WILSON'S RECORD ENTITLES HIM TO RETAIN POSITION

Henry W. Huttmann, Candidate for Lieutenant Governor, Says Peace and Prosperity Depend on Him.

GIVES ADDRESS AT TURNER HALL

Quotes Statistics to Show That Wages Are 10 Per Cent Higher Than Four Years Ago.

That it would be extremely dangerous to [illegible] at this time that would [illegible] the present remarkable peace and prosperity which the United States is enjoying under the Wilson administration and that Lincoln's [illegible] made at the time of the civil war to the effect that it is bad practice to swap horses while crossing a stream, were points which were emphasized by Henry W. Huttmann, democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, in an address last evening at [illegible] Turner hall before a large and enthusiastic audience.

Mr. Huttmann especially pointed out that the United States is selling war munitions to the European countries [illegible] a world war was [illegible] following out a principle which was adopted by the Hague tribunal and [illegible] that if Charles Evans Hughes was elected president he could not stop it.

Wilson Tried Leader.

F. B. [illegible], presented by County Chairman [illegible], introduced the distinguished lawyer from Chicago. He referred to the fact that in every [illegible] which the nation had faced, [illegible] a leader strong and [illegible] enough to face the situation had been produced by Providence. In the days of the revolution it was Washington, during the last days of the rebellion it was Lincoln, and now when the European powers are jumping at each other's throats it is Woodrow Wilson to whom the people of this great neutral nation are looking for guidance.

In presenting Mr. Huttmann to the audience, Mr. [illegible] referred to the years [illegible] the speaker had served on the board of education in the [illegible] and also that he was prominently mentioned as successor to the late Judge Peter Grosscup on the United States circuit bench.

HITS BY HUTTMANN

The Hague tribunal fixed the principle of selling munitions to belligerent nations. The sale of war material to the fighting nations by the United States cannot be stopped. Hughes, if elected, would be powerless to alter the situation.

The Wilson administration was the first one to officially endorse the idea that human labor stands above wealth.

The democratic party has proven it is not a negative party but a constructive one. More progressive and remedial legislation has been passed during the incumbency of Woodrow Wilson than in the five preceding administrations.

The United States is at peace. Hughes says he will radically change our foreign policy. What change does he want? The only change from peace is war. It is dangerous to trifle with our present peace and prosperity.

The result of your vote may change the blessings of peace to the horrors of war and our present prosperity to penury and starvation.

Don't be fooled by false issues. If you want the good times to continue, if you desire the factories to keep running, if you are anxious that every man who is willing to work has a job, then support the present national administration and continue it in power.

Shows Real Prosperity.

The speaker showed that the democratic party had faithfully kept all of the promises made in 1912 and used some statistics to back up his statements. The bank deposits in the United States May 1 last totaled $26,[illegible] and on May 1, 1912, were only $19,[illegible], a gain of $6,[illegible]. Value of manufactured articles jumped in the same period from $20,[illegible] to $[illegible], a gain of 43 per cent. Building permits, in [illegible] was dependent upon the war situation, in 142 cities of the country for the first six months of this year represented an expenditure of $[illegible]. The greatest [illegible] the [illegible] under democratic rule was [illegible]. [illegible] the annual value of farm products under democratic rule was $7,[illegible], under [illegible] and under Wilson [illegible]. Better prices are being now paid for farm produce than ever before. Wages are [illegible] per cent higher than in 1912 and [illegible] per cent more [illegible] at the beginning of the Wilson administration.

Important Laws Passed.

Important laws which had been passed under Wilson were mentioned. He first took up the federal reserve law, which makes money panics, by preventing the hoarding of the nation's wealth in New York [illegible] and distributing it in regional banks throughout the country.

"The [illegible] [illegible] of Wall street gangsters can no longer cause panics when elections do not suit it," he declared. "The funds of the government are placed in the various institutions designated and the throttling of the money market is no [illegible] possible under the new law."

The child labor law, the income tax law, inheritance tax and tax on munitions, were mentioned, the three latter shifting the burdens of taxation from the shoulders of those least able to pay the expenses of running the government to those best able to pay.

Germany's remarkable resources in the face of overwhelming odds were declared to be due to the farm bank system which has been in operation there since 1890, by which tenants were able to borrow money at a very low rate of interest. This has enabled the tenants to become land owners. The farmers of Germany are feeding that nation. This same law has been imported by Wilson to this country in the form of the rural credits law, under which farmers can arrange for credit at the banks on their land even as the city merchant secures it on his stock of goods. The work is handled by a non-partisan commission and Mr. Huttmann characterized it the biggest work of the present administration.

Boosts State Ticket.

In closing he discussed the state ticket and said that Governor Dunne's record is such that he is entitled to support regardless of partisan politics. He reviewed the laws which have been passed and especially referred to the public utilities law, which takes the graft out of the handling of public utility franchises and the reforms which have been accomplished in the state institutions of charity and correction.

