RECIPROCITY MEETING OF MUSIC DEPARTMENTS.

Allendale, the beautiful home of Mrs. F. G. Allen, in Moline, was thrown open yesterday for the first reciprocity meeting of the music departments of the Woman's clubs of Rock Island, Moline and Davenport, and close to 200 tri-city ladies gathered for the program participated in by members of the three departments. The program was given in the hall room on the third floor and it made a splendid audience room, the acoustics being especially good. Mrs. J. J. Deegan, head of both the Moline and Davenport departments, acted as chairman of the afternoon and in introducing the program spoke of the fitness of the first reciprocity meeting being held at the home of Mrs. Allen, who was the originator of the Woman's clubs in the three cities, and who has perhaps done more for their success than any other one woman in the three cities, giving at all times of her time and money to carry into execution the projects that are undertaken. Mrs. J. K. Scott, chairman of the Rock Island department, was called upon to tell something of the work of the department which she represents, and in responding spoke of what has been accomplished in the short time since its organization and with a comparatively small membership. Mrs. Alfred Mueller, president of the Davenport Woman's club, spoke for the music department of that society, also telling of the work as carried on by that organization with a membership of 120. Mrs. H. L. Dullen, vice chairman of the Moline department, spoke for that club and explained in detail the line of study that has been taken up and followed through the year. Miss Edna Mitchell, chairman of the students' department of the Moline club, told briefly of the work of that department in which are enrolled 98 young musicians, and who are doing a really good work along musical lines.

Mrs. Victor Frykman, violinist; Mrs. J. K. Scott, soprano; Mrs. R. J. Lachner, contralto, with Miss Effie Johnson as accompanist, represented the Rock Island department and gave some of the most pleasing numbers on the program. Mrs. Frykman played beautifully two Wieniawski compositions: Romance from Second Concerto and "Legende." Mrs. Scott sang a weird, lovely selection, "Song of India," by Rimsky-Korsakoff. Mrs. R. J. Lachner giving "Melisand in the Woods," by Goetz, and "April," by Ronald, singing both in excellent voice and with splendid understanding of the themes. Miss Grace Abraham, pianist; Miss Virginia Tunnicliff, contralto, and Mrs. C. A. Peterson, soprano, represented the Moline department, the former playing "Nocturne" by Karganoff and "Romance" by Tschaikowsky with good technic and expression. Miss Tunnicliff has a lovely voice, singing with good understanding "The Salutation of the Dawn," by Frederick Stevenson, and "Love's Springtide," by Wilson G. Smith. Miss Edna Mitchell acting as accompanist. Mrs. C. A. Peterson sang beautifully "Why April Weeps," by R. Huntington Woodman, and "My Love Has Come to Me." Miss Viola Koch, piano; Mrs. A. P. Griggs, soprano, and Miss Gertrude Branigan, piano, represented the Davenport club. Miss Koch played brilliantly "Lotus Land," by Cyril Scott, and "Etude Japonaise," by Ed Poldini. Mrs. Griggs in good voice sang "Dear Love Lend Thine Aid," from "Samson and Delilah," by Saint Saens, and Miss Branigan closed the program with "Gondoliera," by Liszt. The program was especially good and each number was excellently given, exhibiting really splendid talent in the three cities. At the close of the program the ladies were served with light refreshments.

ROBERT MACDONALD SCORES SUCCESS.

Robert MacDonald of Davenport, instructor of piano in Augustana conservatory of music, scored a real success in a Pupilal recital given Sunday in the Chicago Art Institute. Wagner, bass, and Miss Lucille Stevenson, soprano, who sang the role of Kundry and Dr. William Carver Williams, bass, who took the part of Amfortas.

SUNSHINE CLASS HAS ENTERTAINMENT.

The Sunshine class of South Park Presbyterian church, taught by Miss Muriel Winter, last evening gave an entertainment in the church which was called "The Country Aunt's Visit." The girls were dressed as grown-ups in party dresses, and the story of the play hinged about the visit of an old aunt from the country at the time of a brilliant social gathering. The girls took their parts well and the play afforded the audience much amusement. A piano solo was given by Irma Rice, and Madorsa Lorling gave a vocal number. The girls sold bakery goods and fancy articles, ice cream and cake, and realized a nice sum.

BLUES ENTERTAIN REDS.

The bible class of the Edgewood Baptist church, taught by J. C. Steen, have during the last month been conducting an attendance contest, the class being divided into the red and blue sides. The contest closed last Sunday and the blues were the losers. Last evening at the home of Mr. Steen, 4318 Ninth avenue, the blues entertained the reds at a delightful social session. The house was decorated in red and this color was carried out wherever possible. An impromptu program was given and contests and games were played, with the prize going to Amos Martin. Musical numbers were given informally and the 40 guests enjoyed a delightful time. Dainty refreshments were served and the affair was much of a success.

The girls were invited to meet April 19 with Miss Clara Math in this city.

