ALEDO AT A GLANCE

Daily Doings in Mercer County's Busy Capital

OBITUARY.

W. B. Cook, who died of injuries received in an automobile accident, was born in Rural township, Rock Island county, Nov. 26, 1867. His boyhood was spent at the home of his parents, James and Narcissa Cook, and his education was received in the country schools of his home district. On Sept. 3, 1890, he was married to Alexiana Petrie, who with a son John, survive. A daughter, Catherine, died in infancy. In 1902 the family moved to Mercer county and since that time have lived on the Graham Lee homestead, Mr. Cook giving his place the name of Leewood, in honor of his former owner. The funeral services were held from the home yesterday at 1:30 Rev. G. L. Carr officiating. Interment was in the Hamlin cemetery, the Aledo Masonic lodge conducting the services at the grave.

Fined for Disturbance.

In the case of Murdock vs. Howard, in which the plaintiff, Leslie Murdock, charged Charles Howard, a neighbor, with disturbing the peace, a trial by jury was held before Justice Emerson yesterday. The trial lasted for about five hours, the case being hotly contested by both State's Attorney Wilson for the plaintiff and Attorney Dixon for the defendant. The friends overheard a few days ago in the neighborhood in which the two principals of the suit reside, near Jay, in Duncan township, Howard testified that he is one of six sons. Maynard, and a few days previous to the occurrence of the trouble came to him and told him that Murdock had attempted to pummel him as he was returning home from school. The boy also said that Murdock had on the same time stated that he would like to get hold of his father. It was while such words were bandied a neighbor in anything corn that the trouble occurred, Howard had, according to the corroborated testimony of a number of witnesses, upon seeing Murdock riding in a wagon about 80 rods away distant, ran over to the wagon and immediately began to curse him calling him to get down from the wagon and settle the dispute. When Murdock refused to comply with this demand Howard called him a coward. Murdock soon after had a warrant issued for Howard's arrest. The jury, after a few moments deliberation returned a verdict awarding a fine of $1 and costs against the defendant, amounting in all to $1500.

Two New Prisoners.

Sheriff Linrall went to Rock Island Thursday and brought back with him Cecil C. Tyler of Davenport, a fugitive, who has been wanted since last week on a charge of swindling. One day during last week, while intoxicated it is alleged he was driving about the streets here in a reckless fashion. He was confronted by the police a number of times and when one of them at last attempted to jump upon the car he was pushed off and Tyler sped to Davenport. Tyler will be taken before Judge Dunn in county court soon. Charles Cameron, a Bird land, working north of Kithanburg, was yesterday brought to Aledo by Deputy Sheriff Grover and lodged in county jail. Young Cameron is charged with burglary by Elmer Wolff, a farmer of the vicinity in which Cameron was working. Mr. Wolff claims that on Oct. 7 some one broke into his house and stole a sum of money, amounting to between $75 and $100. Mr. Wolff says that from all circumstantial evidence young Cameron committed the offense.

Tabernacle Enlarged.

A large crew of workmen yesterday completed the enlargement of the New-lin tabernacle. It is hoped that this additional seating room will do away with any necessity of turning away people from the meetings, as has been the case in a number of instances in the past.

Big Sale at Hand.

Three big sales of hogs will soon be held in the Warnock pavilion of this city. Different types of swine are to be disposed of. On Oct. 18 J. M. Nesbitt & Son will sell 50 head of large type Poland China. On Oct. 20 Frank E. Sherer of Joy will conduct his annual boar and gilt sale of pure bred Chester White swine. Oct. 24 Ira H. Dodson & Son and D. Bjerrow & Son will hold a combination sale of Duroc Jersey boars.

SAYS HE DOESN'T REMEMBER FIGHT

Man Wounded on Head When He Tries to Escape From Police Station Here Acts Insanely.

WIFE TELLS TALE OF TUSSLE

Says Husband Plunged Knife in Body of Roomer a Number of Times and Then Disappeared.

James Lynn, his head bandaged on account of the wound he received Thursday when he tried to escape from the Rock Island police station, wept and wailed in high falsetto voice in the Davenport police court yesterday. He is charged with assault with intent to commit great bodily injury by stabbing Ad LaMont, formerly a roomer in his home at 2221½ West Second street, last Saturday night.