Because of his fairness and the logic of his well prepared arguments, Mr. Huttmann deeply impressed his hearers. He is a calm, thoughtful, intelligent speaker who cuts out the oratorical tricks of the old fashioned and shallow campaigner of other days. He was often enthusiastically applauded during his address and after the rally was over those present were given an opportunity to meet the speaker. He is in Freeport today.

ROUSING SUIT SALE AT M. & K.

Due to Late Delivery by Leading New York Manufacturers Who Were Handicapped Earlier by the Scarcity of Materials.

Women's and Misses' Fine Suits On Sale at Prices Hardly to Be Expected So Early in the Season.

Announcement of a suit sale at this time will be received with genuine interest by women of the tri-cities who have set their hearts on having something new, particularly those who are looking for suits of the highest character.

The unsettled condition of the market, the inability of the woolen mills to supply the manufacturers with materials and the consequent inability of the makers to fill orders as early as expected accounts for this extraordinary sale. On their eastern purchasing trips M. & K. buyers foresaw the situation, the scarcity of materials as well as the immense demand for merchandise, and placed orders accordingly.

The M. & K. big assortment is the talk of the women of Davenport, Rock Island and Moline and they are equally astounded at the wonderful values.

Big Offerings.

A great many fine suits, which the makers could not possibly get out in time for fall openings, have come and, though it is the time women are just beginning to plan on buying their fall suits, M. & K. are going to give their customers the advantage of the special concessions the makers allowed them for not delivering the suits as early as they promised.

It is the M. & K. way of adding more friends and increasing the popularity of the ladies' department which has more than tripled its business in the last year.

There are handsome, distinctive styles in suits in all the latest materials such as imported velours, broadcloth, poiret twill, gaberdine, etc., and the new velvet suits that are finding such favor with Dame Fashion. They come in all the new shades of Burgundy, plum, brown, blue, black and green and in models becoming to all types. Included in the sale are handsome suits of panne velvet and suits of such exclusive materials yet very modest in price.

You can choose from an extraordinary array of fine suits made to sell at $45, $50 and even more at $39.50 and suits intended to sell at $29.50 and $42.50 in the sale at $35, also a splendid lot of women's and misses' suits made to sell at $29.50 and $32.50 are priced at $25 and there is a great assortment of suits special priced at $16.95, $19.95 and $22.50.

Furthermore there are sizes to fit all. Regular sizes for women, misses and juniors and extra sizes in complete range.

This is the suit opportunity of the season and to miss it will be to regret it.

While the M. & K. has the largest and most experienced force of salespeople in the tri-cities it will be impossible to give all the attention customary. You are advised to make your selection in the morning if possible. Every effort will be made to take care of all who come and in every case the selection of the proper style and size as well as a perfect fit will be strictly adhered to as it is the M. & K. rule that no garment leaves the store unless perfectly fitted.

By making your selection in the morning you will greatly assist the M. & K. in rendering the accustomed service. The sooner you take advantage of the sale the better.

The great membership campaign to secure new members for the local Young Men's Christian association is in full blast. Four hundred and forty-eight new members and renewals have been added to the rolls during the past three days and prospects are that the campaign's total will reach a figure higher than the loftiest hopes of the most optimistic. One hundred and ninety members were secured yesterday and when the announcement was made last night that from this time forth the restrictions on assignment cards were off and the workers may solicit memberships from any source, great enthusiasm prevailed, and at least double that number are expected tonight, when the workers will meet as usual and give their reports at the supper at 5:30 o'clock sharp.

J. H. Hill, the leader of division A, carried off all the honors last night, his men bringing in 81 members and capturing the division flag. The high team in division A was the Saxon, led by James F. Witter, who reported 45 members. Other members winning teams were: Chalmers, [illegible] captain; Buick, T. B. McKown, captain; Stevens Six, L. H. Ewing; Studebaker, F. T. Eastland, captain.

When the reports were in last evening it was learned that the Moline campaign had secured for the day 232 members, bringing their total for the three days up to 576. This is a little more than a hundred over Rock Island, but a determination has settled down on the Rock Island workers and it is expected that this gain will be made up today. Public-spirited citizens of Rock Island are becoming more and more interested in this great movement.

Many of Rock Island's wealthy citizens who are not able to use the privileges personally are placing in this organization a number of worthy boys whose names are supplied by workers and by the secretarial force. In this community there are several hundred such boys, and it is the purpose that these boys may be reached by the great organization.

Bank Helps.

The Central Trust & Savings bank makes the following offer to the Y. M. C. A. campaign now being conducted in the city of Rock Island. Said offer was made yesterday and holds good until the close of the campaign. The offer is as follows:

The bank offers to pay $1 to apply on any boy's membership who will open a new account of $3 or more in the savings department of the bank. This offer comes as a part of the nation-wide thrift campaign.

ONLY 38 SEEKING TO BE CITIZENS

Naturalization Class for January Session of Circuit Court Is Smallest in Many Years.

