WHEAT RECOVERS EARLY SETBACKS

Decline Caused by Submarine Activity on Atlantic Seaboard Followed by Rally Later.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Notwithstanding that on account of submarine operations and consequent selling rushes, wheat prices underwent a sensational setback today, the market soon recovered equilibrium. The steadying influence was greatly increased by crop damage reports from Argentina, together with a decided rise in prices at Liverpool.

Opening prices here, which ranged from 1c to 4½c lower, with December at 1.55 to 1.58 and May at 1.51½ to 1.56, were followed by rallies all around to within about 1½c under Saturday's finish.

Corn swayed with wheat. After opening ½c to 1½c lower, the market swung upward, but did not fully overcome the early losses.

Oats paralleled the action of other cereals. Demand expanded greatly on the decline.

In provisions the chief influence was the doings of the German war craft in American waters. Nearly all deliveries of pork, lard and ribs suffered a drop, January pork leading with a fall of 40c a barrel.
