was charged with disorderly conduct. Mrs. Erickson says that the police were called by Miss Helen Schwab, aged 16, whose home adjoins the Erickson domicile. Miss Schwab says she called the police because Erickson was using abusive language to her mother. Erickson and his wife had had no trouble, Mrs. Erickson explains. She carries a black eye but she insists that was caused by a piece of wood flying up and striking her while she was splitting kindling in the yard.

THE PERFECT DUTIES.

Gentleness and cheerfulness come before all morality. They are the perfect duties. If your morals make you dreary they are wrong. I do not say "Give them up," for they may be all you have, but conceal them like a vice lest they spoil the lives of better and simpler people.—Stevenson.