List of applicants for citizenship papers to be acted on at the January term of circuit court totals but 38. According to Circuit Clerk George W. GIVES REPORT ON 4TH CELEBRATION

Secretary Mitchell Announces That Association Has Substantial Balance for Next Observance.

Robert C. Mitchell, secretary of the Independence Day Association of Rock Island, today issued a financial report for that organization. The report shows a balance of $104.82 on hand after all disbursements had been taken care of. The association will start early next year to arrange for its second celebration, similar to the one held last Fourth of July at Long View park. Out of the balance on hand a handsome flag was purchased and presented to Long View park by the association. The report in detail follows, the figures in the left indicating the number of people who contributed, the center column the amount contributed by each person and the third column the total amount received.

Women's New Suits at $25 to $35

A Collection of Which We Are Justly Proud

There's a great deal of satisfaction in pleasing people—in agreeably surprising them. Take, for example, the woman who purchases a suit at $25.00 to $35.00 which has the distinction and style and set of a much higher priced model—she leaves in such a glow of satisfaction that we know she'll come again and send her friends and family too.

These suits slip on and fit into place with the ease characteristic of fine designing and good tailoring, and in cut and cloth they are second to none. Plenty of the larger sizes, too—many of the styles run as large as 51 bust.

There are plain, simple-tailored suits for women who have separate furs; there are others with great broad collars trimmed with fur and velvet that fit up around the neck in a snug muffler style when desired. Broadcloth, gabardine, velour, whip cord and men's wear serge from which to choose; black, navy, the new browns and greens, plum and burgundy are in the collection at $25 to $35.

The Autumn Dresses

A Most Pleasing Collection at $12.75 to $22.50

Long straight lines; little surplice effects that swing around in graceful sashes; new long tunics that are unusual in cut or trimmings; new ideas in belts that make the figure charmingly youthful; new collars that are lovely—all the newest notes of the season shown in these.

Chiefly of serge, taffeta and satin—many in combination of serge and silk including many exquisite georgette combinations. Black and all the better colors.

Smart Frocks of Silk Poplin at $6.95

Charming little afternoon dresses of splendid silk poplin made in one of the most becoming styles we have seen—white organdy collar and cuffs, colors are navy, brown, myrtle, [illegible]. All sizes but not a great many in this lot at $6.95.

Women's Dress Skirts in Handsome Models Have Just Arrived

Of fine wool jersey, of richly colored wool plaids, of bright Roman stripe and Scotch plaid taffetas, of [illegible] satins. Some have trimmings of the fashionable new furs, with rows of buttons, patch pockets and all the late fashion touches.

Truly a remarkable collection—Priced $[illegible] to $[illegible].

Plain Color Silks Hold Their Own With Novelties

The distinctive novelty silks, which have been brought out this season in nowise lessen the demand for, or the popularity of, the lovely plain color silks now here in such profusion.

Many women have a decided preference for the more conservative weaves, or use them in combination with striking plaids and stripes.

Chiffon Taffetas, Satin Etoile, Satin Charmeuse, Satin Messaline, Crepe de Chine, Georgette Crepe, Panne Satin, Silk Poplin, Gros de Londre—these head the list.

And each is here in splendid range of shades and colors. Widths 36 to 40 inches, prices $1.19 to $1.98.

Costume Velveteens From England

There is no telling when we shall be able to get more of these beautiful costume velveteens from Manchester, England, as they are very scarce and difficult to get.

All the wanted colors are here now aplenty — dark brown greens, navy, plum, burgundy and black.

Two qualities, per yard $1.00 and $1.50.

New Winter Styles in "Beacon" Bath Robings

Heavy, warm, fleecy robings in all the bright Indian colorings that you see in the Navajo Indian blankets. Reversible, with the bright colors on one side—the other in modest patterns of gray, medium blue, navy and brown.

"Give the Kiddies a Chance"

Just arrived—the new Premier Athletic waists for boys and girls.

These waists give plenty of freedom for exercise and play, and keep the shoulders straight.

All sizes, 2 to 14 years, each 25c.

LIEBKNECHT TRIAL IS NOT SANCTIONED

Berlin, Oct. 14.—The reichstag committee today refused to sanction the new proceedings of the court martial at Thorn against Dr. Karl Liebknecht. The committee also recommended that the reichstag demand to see the report of the proceedings before the Berlin court martial before finally sanctioning the sentence imposed by that body on the socialist leader.

In the case of the socialist deputy, Otto Ruehle, the committee refused permission for the continuation of the libel action brought against the deputy on behalf of General von Bissing, governor of Belgium and his staff.

Dr. Liebknecht is at present under sentence of four years and one month imprisonment imposed by the court martial at Berlin for "military treason." Pending his appeal from this sentence a court martial at Thorn commenced action against him charging that he attempted to incite the soldiers of the Thorn garrison to disobedience and rebellion through letters he sent them.

No previous information has been received of the action against Deputy Ruehle. Herr Ruehle was a follower of Dr. Liebknecht.
