The timbers for the roof of the handsome Viviani building, Third and Tijeras, are being placed in position.

Wm. Hatch went north to Las Vegas at 10:30 a. m. He keeps on the go as travelling auditor of Wells-Fargo & Co.

W. F. Talhafero and Attorney Karl Snyder, of the land office, were at Los Lunas yesterday, returning late in the evening.

Four passengers and a news agent were left to finish a meal at Harvey's last evening, the train going north without them.

An eight pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Skeele this morning. Mother and son are doing well, at last accounts.

Chas. W. Dabyens, manager of Gross, Blackwell & Co., was at Prescott yesterday. He will be absent this week on the western run.

C. A. Ancent, who ran the Armijo house during the fair season of 1892, is said to be in Kansas City running a gambling outfit with another party.

Sheld Ellsworth is expected from Chicago early next week. He has been in Chicago over six months, being identified with the New Mexico exhibit.

Paul J. Wielandy, who has been traveling for a St. Louis house through this section for eleven years, is here for a day or two interviewing the book dealers.

Mrs. Henry Loebs was stricken with paralysis yesterday, and is considered dangerously ill, the doctor expressing a belief that her recovery is doubtful.

F. J. Easley, superintendent of the Rio Grande division of the Santa Fe system, was at the depot to-day on his car. The car will go to San Marcial in the morning.

Work on the extension of Railroad avenue will be continued by Surveyor Pearce and his corps. Some changes have been made in the lines, owing to objections raised by homesteaders.

Rev. W. L. Githens will preach at Socorro on Thanksgiving, and lecture at the same place two nights on popular subjects. The bishop will fill the pulpit of St. Johns in Mr. Githen's absence.

A number of wagons come down Railroad avenue every morning quite early loaded with fire wood and lumber. They seem to find a good market, some dealers corralling the loads, and selling at a good advance.

John H. Frizzel, late foreman of the round house at Winslow, has secured a place in the machine shops here, and is now looking for a house to locate his family in. Mr. Frizzel worked in the shops in 1882.

Miss Lucy Baird, teacher in the Third ward public school, was taken sick yesterday with a severe cold and will be compelled to remain at home for a few days. Her many friends hope to see her out before long.

A lady passenger failed to work a kodak on the Indian girls from Isleta yesterday afternoon while the special for the west was waiting. The lady took the affair good humoredly, and perhaps lost a chance at the girls over their homes, where they go barefoot.

Captain J. Q. Wills and Frank Fagaly were passengers for Bernalillo this morning, where they take conveyance for the camp. They are on a hunting trip.

The Albuquerque Saddlery company has a number for harness leather with the Tanning Extract company at Deming. Though a little slow in this case it is said the Tanning company turn out a good article at a cheaper price than the eastern dealers give.

Mrs. Meylert, wife of Gen. Meylert, who was on the way from New York to this city, died at Kansas City on Saturday. Resolutions were engaged at the San Felipe for the lady. This is the third death in the Meylert family inside of nine weeks.

Unfortunately Murdered.

Early last Monday morning the unconscious body of Wm. H. Cornell, a soldier at Fort Stanton, was found on the road between the post and the mineral resort engineered by Mrs. Pinckney Davis, a notorious character. He was taken to the hospital but all efforts toward resuscitating him were unavailing and he died very soon after being brought in. His death was the result of his injuries, the physicians ascertained that at least thirty-two grains had been administered. Judge Henley, of Nogal, was at once commissioned, and he at once impaneled a jury, whose verdict was to the effect that the deceased came to his death at the hands of parties unknown at the Davis "ranch," as this is where the young man is known to have been on Sunday evening. On Tuesday, Sheriff Curry arrested all the inmates of this joint, there being one white and two black women and one Mexican man, and took the lot up to jail at Lincoln. The preliminary hearing took place yesterday. But the result has not as yet been learned. The deceased was but a mere boy, being only 19 years old, and was a general favorite. He belonged to Company K, 10th Infantry, and was discharged with military honors on Thursday afternoon.—White Oaks Eagle.

Heavy Freights.

