COURT DEFAULTS JITNEY DRIVERS

Defendants Who Failed to File Appearances Are Ruled Against by Judge E. D. Ramsay.

HOLDS WITH THE RELATORS

Overrules Objections Filed by Auto Men Against Private Counsel Assisting Attorney General.

Objections to the appearance of C. J. Searle counsel for the Tri-City Railway company in the jitney case instituted and brought in the name of the people of the state of Illinois on the public utilities commission, were overruled in circuit court this morning by Judge E. D. Ramsay, the court holding that Attorney General F. G. Lorenz had a right to have local legal assistance in the prosecution of the case if he so desired.

The jitney drivers attacked the right of counsel for any private corporation to appear with the attorney general in an action that is brought in the name of the people of the state.

Some Drivers Defaulted.

The court then entered default orders against all the defendants who had not made appearance, a number having gone out of business since the institution of injunction proceedings against them. The hearing in the case will be arranged at a date when the court will take up some time next week.
