St. Mary's welcome from John F. Combs, who, a few months ago, established there a saloon—large, airy and cool and handsomely fitted up, and is doing a large and rapidly increasing business. Let any St. Mary's man drift in there and I will guarantee that in a very short time he thinks he has been dreaming and that he is really back in old St. Mary's. Friend Combs and wife are regular full blooded St. Mary's countians, and that is all that is needed to say. Go there and you won't regret it, and I will guarantee a hearty welcome.

And now a word upon a grave subject. The frequency which our county, and especially our neighborhood, has been visited with fire is simply appalling. There is no possibility of accounting for them, except as the act of an incendiary. Hon. John N. Graves' house, the Misses Costigan stables and horses and the woods fired within 75 or 100 yards of Love's store. And yet the guardians of our interest sit and look on with as much indifference as if it was a worthy pastime. Although urged to do so, they take no notice at all, and when private parties offer a reward offered, some one takes the liberty of countermanding it. There may be one or two persons in this district that may think it accidental. If this be so they will not have any reward to pay and will get the credit of feeling some interest in the welfare of their neighbors. If the Misses Costigan stable was burned by accident, then have the days of miracles returned. Saturday night the heaviest fall of water we have had in a long time and a great deal of thunder and lightning; Sunday night a regular, steady fall of water almost all night without one peal of thunder, and yet by accident, between 12 and 2 o'clock, the stable took fire inside, in three different corners, and by this accident it run and surrounded the horses! There had been no light near the stable that night and the fire occurred from 6 to 8 hours after the hostler had retired. Such accidents, under such peculiar circumstances, never occur. There is a renewal of uneasiness and dread pervading the whole community, and the people have a right to demand that some interest should be shown in their affairs by those elected for that purpose. If it was an accident, as I said before, they pay nothing. But at least, offer enough to cause a thorough investigation of the matter.

Yours truly, L. J. SURTON.

Localize and Otherwise

Miss Ruby Yates, of this village, is visiting friends in Washington city.

Dr. Ben Gough, an old ex-Confederate, is visiting friends in the county.

In some neighborhoods Saturday's storm blew down fences and uprooted trees.

Ex-Sheriff John F. Ching is very sick of typhoid pneumonia. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. H. Clay Dent, of Charles county, is visiting the family of Mr. T. Lee Mattingly, Leonardtown.

The Leonardtown Base-ball Club seems to have fallen into a state of "innocuous desuetude."

Mr. John T. Johnson, of Brittan's Neck, threshed 41 bushels of wheat for one from his tobacco land.

The Ex-Confederates had a well attended meeting Tuesday last and several new members joined.

Baltimore County Deputies have nominated for Register of Wills, Dr. H. J. Hebb, a native of St. Mary's. The office pays $3,000 per year.

The season for Church Entertainments is on hand and reference to our advertising columns will show where and when they are to be held.

The meetings of the Orphans' and Commissioners' Courts Tuesday and the Republican County Convention attracted quite a crowd to the village.

The commission of Miss Mattie Maddox as P. M., at Leonardtown, arrived by Tuesday evening's mail. We learn that she will take charge of the office at once.

The fine property known as "Susquehanna," situated near Millstone Landing in the 8th district, is to be sold at public auction next Tuesday. See advertisement.

Last Saturday lightning struck twice in the groves around Leonardtown, one bolt striking the large oak near the entrance to Mr. Key's house. Fortunately, however, but little damage was done.

The Hagerstown Mail, the Marlboro Gazette and other esteemed cotemporaries have celebrated their anniversaries. They are good papers and have proud records to look back upon. May they continue to succeed.

We call special attention to the advertisement of the Chapel Point Tournament in another column. Mr. J. Cambles Howard is interested in the affair and we hope his many St. Mary's friends will respond to his invitation to "join him" in making the Tournament a success. Commissioners' Court met Tuesday, the 11th instant, all the officers present. Contract for building a bridge over St. Clement's Bay run was awarded Joseph H. Milburn for $300. Clerk was ordered to purchase a safe for County Commissioners' office and bath-tub, &c., for Alms House.

His many friends here have heard with sincere regret of the sickness of Dr. Frank Greenwell at his home in Cumberland. Dr. Greenwell is suffering from typhoid fever. His father, Mr. Wm. F. Greenwell, went on to see him Tuesday evening last. We wish the doctor a speedy recovery.

DECLINATION: I am deeply grateful to many kind friends for their profuse offers of support and candidacy for the Sheriffcy and thank them for it. I will not be a candidate this fall, but the nominee, whoever he be, will receive my hearty and earnest support. Respectfully, A. F. FENWICK.

Subject to Pain in the Stomach: Elder S. S. Beaver, of McAllisterville, Indiana Co., Pa., says "I was subject to cramp in the stomach, and she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it, and was much pleased with the speedy relief it afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary and found that it never fails. For sale by Wm. F. Greenwell & Son, Leonardtown, Md."

Many Persons are broken down from overwork or household cares. Brown's Iron Bitters restores the system, aids digestion, removes excess of bile, and cures malaria. Get the genuine.
