George Leygues.

As minister of marine in the French cabinet, Georges Leygues is the man in charge of fighting German U-boats. He recently issued a statement showing that more merchant ships are being built than the Germans are destroying, and that more German U-boats are being destroyed than the Germans are building.

CHAPTER II.

I pointed to Uncle Peabody's hay pipe hanging on a nail.

"Have some a cigarette," he suggested.

So that I did and commenced his morning. He got out his pipe and filled it and then we had a good chat till breakfast time. And Jessie brought the bacon and the fresh eggs—and the milk. Then we went—Uncle Peabody and I—to the barn, which faced directly on the road and he had the rope around the dog's neck.
