Bather.—"Take me, gestures I am" says Croker. A pretty cool request. But not as cool as things kept in a refrigerator at Viett's New Restaurant—adv.

Entertainment for Saint Aloysius' Church.—Notwithstanding the cyclonic weather of Monday night, there was assembled at Society's Hall in our village a very appreciative audience to witness the rendition of a play entitled, "The Stolen Will." The well known dramatic talent of the parties engaged made a success a foregone conclusion and although the play was long the attention of the audience did not flag in the least. Without wishing to particularize we think that every one will admit that Chip Winkle bore of the palm. Great credit is due to those who came from a distance at serious inconvenience. The ladies at the tables labored heroically and aided by the generosity of the patrons of the entertainment the handsome sum of $222.96 was taken in. Allowing about $20 for expenses we will have $200 net proceeds.

Entertainment.—Bachelor's Rest, the residence of Mr. J. J. Alvey was the scene of another happy and brilliant assembly on Friday evening, the 18th instant. The occasion was a farewell reception and dance tendered Miss Gussie Reinicker, by Miss Page Alvey. Miss Reinicker left for her home, in Baltimore, Saturday. The promenade was led by Miss Gussie Reinicker and Warren Leach, and afterward to the enticing music of the St. Clement's Band Band, the guests enjoyed themselves in the mazes of the dreamy waltz, the pleasures of the quadrille or strolled along the lantern-lighted paths, under the starlit skies. At 12 o'clock the door of the banqueting room were thrown open and the guests were invited to partake of the many delicacies spread before them. After leaving the table dancing was resumed and the wee small hours had come before the guests dispersed. Among the many present were Miss Gussie Reinicker of Baltimore, Miss Page Alvey, Misses Emma, May and Blanche Graves, Maggie, May and Alice Raley, Mamie, Rose and Gussie Wathen, Pauline and Mamie Mattingly and Veva Leach. Messrs. Warren Leach, John Guy, Archie Alvey, Dr. Johnson, Benj. and Bernard Love, Leonard Graves, Clem Cawood, Bishop Mattingly, Raley Wathen, Daniel Drury, Peter Mattingly, Clarence Latham and Howard Mattingly.

Well Known in Texas. Mr. J. C. Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used, that relieved him at once. For sale by Wm. F. Greenwell & Son, Leonardtown, Md.

Lowtown Leads. (From our Regular Correspondent.) The current season is a lucrative one for professional cooks and musicians, as there are a number of Summer resorts in the district, all of which employ the best of the class mentioned, paying them maximum figures.

Sea-turtles are being caught daily by Captain Potter, of St. George's Island. One which was shipped from Miller's wharf recently weighed 500 lbs. Fish continue to be scarce, and fishing parties daily report not even so much of a bite. Crabs, hard and soft, are plentiful, the former 8 cents and the latter 25 cents per dozen.

Rev. Fr. Mulry has left us and Fr. Tynan officiates in his place. The Sunday school has been discontinued for a few weeks, owing to sickness and absence of teachers. Our doctors are kept tolerably busy just now attending bilious affected patients some of whom are quite sick. It is a delightful place down here at the St. George's Summer Resort. We take a walk along the shore of Calvert's Bay the banks of which are decorated with trees and shrubbery, and the clear water reflecting the same forms a new landscape. Wanton zephyrs fan with their ambrosial wings the sweets of beautiful flowers, and birds sweetly carol as they fly from bough to bough reminding us of former days—a joyful reality!

A little moisture is a wonderful reviver of nature, particularly after several weeks of warm, sultry, dry weather, grass which appeared almost lifeless presents an emerald like hue to the eye, and the all-cheering rays of the Sun, which for 2, time was obscured by dark, lowering clouds, now tints every thing with a golden like appearance beautifying beyond the power of pen or pencil to portray the surroundings far and near. The Zwer' Bier Club, after a pleasant trip to the district have returned to their respective homes, taking a large sea turtle with them, a present from Samuel L. Raleigh. The club is composed of the following gentlemen: George A. Appich, Charles L. Fisher, Harry W. Stanton, Carter H. Smith, John H. Fisher and Wm. Buckingham, Alexandria, Va., Charles E. Downs, Charles T. Wright, Wm. W. Snyder, Harry W. Elliott, George W. Levy and W. Behrem, Washington, D. C.

