

Saint Mary's Beacon.

LEONARDTOWN, MD.

THURSDAY Morning, January 25.

We are informed that Senators Hubber, Moss, Bowie and Carrio are ever mindful of their struggling St. Mary's brothers and willing to lend them a helping hand. Remember them!

Senator Wilkinson has attended four sessions of the General Assembly, in his fifth and has just discovered that our road system needs to be taken from the control of the Commissioners' Court. And the discovery is coincident with a time when the Board is Democratic. This is politics, and if Mr. Wilkinson can persuade a Democratic Legislature to so play into his hands, why it will be highly creditable to him politically and equally discreditible to the Democrats who do it.

St. Mary's Democrats are fine fellows, brave sons of gallant fathers, noble veterans in a grand old cause when a congressional nominee from some other county wants to hold down the Republican majority here so that he may be able to write M. C. after his name; but we "aint in it," when the Maryland Legislature meets. Then courtesy must be shown our Republican representatives and laws passed at their dictum to perpetuate Republican control here. St. Mary's Democrats will carefully scan the Journals of the present session and note the votes of would-be congressmen on measures effecting our political welfare.

BAD FOR WESTMINSTER.—Westminster has burglars who sense of humor is almost as pronounced as their thieving propensities. They broke into a house occupied by two policemen and stole a pair of handcuffs. In another dwelling they set the dining-table and had a feast, with pie for dessert. They unconcernedly entered the sleeping apartment, rifled the clothing and perpetrated other tricks not at all appreciated by the persons visited.—Morning Herald.

MR. COMPTON APPOINTED CHAIRMAN.—Representative Barnes Compton of Maryland has been appointed chairman of the House library committee, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John R. Fellows, of New York. Speaker Crisp has for some time desired to place Mr. Compton at the head of a committee, and in making the appointment to-day availed himself of the first opportunity that has occurred since the House was first organized. Mr. Compton retains his position on the appropriations committee, where he is chairman of the subcommittee in charge of appropriations for the District of Columbia, but will resign from the committee on the election of the President and Vice-President and members of Congress, of which he is also a member.—Sun.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

From the Baltimore Sun.

Friday, January 19, 1894.

Mr. John W. Robinson, who was bitten by a dog October 24 last, died of hydrophobia.

The votes are to be recounted in the White-Boyd sheriffally contest in Cecil county.

An old colored man strangled near Hyattsville, and it is rumored that he committed suicide.

Four colored men were arrested in Crisfield upon suspicion of wrong-doing connected with a blood-stained bug-eye that was found ashore.

Many new buildings have been erected and projected in Snow Hill, where the fire of August 7, 1893, destroyed much property.

Wm. McVaugh, a prominent citizen of Lynchburg, tried for whipping his wife, was convicted of assault and battery and fined $500.

Discussion of the Wilson tariff bill in the House of Representatives under the five-minute rule will conclude on the 27th instant.

Representative Compton, of Maryland, is opposed to free coal, but shall support the Wilson bill as adopted by the majority of the House.

Among the guests at the diplomatic dinner were the Chinese minister and his wife, the latter in court costume. She is the first Chinese woman who has ever broken bread in the White House.

In Mercer county W. Va., the sheriff and a deputy attempted to arrest the Mullins brothers, implicated in a murder. Both the Mullins and the sheriff were killed and the deputy seriously wounded.

In discussing in the Senate the bill to repeal the federal election laws, Senator Vest, of Missouri, made the declaration that the republican legislation granting negro suffrage had been productive of more calamity than any legislation put upon the statute books since the foundation of the republic.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

A Baltimore delegation waited on Governor Brown in the interest of Mr. Thomas F. McNulty for the position of police justice in Baltimore city. During a pleasant conversation Governor Brown informed the delegation that he would send in no nominations until the expiration of the fifty days' limit allowed him. The joint committee on the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries will hold meetings to consider the oyster question. In both houses of the Legislature a communication was received from State Treasurer Jones making graceful acknowledgment of his re-election. The proposed law record bill continues to be discussed by the members. A favorable report was made by the House committee on corporations on the bill extending the time in which railroad companies are required to heat passenger coaches by other methods than with stoves until January 1 of next year. A bill was introduced in the House by Mr. Carter changing the method of administering judicial and other oaths. Mr. Myerly introduced a bill in the House making it unlawful to kill any rabbit, squirrel, partridge, woodcock or other game in Baltimore county until the opening of the gunning season in the fall of 1895. The House special committee has begun consideration of the assessment bills.