The Santa Fe road has two flat cars, capable of carrying 30 tons each, numbered 80,624 and 80,625. One of these passed east Monday night with 78,625 pounds of steel rope from the California Wire Works, and consigned to the St. Louis Railway Cable company. This is the wire that was part of the train which set last week west. It was again loaded as a car. A car over the same route, and in charge of the same engineers, left San Francisco yesterday. The weight of the load is the second at 78,000 and will be in Chicago Saturday.

The Firemen.

Mike Katzenberg was placed on the roll of honor of Hose Company No. 1 last evening. The organization will give their annual ball on December 29 at the Armory.

Hose company No. 2 had a full meeting and everybody had a say, though nothing of moment was done.

Ferguson Hook and Ladder company was in session last evening, with E. B. Harsch presiding. Reports as to the ball were satisfactory. The affair will occur a week hence and no doubt will be the usual success.

The Box Social.

Last evening the young people of the Congregational church gave a "box" social in the parlors of the church. There was a large crowd present and the following program was rendered: Guitar solo, Prof. Manzer; vocal solo, Miss Winifred Shugart; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Ashmun; recitation, Miss Ellis; humorous reading, E. B. Cristy. A large number of boxes containing lunches were auctioned by Mr. Wm. Bruce, from which a good sum was realized. All present enjoyed themselves to a late hour.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by T. H. Burgess & Son, druggists.

In Arizona.

Recently a most important discovery of strong gold veins was made in southwest Pima county. Ex-Governor Wolfley visited the camp and made an exhaustive sampling at the veins, both by assay and panning. The result surpassed his most sanguine expectations and resulted in the immediate bonding of the properties by ex-Governor Wolfley, ex-Surveyor General Johnson and their associates. Already contracts for three shafts have been let and the work will be pushed vigorously forward.

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by T. H. Burgess & Son, druggists.

At the Commercial Club.

J. B. Lazear, Denver, introduced by C. K. Newhall; W. H. Swan, Cincinnati, by G. L. Brooks; A. E. Riley, Chicago, by Ed Mellen, were visitors yesterday and today at the club. There will be no dancing at the Commercial club to-night, those attending devoting the evening to cards and other amusements.

The Greatest Value.

You get the greatest value out of a silver quarter when purchasing a package of Simmons Liver Regulator powder. There is nothing like it for indigestion or constipation. Take it dry on the tongue or make a tea. You'll afterwards take it in preference to pills.

LAND COURT.

Not Much of Importance Transacted by the Court.

Little or nothing has been done in the United States court of private land claims this week, and after a brief session this morning the court took a recess until to-morrow. The proceedings before the court show that United States Attorney Reynolds was fully prepared to go on with the cases, as at the beginning of the term had an average of two cases a day set for hearing, and the attorneys for the various grant claimants say they are not ready or are otherwise so urgently engaged as not to be able to attend the land court. Four or five Albuquerque attorneys ask for delay on the plea many other outside attorneys and several in this city have done likewise, so that it is by no means the fault of the United States attorney that business is not pushed. Now and then one is announced in several of the cases already tried by the court for the reason that those cases, with two exceptions, have only been partially submitted by the attorneys for the claimants. Notwithstanding this, however, the docket shows, if all cases set for hearing are tried, twelve cases will have been disposed of, leaving about 1,000 cases, during the short term, which is but good evidence that if attorneys for claimants will prepare themselves there will be little delay in the future in having their rights adjudicated in the court of private land claims.

Owners of land grants, which have been confirmed by the land court, should bear in mind that the government is ready and always ready to have those claims actual adjudicated by a survey and patent, the survey segregating and patenting the land in accordance with the decree of confirmation. But this can not be done until the grant claimants actually formally notify the surveyor general, who has such survey made and present to that officer a copy of the decree obtained in the court of private land claims. Claimants should take to heart their own interest and the interest of the territory and attend to this matter.—New Mexican.

Cancellations seem to be in order at the office of Manager Davis. Walking during the winter months is not pleasant to some temperate, and that will explain the indifference shown by managers of travelling companies. Certainly a performance twice a month would be profitable to such as may decide to stop here.