Not only have Berlin cafes been required to close at 1, but late night suburban trains and electric "owl cars" are to be abolished. At one fell swoop therefore the Berliner has lost his famous night life, as well as the means of getting home should he tarry in town in search of some trace of it, for in addition to reduced train and bus service the use of taxicabs has been ordered curtailed by two thirds so that tires, fuel and oil may be saved.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

This method is often followed by bashful men.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a young man for some time and have found that he is jealous if I go with someone else. Is it right for me to go with others since we are not engaged?

(2) What is a nice gift to give to a young man for his birthday?

(3) Shall I break keeping company with the first young man if I decide to go with another?

(4) What would be nice to serve at a birthday party?

(5) Is it better to send a present or give it personally?

DOLLY.

(1) Yes, go with others.

(2) Don't give anything. Wait until you are engaged.

(3) Not if he still wants to go with you and you still want to see him.

(4) Birthday cake and ice cream, or coffee, sandwiches and salad.

(5) Either way is all right.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young married woman and all of my husband's people dislike me very much. They get my husband out and tell him all sorts of things about me and even lie about me. In fact life is miserable for me. We have a little boy. It seems a terrible thing that a married man does not stick up for his wife no matter what his family says, don't you think so? As long as the wife is a good, respectable woman.

BROKEN-HEARTED SUE.

A woman has to be more than respectable to make a good wife. She must dress attractively, keep house well, be agreeable and sympathetic, and give her husband plenty of love. If she is all of these things she will be a good mother also. If you do your part I think you will have no trouble making his people like you, and I know that your husband will take your part.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Thompson: How can I inform a girl that I love her? I am terribly bashful and always seem to fall at the psychological moment. Please advise me what to do.

NORMAN.

You might try proposing by letter.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 20 and I have gone with a young man for five years, and he has at last thrown me down. Do you think it would be right for me to sue him for breach of promise? Do you think he will come back to me and love me as much as ever?

MILDRED.

I wouldn't sue him. You would gain notoriety and probably get nothing. Besides it would cost you a great deal. If he has dropped you I don't believe you will see anything more of him.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a boy of 17. My girl thinks she has something on me because I walked home from school with another girl. Now, Mrs. Thompson, I love my girl very much, but I am independent. She refuses to speak to me. What shall I do? WILLIAM.

The girl is very foolish not to speak to you, because she only shows that she likes you. If she were indifferent she would not bother about the other girl. Remain independent a little while longer and I am sure the girl will take some step to make up.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 20. I am greatly in love with a striking young man eight years my senior. He, like many others, has told me many nice things. He will soon leave town and begs me to go with him. Mrs. Thompson, I really love him and want to go very much, but there is one thing to stop, and that is he is not going to earn a very large salary. Shall I go? EVELYN.

No. Wait until he has a comfortable salary and enough money to support you easily. Two or three years' preparation for marriage may add a great deal to your happiness.

Musical Club Celebrates Anniversary of Organization

One of the most delightful affairs ever given by the Rock Island Musical club was held yesterday at the New Harper on the occasion of the celebration of the sixth anniversary of the club's organization. The affair took somewhat the nature of a frolic following a most enjoyable program given by Mrs. Maybelle Wagner Shank, soprano, of Des Moines, who sang with piano accompaniment by Miss Notovena Steck and the Edison diamond disk phonograph furnished by the J. Ramser house. At a short business session preceding the program Miss Katherine Gest, the club president, announced that Mr. Burton of the high school had asked the co-operation of the club in making the general assembly at the high school every Tuesday and Thursday a greater success by contributing musical numbers. The assembly lasts but 20 minutes and during the year it has been the practice to have some special speaker or entertainer each day. The club voted to assist as much as possible and members will volunteer their services from time to time. Miss Beryl Titterington, who is a member of the high school faculty was put in charge of this work.

Miss Gest in introducing the program spoke of the occasion for this celebration, the sixth anniversary of the giving of the first program by the club which was a Chopin memorial, participated in by a large number of the club members, and speaking somewhat of what has since been accomplished. Mrs. Shank then gave the program, singing four numbers with piano accompaniment: "Roberto Tu Chi Adora" by Mayerbeer; "Daddy's Sweetheart" by Lisa Lehman; "Nothin' But Love" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, and "I Want To Be a Soldier" by Lady Hill. With the accompaniment of the Edison she sang "Mon Coeur s'ouvre a La Voix" from "Samson and Delilah" by Saint Saens; a duet, "Adele" from the opera "Adele" by Phillips; a duet, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling" by Tate; "Bubbles" from "High Jinks" by Primi, and "In Time of Roses" was given as an encore number. Mrs. Shank has a magnificent large voice, full of music and she sings with much understanding of her numbers. She is very dramatic in her interpretations of the numbers, is lovely of face and makes a most pleasing appearance. The Edison machine was a very good quality and made a good setting to the voice of the singer.