Both houses of the Mississippi Legislature have adopted strong resolutions regretting the necessity for Senator Walthall's resignation, sympathizing with him on account of ill-health and unequivocally indorsing his course in Congress.

Melange.

A Washington baker was fined $24 for selling twelve light-weight loaves of bread.

Ernest La Core was hanged at Joliet, Ill., for the murder of Nellie Byron, August 6, 1893.

In a quarrel in Surry county, Va., Alonso Hunnicutt, colored, inflicted fatal injuries on his brother Arthur, the latter dying in a few hours.

Lillian Russell, the comic opera singer, was married in Hoboken, N. J., on Sunday last to John Chatterton, known on the stage as Signor Perugini.

More than 100 members of the New England Tariff Reform League met at the United States Hotel in Boston on Friday night last. A number of speeches were made urging the speedy passage of the Wilson bill.

Archbishop Sallati will not be made a cardinal at the next Consistory, as the Pope wishes him to remain in America for the present.

Miss Anna M. Smith, daughter of the late Admiral Joseph Smith, in her last will bequeathed $1,000 each to a number of Catholic charitable institutions in Washington, D. C.

Charles Burns, aged twenty-eight years, of Stafford Springs, Conn., a prisoner in the county jail at Tolland, Conn., killed himself Friday night last by puncturing an artery in his wrist.

There was a tremendous crush Saturday at the White House, the occasion being Mrs. Cleveland's reception to ladies, during which it is estimated she must have shaken hands with over 5,000 persons.

A GOOD REASON. Though Father Adam had his faults That were both great and many, He held no converse through his hat, Because he hadn't any.

The fight with the Flemming brothers, charged with being accessory to the murder of the Mellin family, took place near Weston, W. Va. The sheriff of Mercer county and one of the Flemmings were killed and the other Flemming desperately wounded.

Milton Bond and Charles Colt, brothers-in-law, fought in Sullivan, Ill., Saturday as the result of long standing family troubles. Bond was shot in the left temple and died shortly after. Colt was shot in the abdomen. His wound may prove fatal.

Seven convicts escaped from the Pratt mines at Birmingham, Ala., Thursday night by blowing up the iron gates with dynamite. John Patton, a guard, was blown up and seriously injured. Deputy Sheriff Frank Dexter was killed in an effort to recapture the fugitives.

An exchange gets off the following verse: When Adam was in bliss, Asked Eve for an apple; She pucker'd her lips with a coo; Gave a look so ecstatic, And answered emphatic, I don't care Adam, if you do.

The bark Spirit of the Dawn, while on a voyage from Hangoon to Chili, was wrecked off the Antipodes Islands, New Zealand. The officers and crew, with the exception of the captain and four men, who were drowned, reached the island safely. There they remained for eighty days until rescued.

Wilson Howard was hanged in the jail-yard at Lebanon, Mo., Saturday, for the murder of a deaf mute named Michael. Howard took part in the Howard-Turner feud in Kentucky. He confessed killing John Bailey in Harton county, Ky., a crime for which his uncle, William Jennings, is now serving a life sentence in a Kentucky penitentiary.

Milton J. Worthley, charged with assault and battery and kidnapping Miss Louise Dana, was last Friday sentenced to banishment from the State by Judge Bonney at Portland, Me. If he ever returns and is captured, he will be sent to prison for ten years. Miss Dana is a daughter of Woodbury K. Dana, of Westbrook, the owner of the Dana mills.

A GOOD RESOLUTION. The farmers in a Louisiana parish met with great unanimity resolved "that each and every member of the order hereby obligates himself to use the most rigid economy until we get out of debt, and thereby be financially independent of any man or set of men." This seems to be the very best possible way out of the woods.

HE GOT A WARM WELCOME. They shrieked for their boy, Their pride and their joy; Did the man and his sorrowing wife; They thought he was lost Or had given up the ghost At the point of some murderer's knife. And Johnnie? Why, he Turned up after tea, And was whaled in an inch of his life!

HE FIRED THE FIRST GUN. There died Friday in the little town of Union Springs, in the southern part of Alabama, a man who figured in one of the most interesting events recorded in United States history, Col. John L. Branch. It was he who gave the order to fire the first gun of the late war at Fort Sumter, where he was stationed at the time. Col. Branch did gallant service in the war and afterward settled down at Union Springs and conducted an extensive plantation.