Had we Milton's imagination, forsooth, we could give you a lengthy communication. News really is scarce just now and Madam Gossip passes us by with contempt, and honors us not with her regards. We take a peep, however, before we close our eyes, neither brown nor black, are focused upon two forms, human of course. Aye, they are lovers united, so to speak by a sense of their mutual affection, enjoying sweet converse, etc. All is quiet along the Potomac now. Company B, 4th Battalion N. G. Washington, D. C., broke camp 27th instant, and returned to Washington by the Arrowsmith. During their encampment at Raleigh's Summer Resort, they enjoyed themselves in innocent amusement, such as playing ball, ordinary calisthenic exercises, Indian war dances, sham battles, scalping raids, etc. Both officers and privates demanded themselves courteously towards boarders and visitors. Mr. Raleigh did all within his power to make their week's sojourn pleasant, and words only of the highest praise was accorded him for his kind treatment. As they crossed Calvert's creek at 4:30 a. m., on their way to Miller's wharf three hearty cheers were given Mr. R. which was appropriately acknowledged.

Localwise and Otherwise. Republican primaries are called for Saturday next, September 2, 1893. Mrs. J. Roland Duke is visiting the family of Mr. John F. Duke, this district. Miss Nannie Floyd, of Baltimore, is on a visit to her St. Mary's relatives and friends. Horace Durant, Esq., of the Washington bar, is visiting his St. Mary's relatives and friends. Misses Edith Clemons and Agnes Ploveden have been visiting Miss Addie Gough, of Medley's Neck. Mrs. Welch and child, of Hyattsville, have been on a visit to the family of Hon. Robt. C. Combs. Mr. George F. Abell, of the 8th district, won the first prize at the recent Drum Point Tournament. Mr. Warren Leach, of Leonardtown, won an honor at the Hughesville Tournament and crowned Miss Etta Parsons. His many friends will be pleased to hear that Mr. George P. Loker, of Leonardtown, is convalescing and will soon be out again. Harry Spalding, Esq., of the Baltimore bar is on a visit to St. Mary's. We were much pleased to see him in town Tuesday last. Mr. Charles N. Raley, S. J., will teach at Georgetown College this year. Mr. Raley is now on a visit to his parents at "The Branch," this district. It is reported here that great damage was done to shipping on the Chesapeake and Potomac during the recent storm. On the Potomac, it is said many vessels were driven ashore and some were capsized.

September 11, 1893, is the date fixed for an entertainment at Charlotte Hall for the benefit of the Dent Memorial Chapel. It will be well worth attending and all who go will thoroughly enjoy themselves. We thank our friends of the Crescent for their many statements in their recent issue. We assume no right to judge our Charles county brothers and we are much gratified by the Crescent's statement putting us right with them. The blow of Monday last caused an unusually high tide and much cordwood along the shore was washed away. Several trees in the village were broken off. We have not yet heard of any serious damage in the county. Friday evening, of last week, the Bryanton Baseball club beat the Leonardtown boys by a score of 13 to 7. Leonardtown was not in it at any stage of the game. If our boys would practice a little they would speedily retrieve their reputation as baseballists.

The number of grains of corn and of melon seed in the "guessing jar" was 2972. Mr. Paul Hayden won the first prize, guessing 2979. Among other guesses were: Miss Mollie Holmes, 2965; Ruth Casmiller, 2915; Harry Jones, 2963; Harry Spalding, 2928; Lillian Johnson, 2900. Mrs. F. M. Dyer and the other performers in the drama of Monday night last are to be congratulated upon the great success which crowned their efforts. Though no longer members of this parish Mrs. Dyer, Mrs. Waters and her brother, Mr. Raley are ever willing to do all in their power to help us along.

OF Interest to Mothers. The success of Mrs. Anne M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johns-town, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Wm. F. Greenwell & Son, Leonardtown, Md.