The last number on the program was given by about twenty-five members of the club who rendered "Kinder Symphony" by Hardin. Miss Gest explained before the number that every composer has at least one composition into which he has woven some humor and various musical organizations have found it a good practice to occasionally weave into their programs some of this musical humor.

Each of those taking part in the program was provided with some instrument which they endeavored to play, as the drum, the horn, the whistling bird, the bells, etc., and with Miss Gest as director gave a really splendid number, playing the three movements.

The club members then enjoyed an informal social time and they were served with ice cream and cakes. Each member made herself a committee of one to see that every one else met every one else and the affair was most successful.

Sloan's Liniment will save hours of suffering. For bruise or sprain it gives instant relief. It arrests inflammation and thus prevents more serious troubles developing. No need to rub it in—it acts at once, instantly relieving the pain, however severe it may be.

Here's Proof

Charles Johnson, P. O. Box 108, Lauten's Station, N. Y., writes: "I sprained my ankle and dislocated my left hip by falling out of a third story window six months ago. I went on crutches for four months, then I started to use some of your Liniment, according to your directions, and I must say that it is helping me wonderfully. I threw my crutches away. Only used two bottles of your Liniment and now I am walking quite well with one cane. I never will be without Sloan's Liniment."

SOME PALATABLE PIES.

The Pie of Five—One large, juicy lemon, one cupful of sugar, one egg, one good-sized potato and one cupful of water. Grate the rind of the lemon and add the lemon juice and egg. Beat well. Grate the potato or put through food chopper. Stir well with the other ingredients and then add the water. Place in a double boiler or sauce pan and let thicken, and bake in two crusts.

Brown Sugar Pie—Two-thirds of a cupful of brown sugar, one tablespoonful of butter and two tablespoonfuls of milk. Cook until waxy looking then take the yolks of two eggs, one heaping tablespoonful of flour. Mix all together smooth, add to the above ingredients, cook until thick and add vanilla. Have a baked crust, use the whites beaten stiff for the top, and return to the oven for a minute or two.

Grape Fruit Pie—First bake a shell as for lemon pie, then make a filling as follows: Mix one tablespoonful of cornstarch in a little cold water and over this pour one cupful of boiling water. To this add the juice of two grape fruit, the grated rind and juice of one orange, the beaten yolks of two eggs, and the white of one and a small piece of butter. Put all in the double boiler and cook until thick, stirring all the time. When done, put in the shell. Now beat up the white of the second egg with one-half a cupful of sugar until thick, and spread with a knife over the pie. Put in the oven and let brown slightly. Serve cold. This makes a delicious pie.

Delicious Spice Pie—The yolks of three eggs, one and one-half cups of sugar, one cup of cream, two tablespoonfuls of flour, two thirds of a cup of butter, one teaspoonful of spice, cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg. Mix the flour and sugar together, then cream with the butter. Add the yolks of the eggs, beating thoroughly. Next add cream and spices. Use the whites for the frosting.

Molasses Pie—One heaping tablespoonful of grated carrot, one heaping tablespoonful of flour, one-half a cup of sugar, the yolks of two eggs, saving the whites for the top; a little dust of nutmeg, one cup of milk and a small piece of butter. Cook on top of the stove to fill the pie crust, then beat the white and brown in the oven.

Turnip Pie—Put two cups of mashed cooked turnips into a basin, add three-quarters of a cup of brown sugar, three well beaten eggs, two tablespoonfuls of molasses, one tablespoonful of melted butter, one tablespoonful of powdered ginger, one teaspoonful of powdered cinnamon, and one-quarter of a teaspoonful of salt. Mix and bake in one crust like a pumpkin pie.

Sweet Potato Pie—Bake the sweet potatoes and cut them in half-inch slices, put them in a pie plate on the lower crust, fill the plate and sprinkle with butter and sugar and a little water. Put on the upper crust and bake.

SCRAPS OF LACE.

Allover val lace makes excellent underwaists to wear with thin blouses. The edges of the underwaist are joined in a French seam overlaid with a lace tape on the right side. A sleeve of the lace reaches half way to the elbow and holds the shield. At the waist there is a lace heading wide enough to take an inch wide ribbon.

Exquisite accessories in the line of lingerie pillow covers bedspreads, workbags and title covers may be made from old embroidered underclothes, blouses and dresses. First cut a pattern of the pillow cover, bedspread of whatever is to be made. Then cut the good parts of the embroidery into pieces of whatever shapes they will allow, and tack them in some balanced and regular form on the pattern.

Join the pieces together with narrow insertion, or where a scalloped edge happens to come at the joining whip it to the next section. Use lace edging for the outside finish.

As delicate doilies are rarely washed or cleaned, this is an excellent use to which to put old embroideries that will not stand much laundering.

Koreans and Chinese.

While the Chinese do not care for alcoholic drinks, but are addicted to opium, the Koreans like strong drink and do not care for opium.
