Miss Cissy Bailey, Misses Sallie Gibson, Mabel Kellogg, Josie Elder, with several gentlemen, left last night for San Sebastian ranch, near Lamy. The party will be gone about two weeks.

[illegible] commissioners yesterday divided precinct No. 13 (old town) and [illegible] of Los Duranes, which has heretofore been in 13, precinct No. 32. Manuel Armijo was appointed justice of the peace, and Celso Garcia, constable.

[illegible] Krilie, the Trinidad wool dealer, is here today, and has expressed himself well pleased with his local representative, Jack Crawford. Mr. Krilie is glad that Jack was the successful bidder for the Flower wool, which is of a superior grade.

Miss Maud Summers was seventeen years old yesterday, and the event was remembered by her numerous young friends, who gathered in the evening at the family residence on north Sixth street, and passed a few hours in social enjoyments.

Capt. H. H. Ribble, a well known citizen of Albuquerque who has been out on the Atlantic & Pacific for the past eight [illegible], was a welcome visitor home [illegible] day. Capt. Ribble was around renewing old friends in company with Justice Gray.

Mrs. Lynch, mother of Miss Katie Lynch, one of this year's graduates at Mount Vincent's Academy, and Mrs. W. A. Slocum, of Gallup, are in the metropolis and will attend the commencement exercises at Grant's opera house to morrow night.

A cinder, which was used when the lots on Copper avenue and Second street, which are now in litigation, were laid off, was dug up by a workman on the sewer the morning. It is thought the stake will prove a very important link in favor of [illegible] in possession of the lots.

Charlie McCarr, a young boy 13 years of age, was arrested yesterday by Constable Brown on a warrant sworn out by his legal guardian, Chas. McCarr, for absenting himself from his home at San Pedro. The boy was turned over to his guardian and taken back to San Pedro.

At the meeting of the Albuquerque Silver Cornet band last evening it was decided to hold a basket picnic at San Ysidro springs on the morning of the Fourth. Teams will be furnished at reasonable rates by W. L. Trimble & Co., and the band will give free concerts to picnickers who will attend.

The death of A. L. Cammell, at Trinidad last Sunday, is particularly sad. The gentleman was interested in a cattle ranch in this county, and was involved considerably by loans, which he could not meet. When in this city a few weeks ago he contracted with G. L. Brooks to feed for him one head of cattle, so he could meet all his obligations. The cattle were sold and Mr. Cammell went to Clifton, N. M., to see that they were properly turned over to their new owner. On completing the work he went to Pueblo and was to have left for Albuquerque Sunday evening for the purpose of settling up, when he met with the fatal accident a few hours ended in his death.

F. B. Hastings, of Hastings, general agent for the New York or Concord grape method and 20 pound peach crates, will address interested parties of the territory, four car loads of lemons each during next week. Those desiring the best baskets made in the world will send orders in at once.

It is Now Settled.

Mr. Manager McCreight and Secretary Gray of the Albuquerque base ball club have arranged three games in Las Vegas on the 3rd and 5th of July. The Albuquerque club will leave here on the morning of the 2nd, and will play a second game on the Sunday.

While the Albuquerquians are on the trip Manager McCreight will try and make arrangements to play Santa Fe on the morning of the 5th. The Las Vegas people will not be disappointed, for the crowd which will accompany the home amateur club on the 2nd will be there next Saturday to witness a match game at the fair grounds. It is hoped that our citizens will give the boys a liberal support, as it will make a close quarrel between the Las Vegas team here and the Albuquerque team there.

[illegible] Albert Brown, [illegible] Wm. Kaphan, Metropolitan [illegible], Atlantic house, San [illegible], Palace, St. Elmo [illegible] put for the Grants, the street car [illegible] and [illegible] safe to say "Hooley, mopping of dare" [illegible] Saturday.

[illegible] road being [illegible], and [illegible] the street [illegible] slightly [illegible] town. Although [illegible] well and [illegible] any [illegible].

He is Nineteen.