A Similar Case.

Kansas City is said to be in for the fight with its water works company, which the citizens of that city will vote on November 29th. If in the meantime the city doesn't take steps to pay the $115,000 to front rental which the company claims is due it. The threat of the water company is regarded as a bluff by the city authorities, but they do not propose to be caught napping, and an application will be presented in the United States circuit court asking the court to grant an order restraining the water works company from carrying into execution the threat, the legality of rental being in dispute. The Star in commenting on the trouble, says: "In all probability involving points of controversy between quasi public corporations and the people, the courts recognize the fact that the latter have certain rights which cannot be trampled upon by any corporation, and the threat, therefore, which the water works company makes of shutting off the water from the city is simply on the bluff."

Filed for Record.

Angelo Lombardo, trustee, to Addie E. Knight, release to above.

Harry F. Lee, oath and bond as notary public.

Incendiary.

There was a diabolical attempt at incendiarism about 8:30 o'clock last evening in the Romero block, southwest corner of the plaza. The first door to the left from the hall way, on the second floor, leading into the office of Trinquilino Labadie, was saturated with coal oil and set on fire. Luckily, the bursting flames were discovered in time to avert a serious conflagration. The intention of the incendiary evidently was to destroy or damage the stock of goods belonging to Margarito Romero, as the building is owned by another party, and it would burn slowly, after having been fired in the upper story.—Las Vegas Optic.

Paid Off.

Gen. John Witcher and his clerk, Philip Van Vechten, returned yesterday from a two weeks' trip to Forts Bowie, Grant and Huachuca, where they have been paying off the troops. The general reports fine weather, with the exception of the strong winds. "The government pays its soldiers, rank and file, to the last cent," said General Witcher, as he glanced over two or three hundred coppers, which lay on his desk. He was busy balancing accounts this morning with the assistance of his clerk.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventative and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by T. H. Burgess & Son, druggists.

The Conference.

The members of council and others directly associated in the conference with Mr. Grant on the water question met this morning but accomplished nothing special. Mr. Grant remarked that progress was made, and that a meeting would be held in the morning to deliberate further.

I never handled and used a great deal of patent medicine but never tried any that gave as good results as this." For sale by T. H. Burgess & Son, druggists.

OWNEY, THE TRAVELER.

The Terrier Dog Tourist Rests up in Albuquerque.

Postal Clerks Grimes and Gay were accompanied to the city last night by "Owney," a terrier, belonging to the postmaster of Albany, New York.

"Owney" is making his second trip across the continent, having passed through here about two years ago. He is now full grown and able to support the weight of honors unto which he was not born, and which have been thrust upon him in the shape of tags and checks of steel, iron, tin and pasteboard, including a little brown jug filled with attar of roses. Owing to his constant association with postal clerks and postoffice employes his manners and deportment are charming and full of grace. He rivals with other distinguished travelers that Albuquerque is improving rapidly, and is far ahead of some large towns back east in Kansas. "Owney" will continue on his journey to Los Angeles to-night.

The territorial board of medical examiners will meet at Santa Fe on Tuesday next. There is a great deal of work on hand for consideration at that time.

The Citizens had a pleasant call from Hon. Samuel C. King and son, of Atchison, Kansas. Mr. King is a banker at Atchison, and one of the best men in Kansas.

Capt. J. J. Morris, of Wallace, is in the city. He reports business at that station improving, and says all that is bothering him is the absence of his wife, who went to the World's Fair, and is seeing so many sights she has forgotten to come home, and he thinks of offering a reward for her return.

Concert musicians of the city have secured the services of a first-class instructor from New Orleans, and will organize a brass band. Several members of the new organization have had experience in playing brass instruments, and it will be but a short time until the new band will be able to produce excellent music.

R. P. Hall, of the Albuquerque Foundry and Machine company, does not propose to close down business in event the Water company carries into execution its threat to turn off the water supply in the city. He has had a well driven which furnishes an ample supply of water for running his engines, and he now feels independent.

