SOCIAL EVENTS

OLYMPIC CLUB DANCE.

The opening dance of the Moline Olympic club will be held tomorrow evening in Turner hall, Moline. These were given weekly last year and proved great successes and the club has decided to hold them again this year. The affair tomorrow evening will be in the nature of a Hallowe'en ball.

SURPRISED ON ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. August Geiger, 2109 Fourth avenue, were delightfully surprised by a company of 43 friends and relatives who came to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. The evening was passed with cards as a diversion. A purse of silver was presented Mr. and Mrs. Geiger as a fitting remembrance, Joseph Geiger making the presentation. A lunch, which the self-invited guests brought, was served late in the evening.

LADIES TO SERVE SUPPER.

The Ladies' Sewing society of the Cleland Presbyterian church will hold a supper in the church tomorrow evening. The hours are from 5 to 8. A lunch will be served in the afternoon also, and fancy articles will be on sale.

MISS BRUCHMANN BRIDE OF ARTHUR RUSS.

Miss Elizabeth Bruchmann, daughter of Fred Bruchmann of Thirty-eighth street, and Arthur Russ, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Russ, 2008 Twelfth avenue, were quietly married at 8 o'clock this morning at the parsonage of the South Park Presbyterian church, Rev. W. O. Carleton performing the ceremony. Miss Maude Carlson of Moline attended the bride, and Henry Bruchmann, brother of the bride, was groomsman. The bride wore her traveling suit of blue Georgette waist of flesh color and a black hat. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Miss Carlson also wore a blue tailored suit. After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Russ, with covers for the bridal party. The happy couple left on a morning train for a honeymoon trip to Chicago and on their return will reside in a pretty new bungalow which is being built by the groom at Thirty-second street and Fourteenth avenue. At home cards are after Nov. 15. The bride has been connected with the office of the J. H. P. Petersen store in Davenport for a number of years. Mr. Russ is a builder and contractor. Both enjoy a wide acquaintance and receives the best wishes from a host of friends on their return.

CARD PARTY.

Black Hawk Court No. 525, Court of Honor, will hold a card party in Modern hall Thursday evening. Five pinochle games will be played.

SEW FOR BAZAAR.

A large number of the ladies of the Aid society of the Barbara Fritchie tent met at Milan yesterday for the meeting morning and the positive sale. A jolly good time resulted from the efforts, the passing being held at the home of Mrs. Viola Creasey. Assisting the ladies were Mrs. Maybee Helsse and Mrs. Minnie Cannon. The ladies worked on articles for their bazaar which is intending to present plans, they will hold next the month of November. It was also decided to hold sewing meetings from now until the bazaar in order to complete articles for sale at that time. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jennie McAfee, 1609 Eighteenth street, next Thursday.

Hundreds of Fine Suits Included In The M. & K. Sale

Complete Stock of Women's Suits is Now Placed on Sale, Making it an Event of Irresistible Interest.

Closely following the great sale of suits which has held sway at M. & K. during the last week and which has proven to be an object of wonderment to women of the tri-cities and adjacent towns, comes a second remarkable offering—a sale of the M. & K. entire stock of fine suits.

Can you imagine anything more inviting to womankind than a sale of the very finest suits to be found in the tri-cities and at this early stage of the season?

Every suit is absolutely new—many of them just unpacked—perfectly tailored and in excellent style with all the clever adaptions found in suits of the exceptional quality and tailored elegance featured by M. & K.

It is truly an unusual assemblage of beautiful suits and you have but to see them to realize that they are supreme values. When market conditions are taken into consideration this sale is what may rightly be termed sensational.

Greatest Collection of Suits Gathered Under One Roof.

Broadcloths of excellent quality, Serges of various kinds, Imported velour—the rage of the season—Gaberdine, Poiret Twill and handsome velvets as well as kitten's ear cloth are some of the various fabrics of which these suits are fashioned and practically every one is fur trimmed. There are countless styles and scores of effects so that a suit to please every individual taste and every type of woman may be found.

Both women's and misses' styles are included in this great collection of suits to be sacrificed and suits for every size of women and girls make up the enormous stock.

The colors are also a feature for this is a season of new and unusual shades such as Burgundy, Russian Green, autumn shade of brown, mustard, bottle green, Chestnut and rich shades of red.

Savings Up to 50% or More.

Never were such supreme values offered at the following extraordinary special prices:

Suits made to sell to $39.50 and even more on sale at $25.00
Suits made to sell to $45.00 and even more on sale at $29.50
Suits made to sell to $55.00 and even more on sale at $35.00
Suits made to sell to $75.00 and even more on sale at $39.50

Nor will you ever find a finer lot of suits than the great assortment that M. & K. is offering at $14.95, $16.95, $19.95 and $22.50.

You have undoubtedly been looking forward to such a sale and now is your opportunity.

STUDENT RECITAL.

The first student recital of the present second year to be held in the Augustana Conservatory of Music, will occur Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The program will be given as follows:

Gallopade ..... Marion Hellstrom
Martha Quadrille
Chopin Preludes G major and B minor
Chopin ..... Jerome
Ruth Carlsson
Schumann ..... Lotus Flower
Marzurka ..... Staple
Grieg ..... The Old Mother
Olga Eilert
Chopin ..... Humoresque
Lawrence Lundberg
Mozart ..... Concerto D major
First Movement
Cadenza by Joachim
Hubbah Peterson

LADY FORESTERS ENTERTAIN

The tables and card party of the Lady Foresters at St. Mary's Court will take place this afternoon and evening, and degree work in the afternoon and table work is a feature of this evening.

DEGREE STAFF DANCE.

The degree staff of Lodge 1687, will hold a dance in Turner Bowlers hall this evening. Strauss's orchestra will furnish the music.

GUILD COFFEE.

The Women's guild of the South Park Presbyterian church will hold its regular monthly coffee tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. C. Helgelson, 1408 Third street.

THREE G CLUB.

Mrs. Earl Cameron, 1420 Eighteenth avenue, was hostess to the Three G club members at its October meeting Tuesday. The ladies chatted over their fancy work. After enjoying the delicious two-course lunch served by the hostess, Hallowe'en authority was in evidence about the rooms. Mrs. Cameron had as a special guest of the afternoon her sister, Mrs. C. W. Hassler of Monmouth, who is visiting her. The next club meeting will be Nov. 21 with Mrs. J. Hodges.

TRI-CITY LUTHER LEAGUE AT GRACE CHURCH.

A well attended meeting, considering the weather, was held in the Grace Lutheran church last evening, the occasion being the quarterly meeting of the Tri-City Luther league. It was an interesting program the Trinity Temple society of the Davenport church had prepared. The program was given as follows:

Scripture reading and prayer—Rev. Trabert.
Vocal solo—Miss Jessie Armstrong.
Address—Gustav Lawson, "Our Relation to Others."
Solo—Mr. Kaufman, "Holy City."
Address—Miss Gertrude Jensen, "Prayer."
Duet—Mr. and Mrs. Lundberg.
Address—Rev. Jens Jensen, "Our Duties."

Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the meeting.

WARDE CLUB WITH MISS BAUER.

Miss Marguerite Bauer, 1321 Third avenue, Moline, was a delightful hostess of the Warde club, a social club of the Moline high school, last evening. The rooms were decorated in the colors, black and yellow, the former being used in the most ingenious manner. After a business session, games were played, the prize being won by Miss Helen Anderson. Miss Bauer served a delicious two-course lunch. The next meeting will be with Miss Ruth Hedges, 1107 Fourteenth street, Moline, next week. The club will be entertained at the home of the president, Miss Esther Swanson, 1111