STANLEY MATTHEWS, associate justice of the United States supreme court, died last Friday.

THE president has issued a proclamation opening the Oklahoma territory to settlement after April 22nd.

JOHN BRIGHT, the eminent English statesman and firm friend of the United States during the late war, died last Tuesday night.

R. P. HELPHINSTINE, the new editor and manager of the Socorro Chieftain, will convert the paper into a weekly, and issue every Friday.

THE editors of the Enterprise write that they are about to start a daily. It is a pity to spoil as good a weekly as the Enterprise to start such a Jim Crow daily as Silver City is able to supply with news.

ON Wednesday the president sent the following nominations to the senate: For minister to Great Britain, Robert T. Lincoln; minister to Germany, Murat Halstead; minister to Russia, Allan Thorndyke Rice; minister to Chili, Patrick Egan; minister to Mexico, Thomas Ryan.

THE latest reports from Washington indicate that A. L. Morrison is the favorite in the race for governor of this territory. Mr. Morrison was marshal up to four years ago, and has since lived in the territory, and took a very important part in the late campaign in New York.

EL PASO enjoys a municipal election a week from next Monday, and both the democrats and republicans have nominated straight party tickets, and the fight is a pretty one. If the republicans are successful the rest of the state would be willing to have El Paso join the new state of Sierra.

THE navy department has shipped a cargo of anthracite coal to Samoa. The coal cost $3.62½ per ton in New York and the freight was $13.25, making the coal cost $16.87½ per ton in Samoa. It would appear, judging from the cost of coal, that Lordsburg is farther out of the world than Samoa.

THE printers at Phenix got in their work in fine shape on the late legislature. When any printing was to be done for the territory it was let to the lowest bidder. The printers would make an estimate on the cost of the work and then multiply the cost by three, for there were three printing offices in town and each one was entitled to his bit. Some Arizona paper has a chance for a fine sensation by printing a list of the printing bills allowed and accompany this with bids from some reputable printing house for the same class of work.

THE announcement by New Mexico's solicitor general, the Hon. Ralph E. Twitchell, that the new meat inspection law was unconstitutional, because it interferred with inter-state commerce, does not seem to have met with the brilliant reception its author anticipated. The New York legislature is debating a similar bill, and bills identically the same have passed the Colorado house and become a law in Michigan. The railroads should employ Mr. Twitchell to visit the various state legislatures and instruct them upon the elements of constitutional law.

THE Arizona legislature does not seem to be on good terms with itself. Last week the house adjourned and the council took a recess till to-day. The house adjourned because it had a democratic majority and there was no more business to transact. The council took a recess because it had a republican majority and wanted to confirm the nominations of the new governor. The council is doomed to another disappointment or another recess, for the senate has as yet neither confirmed nor rejected the nomination of Wolfley for governor. On the adjournment of the house the Hon. Jack O'Brien again took charge of his engine on the Gila division and the Hon. Lew Martin went to San Francisco. Mr. Martin's return is anxiously awaited by his admiring constituents in Tucson, where a magnificent reception has been prepared for him.

ON the first page will be found extracts from the Hillsboro Advocate, Las Cruces News and New Mexican in reference to the state of Sierra. Many more extracts might be printed all to the same effect. The New Mexico papers within the confines of the proposed state are strongly in favor of it; those living in outer darkness strongly object to being left out. The objections offered by the New Mexican are really the main arguments in its favor. There could, however, be one great improvement to the state, and that is the addition of El Paso county, Texas, to it. It would be a great benefit to the city of El Paso, as it would be the metropolis and the probable capital of the state, and for a city of the size and character of El Paso and filled with such energetic, go-ahead citizens as is El Paso, it is better to be the big toad in the puddle of the size of Sierra, than to be the little polywog away off on the on the shore of a pond the size of Texas. The Cochise and Graham county people have not expressed an opinion on the subject as yet.

Have any of our territorial exchanges within the past few weeks met Bowden G. Tate, attorney and counsellor at law? He is about 5 ft. 9 ins., rather slim, dark hair and mustach, wore a blue beaver overcoat and derby hat, he was quite deaf and given to talking about himself and borrowing cigarettes and smoking tobacco. Mr. Tate left here to go to Las Cruces and obtain an injunction in the San Simon ditch matter, being furnished with the necessary cash for traveling and other expenses, and has not been heard from since. It is feared that he has met with foul play or skipped. There is a warrant out for his arrest.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. Williams held a temperance meeting at Black's hall, which was quite well attended. In her talk she gave a very interesting account of her experience during the temperance crusade in Ohio and her personal experience with intemperence in the family. She urged the ladies to organize a W. C. T. U., and to use every endeavor to make the homes bright and pleasant for the men, so they would not have to go to saloons for pleasure. Mrs. Williams is a very entertaining talker.

On the 26th of February our friend Antonio J. Chavez, of Belen, Valencia county, wrote the editor of this paper a letter, and he addressed it to "Mr. Tome Juis," and it was not received until this morning. Mr. Wanamaker will please call the attention of his postmaster to the fact there are various ways of spelling a name in New Mexico.—Albuquerque Citizen, March 26th. When the editor of the Citizen writes his name he spells it "Thomas Hughes."

The New York Sun.

FOR 1889

And for the Democracy.

THE SUN believes that the campaign for the election of a Democratic Congress in 1890 and a Democratic President in 1892 should begin on or about the fourth of next March. THE SUN will be on hand at the beginning and until the end of the most interesting and important political conflict since the war, doing its honest utmost, as ever, to secure the triumph of the Democratic party and the permanent supremacy of the principles held by Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden.

The great fact of the year is the return to absolute power of the common enemy of all good Democrats—the political organization for whose overthrow THE SUN fought at the front for fifteen years, the memorable years of Grant and the Fraud Hayes, and Garfield and Arthur.

It is the same old enemy that Democrats now confront, and he will be intrenched in the same strong position. It has been carried once by brave and hopeful fighting. Do you not believe with THE SUN that the thing can be done again? Wait and see!

The hope of the Democracy is in the loyal efforts of a united press, cherishing no memories of past differences in non-essentials, forgetting everything but the lessons of experience, and that victory is a duty.

Probably you know THE SUN already as a newspaper which gets all the news and prints it in incomparably interesting shape; which chronicles facts as they occur and tells the truth about men and events with absolute fearlessness, making the completest and most entertaining journal published anywhere on earth; and which sells its opinions only to its subscribers and purchasers at two cents a copy—on Sundays four cents. If you do not know THE SUN, send for it and learn what a wonderful thing it is to be in the sunshine.
