In the Movies.

TONIGHT.

Spencer Square—Ethel Barrymore in "The Call of Her People"; Burton Holmes picture, "How California Harvests Wheat."

Majestic—Holbrook Blinn in "Would You Forgive?" Gaumont weekly.

Best—Earl Metcalf in "The Nation Peril."

Black Hawk—Anna Nilsson in "The Great Bradley Mystery"; also a comedy.

THURSDAY.

Spencer Square—Ethel Barrymore in "The Call of Her People."

Majestic—Mary Pickford in "The Little American."

Black Hawk—"The Mystery of the Double Cross"; "The Grip of Evil."

Best—Richard Buehler in "Man's Making."

At the Majestic.

For the first time since her appearance in Artcraft pictures, "America's sweetheart," Mary Pickford, will be seen at the Majestic theatre Thursday and Friday as a modern American girl in modern gowns, a gripping, patriotic photodrama by Cecil B. De Mille and Jeanie Macpherson. In "Less Than the Dust" the famous star was seen as an East Indian, in "The Pride of the Clan" as a Scotch lassie, in "A Poor Little Rich Girl" as a child and in "A Romance of the Redwoods" as a New England girl of the days of '49, but in "The Little American" she blossoms forth as a wealthy young American girl with beautiful gowns and modern costumes by Lucile and Madame Frances. The story, staged by Cecil B. De Mille, deals with the great war and adventures of a girl from the U. S. A. caught in the terrible maelstrom in France.

At Spencer Square.

Ethel Barrymore in "The Call of Her People" will be at the Spencer Square today and tomorrow. A youth whose father is the chief of a band of gypsies loves the most beautiful girl in the tribe, but the father forbids their marriage. The youth secretly goes through with the gypsy marriage rites. Afterward his father, in ignorance of the ceremony, carries the girl to the home of a wealthy man who years ago had married a gypsy and been abandoned by her. The gypsy chief tells the wealthy man she is his daughter. In her new home she is courted by a young society man and, believing her gypsy sweetheart has forgotten her, she consents to marry her new suitor. Then the gypsy husband returns and the girl finds she has to choose between luxury or a return to gypsy life. Her decision marks the climax of this marvelous play.

tives of all parties and immediate reform of the Prussian franchise.

Peace Move Threatened.

The national liberals, however, at a meeting in the evening, rejected the peace part of the resolution, and as the center had made their attitude conditional on national liberal assent, the success of the movement is threatened. The radicals, on the other hand, declined to concur in that part of the resolution dealing with internal reforms if this were on condition, as the nationals wished, of Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg's retirement. The whole matter, therefore, is in doubt again. One positive fact elicited by Herr Erzberger's declaration is that he and other members of the main committee of the reichstag did not in the course of attacks on the admiralty and government suggest the abandonment of the submarine campaign.

Amsterdam, July 11.—Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg declined yesterday to make known to the reichstag main committee the proceedings in the session of the crown council on Monday regarding which there is much speculation within and without Germany. The committee then decided to adjourn. These events are described as follows in a semi-official statement issued yesterday in Berlin:

"The main committee of the reichstag met at 9 o'clock this morning. Friedrich Ebert (Socialist leader) requested the chancellor, who was present, to give information in regard to what happened in the crown council yesterday on the ground that knowledge of what took place there was necessary for further fruitful debate. The chancellor, confirming the fact that the crown council had held a meeting, said he was unable as yet to make a statement in regard to the results of the deliberations. Herr Ebert then moved adjournment of the committee, which was agreed to."

CORN IS DEPRESSED BY CHECKS IN TRADE

Chicago, July 11. Nervousness over checks in trading in corn at Chicago and Kansas City had a bearish effect today on corn prices here. At both cities a maximum quotation was fixed for the September delivery and all new business in that option was forbidden. A further cause for depression of values here was the fact that rains had fallen in Texas and Oklahoma, where there had been complaints of drought, opening figures which ranged from 1⅛ off to 1⅛c advance, with September at 1.57 to 1.57⅜ and December at 1.20 to 1.21, were followed by a material setback all around.

Subsequently, buying on the part of cash houses led to a decided bulge that hoisted all deliveries to new high record prices for the season. Gossip, however, that Chicago trading in the September option might be prohibited tended to bring about a fresh down turn. The close was unsettled, 1⅛c to 2⅜c net higher, with September at 1.55⅞ to 1.56⅜ and May at 1.21⅜ to 1.21½.

Wheat eased off a little in sympathy with corn. Besides, prospects were said to have improved both for the spring and the winter crop. After opening unchanged to 2.03½ July and 1.91 September the market receded to 1.90 September.

Later the market hardened as a consequence of a rally in corn. The close was steady, half cent off to half cent net advance at 2.03 July and 1.91½ September.

Despite some firmness at the outset, oats underwent a sharp fall when corn was seen to be plainly on the downrade. Commission houses in general turned to the selling side.

Provisions descended as a result of corn weakness. An advance in hog prices seemed to be entirely ignored.

Comparative Sales.

(Furnished by E. W. Wagner & Co. Tri-city office in suite 309 Best building. P. J. McCormick, manager.)

Chicago, July 11.—Chicago had 22,000 hogs yesterday, or 6,000 in excess of the estimate, with 10,957 carried over from Monday's market, and prices at the yards were 15 to 20 cents lower than the average, with a top of 15.70. Estimated for today 34,000. The western run totaled 106,100 against 777,500 last week and 101,300 a year ago.

Local shipments of cured meats were 2,147,000 pounds against 1,709,000 the same day a year ago, lard 574,000 versus 394,000. Liverpool quoted lard unchanged, hams 6d higher, backs 1s to 3s higher.

There was some selling of provisions at the opening by commission houses, but offerings were readily absorbed by a good class of buying and prices quickly advanced. The close was 42½ to 50c up on pork, 17½ to 20c up on lard and 25 to 27½c up on ribs. Shorts covered freely on the advance. Cash trade is reported as showing improvement. The Liverpool market is displaying an advancing tendency, after a considerable period of weakness.