E. W. Dee, a ranchman who resides about three miles north drove to the city this morning. When he reached Railroad avenue near the depot, his horse became frightened at an engine and dashed down Railroad avenue. The uncontrollable animal turned the corner at Iffelds' store, breaking an iron hitching post and damaging the wagon.

What has become of the Long pamphlet? We understand that 20,000 copies were paid for by public subscription, and that they have been printed and delivered to the committee in Albuquerque, and that they are lying here with the boxes still unopened. This is one of the best things for advertising this place that has ever been printed, but it can't do much good if it is not distributed.

The officers of the insane asylum at Las Vegas refuse to take insane patients from this county unless the commissioners pay three months in advance at 75 cents a day for their keep. Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Kimball telegraphed that he was refused admittance to two patients from this county unless the above conditions were complied with. It was supposed that the asylum at Las Vegas was a territorial institution, built and maintained by all the people for the care of the insane of all the counties.

Mrs. J. J. Schmidt, of Wagon Mound, with her two children, is visiting with her uncle and aunt, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Harwood in the Albuquerque College building. She has rented rooms in said building and will likely spend the winter in our city. She is enjoying a much needed rest after a long strain of mental work in the settlement of her husband's estate. Mrs. Schmidt has also evinced considerable business ability in the satisfactory adjustment of the intricate affairs of the estate as well as commendable fortitude in bearing up so well under the exciting and vexing scenes of her husband's assassination and particularly so in her persistent energy in her work and means in bringing the murderer of her husband to trial and punishment.

A Remarkable Road.

The Prescott Journal says: The Prescott & Arizona Central railroad has been abandoned, and the shriek of the steam whistle of its locomotives no more "echoes over the graves of its enemies." This is remarkable, as it has been assured that centuries would elapse before it would occur. This road is now, and has been a remarkable one. It is remarkable that a railroad seventy-two miles in length should cease operations entirely, being the first instance of its kind that has ever come to the knowledge of the writer. It is remarkable that a road which a year ago was the best-paying piece of railroad property, for its mileage, in the United States, should be a hopeless wreck today, with no possibility for its stockholders to realize a dollar. It is remarkable that the road was constructed without any capital whatever on the part of its promoter. It is a remarkable fact, too, that its builder must have realized from $500,000 to $750,000 net profit from its construction and operation of nearly seven years. It has been remarkable that during its construction, and nearly seven years of operation, while accidents have been numerous, and remarkably frequent, there never was a fatal accident on the road. Its construction was remarkable, in that miles of track were laid on the surface of the ground without any grading whatever, and it is alleged that not a single keg of powder was used in its construction. It is considered remarkable by many of its bondholders that they should not have been protected, as they would have been, by the purchase proposed by the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phœnix railroad over a year ago. It is a fact, remarked on by all citizens generally, that, while Yavapai county has $292,000 of outstanding 7 per cent bonds, issued for its construction, by its closing down the county will be knocked out of about $10,000 in taxes, or nearly one tenth of the total revenues of the county.

The Stoops to Conquer.

The above drama was given at the opera house last night by colored people of the city for the benefit of the A. M. E. church. The play was produced under the direction of Mrs. A. R. Cassells, and the excellent manner in which the lines were read by each character reflected credit alike upon Mrs. Cassells and the players. G. K. Lawers assumed the role of Hardcastle in a manner worthy of a professional actor, and one up in his business at that, and Mrs. L. L. Black as Mrs. Hardcastle, and Miss Fannie Ellsworth as the daughter well represented those characters. Mrs. O. L. Carter created much favorable comment as Miss Neville, while Mr. O. L. did well as young Marlow. Mrs. J. W. Ball as the maid was beyond criticism. Sir Charles Marlow was excellently taken by D. W. Booker, and W. L. Crockett as Mr. Hastings, Edgar Williams as Tony Lumpkin and Edward Lane as Diggory did equally well. The play proved a financial success, there being more than 200 tickets sold.

Too Easily Forgotten.

