BULL MOOSE PUT TICKET IN FIELD

Split in Republican Ranks Indicated by Nominating Candidates for Congress and General Assembly.

THREE CORNERED FIGHT IS ON

Cloyd L. Kaufman Throws His Hat in Ring Against W. J. Graham—Also Have Nominee for State Board.

Contrary to general expectations the progressives will have [illegible] for congress and member of the state board of equalization in the Fourteenth congressional district and for member of the general assembly in the Thirty-third senatorial district.

County Clerk H. B. Hubbard was somewhat surprised this morning when he received a certified list of nominees to be voted on at the election Nov. 7, showing that the bull moose did not have a blank ballot as anticipated but have nominees for the offices mentioned.

Cloyd L. Kaufman is the congressional candidate, [illegible] is candidate for member of state board of equalization and Charles Ogren for member of the general assembly. This will make a three cornered fight for congressman and [illegible] a split in the republican ranks. Clyde H. Tavenner, democrat, seeking reelection, and W. J. Graham, Aledo, republican, are the others in the race.

A similar contest is on for the place on state board of equalization, John Day of this city being the democratic nominee seeking reelection and F. W. Young also of this city, the republican choice. Mr. Young recently won a bitter election contest brought by Charles A. Samuelson, Sherrard.

Fight For Representative.

Frank E. Abney, Biggsville, and J. S. Waite, Aledo, republican candidates for the legislature may not have such easy sailing either. Entrance of Charles Ogren into the campaign makes a contest. W. C. Maucker, democrat, and candidate for reelection, has proven such a capable official that his reelection is conceded.

[illegible] interest of the Illinois centennial. Her remarks were but a preliminary to the address given by Mrs. Jessie Palmer Weber, secretary of the Illinois Centennial commission, whom she introduced.

Mrs. Weber spoke at some length of the history of the state of Illinois and especially of the great historical interest in the immediate vicinity of Rock Island. [illegible]

[illegible]

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Austin, Texas, in speaking before the federation yesterday considered three needs that tend towards the growth of an organization such as was represented at the meeting. [illegible] On the walls of every club house and club room should be three words, Investigate, eliminate, concentrate and these should be kept before the eyes of every club woman at all times, she must study before she acts to bring about the best good." Mrs. Pennybacker spoke of the great democracy of club life which draws all classes of women together regardless of stations in life. She urged the working together of men and women and children with a continuity of thought and effort. She urged the cultivation of sanity, the ability to look on all sides of a question, to weigh it carefully and to have that redeeming quality, a sense of humor, which is a saving quality and makes club life infinitely less dangerous. She urged loyalty to sex, loyalty that will not permit one woman to say a harsh thing about another. She asked that all women learn to be true to small duties, to do those small things that are part of her life with the same willingness that she undertakes the larger things of life. She spoke at some length on the responsibility that club women should feel in their own club—the responsibility that every delegate especially should feel towards the meeting in which she sits and that club which she represents. In closing Mrs. Pennybacker paid a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Josiah Cowles of Los Angeles, Cal., who succeeded her as president of the National Federation of Women's clubs, and asked the cooperation of club women in her behalf, and in a closing prayer that God would give to all women the power to see truth, [illegible]

Mrs. W. O. Ogleves, following the call to order with Mrs. Jennie Morgan of Aledo, president of the district federation, in the chair, [illegible] Mrs. T. B. Davis, president of the Rock Island Woman's club, extended, in her charming manner, the welcome of Rock Island to the guests, Mrs. J. H. Fahey of Monmouth, ex-president of the district, responding in a fitting and beautiful way.

[illegible]

Reports of district officers, county presidents and chairmen of the district occupied the remainder of the afternoon session until the supper hour. Mrs. Morgan told of the work that has been accomplished in her office as president, Mrs. Abram Kaufman of Bushnell as vice president, Mrs. H. C. Hiett of Keithsburg, as recording secretary, Mrs. F. O. Van Galder of Rock Island as corresponding secretary, the report of Mrs. E. S. Smithson of Galesburg as treasurer being put over till a later time.

Mrs. H. W. Ward of Rock Island urged the more careful study of art in clubs. Mrs. W. M. West of Bushnell spoke of the necessity of unity in civics and philanthropic work. [illegible]