Lynn acted in the approved insane style. There is some question in the minds of the authorities, however, as to his sanity. They claim that every time he is arrested he acts in the same manner. When he is released he immediately becomes perfectly sane again and creates some other disturbance that ultimately lands him in jail.

Lynn's chief complaint was with his head. He declared between moans there was something boring a hole into the top of his head. He begged his wife, who appeared against him, to call a physician for him. All attempts to calm him were unavailing.

According to Mrs. Lynn, her husband has been apparently insane since last May. At that time, she said, he was complained of pains in the top of his head. He has spoked and beaten her several times. At each arrest he denied remembering anything of the trouble.

This was his defense. He declared that he did not remember stabbing LaMont. He said that on Saturday night he drank a little beer with his wife and then started on a spree. The next thing he remembers Lynn claims, he was in the Scott county jail.

Mrs. Lynn told a thrilling tale of the affair Saturday night. She said Lynn had stabbed LaMont several times with a meat knife, she said, and was the man carrying his arm and upon the latter's face was blood. Until he was arrested, Thursday, in Rock Island Lynn threatened he had killed the young man.

Threatened to Kill Her.

Mrs. Lynn said she received and written her letters in which he threatened to kill her and LaMont, and then commit suicide at her doorstep. She was requested to show these letters to the police. If they are produced, Lynn probably will be charged with assault with intent to kill.

The Lynns lived in a room here, in a room room Bloomington, where the couple claim that she had her husband before the disability began. He was not confined at his working place. He will be held in the county jail for a few days while psychiatrists watch him. If he is found insane it is probable that he will be sent to an asylum in a short time.

NEW YORKER SENT TO PARIS PRISON

Sentenced for Five Years for Trading With Enemy—Case Placed Before State Department.

Paris, Oct. 14.—William Chester Silbermann of New York has been sentenced by the correctional court to five years in prison and 500 francs fine on a charge of trading with the enemy.

Silbermann, according to the prosecution, came to Paris armed with papers describing himself as the representative of the Knight Rubber company. On the strength of these papers he obtained several important orders. He was finally denounced by a Serbian, who had known him in New York, and who said he was acting for Gottwik, Scheffer & Co., New York, a firm with German affiliations.

New York, Oct. 14.—According to Paul Gottwik of Gottwik, Scheffer & Co., local dealers in drug sundries, William Chester Silbermann represented in Paris the King Rubber company of Hyde Park, Mass. Mr. Gottwik's firm is the New York agent for the King company.

Both the King company and Silbermann's sister, a resident of New York, have placed Silbermann's plight before the state department at Washington, according to Mr. Gottwik.

GOVERNMENT TO BUY ALL UNUSED STAMPS

The government will redeem all unused documentary and proprietary war tax stamps, according to word received today by Deputy Revenue Collector T. T. Cavanaugh of D. M. Cole of Peoria collector. Returns Mr. Cavanaugh has instructed to purchase back all of the stamps. The war tax act was repealed effective Sept. 8 and since that time Mr. Cavanaugh has had more than 500 calls from persons asking if the government intends redeeming the stamps. People possessing them are urged to redeem them from the place where they were bought. Many purchased stamps direct from the local revenue office and should redeem them there. Others purchased them from banks and should sell them back at the banks, the latter in turn disposing of them at the revenue office here.

BISHOP DUNNE TO BE PRESENT ST. JOSEPH'S

Catholic church circles will be delighted to learn that Right Rev. Edmund M. Dunne, bishop of the Peoria diocese, who was so badly injured in an automobile accident at Princeville, Ill., is sufficiently recovered to officiate at the confirmation ceremony at St. Josephs Catholic church tomorrow and which had been postponed two weeks pending his recovery, mass will be celebrated at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. On his arrival of the bishop necessitating the change from the usual hour. Quite a large number is to be confirmed and the services attendant are unusually beautiful. A cordial welcome is extended non-Catholics to be present. The late mass choir will sing, acknowledged the finest singing body in the Peoria diocese.