A. A. Grant is a capitalist of liberality, vim and pluck; he was one of the founders of the new town of Albuquerque and one of the principal factors in its growth and advancement; he put a good deal of money into Albuquerque real estate, buildings and other enterprises; among others greatly needed, were water works for the city and a company of which he is the head, constructed them. This seems to have been forgotten by some men and they have organized a fight on him, that bids fair to hurt the city of Albuquerque to a considerable extent. The good men do is too quickly forgotten, especially in New Mexico towns and here is a case in point. This water works litigation seems to be one of the cases referred to generally in the saying "of a man biting his nose, to spite his face."—New Mexican.

Those Watches.

Only five more days after today until Thanksgiving and the closing of the Citizens gold watch contest. The votes are coming in at a lively rate, and it is impossible to guess at this time who will be the two successful lady teachers. The winners of the handsome watches offered by the Citizens may justly feel flattered, being testimonials of their popularity both among the pupils of the schools and the people of their acquaintances, and who is there in the world who can better appreciate recognition of merit or approval of earnest endeavor than the school teacher?

Map of the County.

In the office of the county clerk yesterday, the question came up about a map of the county. There is no publication of the kind, and it seems that the county surveyor might secure a number of orders for one, aside from the allowance to be made by the county commissioners for the preparation of copies for the use of the various county officials. Town plats of Albuquerque and Gallup could be incorporated as a part of the whole. Apart from the number required in the county offices, fully one hundred ought to be subscribed for at a reasonable figure.

Prosperous Pecos Country.

J. W. Baird, assistant to General Live Stock Agent Llewellyn, of the Santa Fe road, returned last night from a trip to Eddy. He says that affairs in that portion of the territory have not the slightest coloring of hard times, but instead every thing is moving at a lively rate. The people are wide awake, and an immense amount of improvement is going on. The big dam near Eddy, which was badly damaged by the floods last summer is being rebuilt, from seven to eight hundred men being employed on the work.

Death of Ed. Moore.

Geo. H. Moore received a dispatch this morning from Silva, Mexico, giving the sad information of the death of his brother, Edward Moore. The deceased was about 40 years old and leaves a wife and two children, and was in Mexico in charge of the eating houses along the Mexican Central road. The remains will be brought to this country, and Geo. H. Moore will go to El Paso to receive the body. Mr. Moore was in the city about a year ago, visiting his brother, and made many friends.

New Industry.

The John Robbins Wool Scouring company has filed articles of incorporation with the territorial secretary. It is a Las Vegas enterprise and the incorporators are John Robbins, Elizabeth J. Robbins and Hugh Loudon, local representatives of the Scottish Mortgage & Loan company. The capital stock is $25,000. The object is to establish at Las Vegas a plant for scouring and cleaning wool.

MRS. ELMIRA HATCH.

HEART DISEASE 20 YEARS.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Dear Sirs: For 20 years I was troubled with heart disease. Would frequently have falling spells and smothering at night. Had to sit up or get out of bed to breathe. Had pain in my left side and back most of the time; at last I became nervous. I was very nervous and nearly worn out. The least excitement would cause me to faint. I was also much troubled with fluttering. For the last fifteen years I could not lie on my left side or back until I began taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. I had not taken it very long until I felt much better, and I can now sleep on either side or back without the least discomfort. I have no pain, smothering, dropsy, no wind stomach or other disagreeable symptoms. I am able to do all my own housework without any trouble and consider myself cured.

Elkhart, Ind., 1898. MRS. ELMIRA HATCH.

It is now four years since I have taken any medicine. Am in better health than I have been in 20 years. I honestly believe that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure saved my life. It has made me a well woman. I am now 62 years of age, and am able to do a good day's work.

May 29th, 1892. MRS. ELMIRA HATCH.

Fine Cattle.

Edward Patterson, of the well-known Patterson Bros.' dairy located some four miles south of the city, on the line of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, returned yesterday morning from Lawrence, Kansas, where he secured sixteen head of thoroughbred Holstein cattle and brought them to the city. To-day they were placed on the ranch. These animals, together with a number of Holsteins, grade Jerseys and Durhams form a collection of fine cattle, perhaps the best herd of cows to be found in any dairy ranch in the territory. The latest added are fine milkers, some of them giving as much as five gallons of milk daily.