[illegible] Joseph Duckworth, the [illegible] Indian school, resided the [illegible] day, and last evening Mr. and [illegible] surprised the young [illegible] a number of gentlemen [illegible] without his knowledge, to assist [illegible] residence on the Highlands south Albuquerque, and celebrate the occasion. The contents of two [illegible] were removed, and to the strains [illegible] dancing was in order till [illegible]. Liquid and other refreshments were passed around and many [illegible] expressed the young man. Among those in attendance the report [illegible] as follows: Enoch Cox [illegible] and Adolf J. S. Herton and wife, [illegible] Wakefield and wife, James [illegible] and wife, William Allen and [illegible] Charles and wife, John M[illegible] and wife, A. H. Jones and wife, Misses A. Hatch, George Boxman and "Grandma" Baxter; Misses Laura and Georgie Gravelle and Lillie Boyle; Messrs. Walter Boyd, Edward Allen, John Bailey, William Blackburn, Chas. Sowelas, W. M. Teall, S. H. Willis, George Van Pelt, Peter and "Ted" Isherwood.

Mrs. S. E. Clarkson, a sister-in-law of Mr. Isaac Isherwood, of Providence, R. I., was also in the happy swim.

Yesterday morning Mr. Duckworth took leave of the probate court, in session at the court house, and assumed the name of his stepfather. He will hereafter be known as Joseph Isherwood, and the Citizen wishes him luck and happiness.

He is of Age.

Yesterday, Max Luna, the competent court interpreter for this judicial district, celebrated a happy event in his life. Max had reached his 21st birthday, and in the evening one of the most elegant social affairs ever held in Los Lunas, the young gentleman's home, occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bergere, in honor of the occasion. The spacious house and the grand grass covered front yard were radiant from numerous Chinese lanterns, which fell with brilliancy upon the happy gathering of relatives and friends. A most elegant supper was served and dancing was carried on to a late hour in the night with music by the Di Mauro & Stever orchestra of this city furnishing the music.

Among those in attendance THE CITIZEN has been supplied with the following list: Mr. and Mrs. Tranquilino Luna, Mr. and Mrs. Sol. Luna, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bergere, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hunsaker, Mr. and Miss M. F. Sena, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Connelly, Mrs. Levy, Miss Gomez, Judge Fred Spence, Dr. J. L. Harrington, E. Dubois and R. Silver, of Los Lunas, and Harry Lee, D. [illegible] and Frank Chaves, of this city, and others.

Police Court.

E. E. Warren, called the "Major," from Washington, D. C., who has been on a glorious drunk for several days, handling every person he met, and emphasizing the fact that he was from "Washington, D. C.," was arrested last night for disorderly conduct and placed in jail. This morning he was fined $5 and costs, which he paid. All respect to gray hairs, but this fellow Warren is a bag of wind, with only calibre sufficient to indicate to his own mind that he is better than any person in Albuquerque. How mistaken.

Frank Summers and Henry Carter, drunk, $5 and costs.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

A Very Busy Board at its Last Night's Meeting.

The board of aldermen met last evening. Present: Mayor Smith, Aldermen Armijo, Hunt, Gabel, Maloy and Miller, Clerk Hopkins, Absent: Aldermen Bowman, Parr and Karter.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The report of the police committee relative to the charges against Marshal Maston, preferred by Jesse M. Wheelock, was read, and they recommended that the charges were not sufficient to warrant the committee to suggest the removal of said officer. A portion of the report was as follows: "We also find that there exists nuisances in the alleys of the city that need the attention of the marshal and policemen, and some of which are of a more aggravated nature than the nuisance committed by Mr. Wheelock, for which he was arrested." Also, "We are of the opinion that the police force should be instructed to be diligent in the matter of participating in the matter of keeping the streets, alleys and other property clean."

The report was adopted.

The street commissioner was then on the survey of the Barelas road, commencing the opening of the same so far as the opinion of a quorum of the board of trustees of the city will work.

The report was adopted.

The finance committee, to whom the petition of Mrs. Kocher and James Armijo to build a sidewalk on west side of Arno avenue, between Railroad avenue and Copper avenue, reported that the petition of the former asking that the sidewalk be built on the east side of the lots facing said avenue, be granted, and in regard to the petition of James Armijo for a sidewalk on the east side of Arno avenue, from Copper avenue to Gold avenue, and from Gold avenue to the street car track, and to be laid on the west side of said avenue, and that the petitioner be allowed to do the work himself, the committee recommend that the petition be granted
