Weekly Citizen

ALBUQUERQUE, -- NOV. 23, 1895

From Wednesday's Daily.

Wm. McIntosh reports that his partner, Angus McGillvray, is still sojourning in Bonnie Scotland.

Mrs. W. Lieber, of Mexico, came in from the west last night and took passenger No. 1 for home.

County Assessor Frank A. Hubbell saw all of Santa Fe there was to be seen yesterday and returned last night.

A. Mennet, the Las Vegas drummer, stopped over here last night and left for the south on this morning's freight.

M. W. Browne, one of Socorro's substantial business men, passed the night in Santa Fe last night to attend the Knights of Pythias grand lodge session.

Ed. McAdams, west bound for Atlantic, San Francisco types, went out to Grants this morning to make a final offer and will continue on to the coast successful or not.

W. W. Allen and wife have postponed their stay at the Sub Ex. to Mt. Airy is a prominent business man of Boston. Colo. They are well cared for by Deacon Sanford at the big hotel.

J. A. Harlan, superintendent of bridge and construction for the Santa Fe railroad, has a gang of men at work enlarging the coal chutes in these yards to double their former capacity.

R. McBlaehe, S. Lunedin and W. H. Reed, the White Oaks merchant, spent yesterday in the metropolis and took passenger No. 1 this morning for Sub. McBride connect with the stage for home.

J. R. Murphy, formerly superintendent of the Copper City mines and known here as "Old Metallicus," passed through on the down train for Prescott where he is looking for a mining property.

O. F. Cromwell returned last night from a trip to Gallup and expressed great surprise at the progress made in that town. There are good stores and good hotels and a population of about three thousand.

Austin Grosdall, well-known in Albuquerque and Cerrillos, came in last night from Bowie, Texas, where he has been attending bar for Garrison Bros. formerly of this city. He reports that the Garrison boys are doing well.

Rev. Hubert C. Woods, general superintendent of the American Baptist Home Mission society, headquarters Colorado Springs, came in on No. 4 this morning and is the guest of Rev. Mr. Worth today. He will leave for the north tonight.

C. W. Kunz and Dick Hoffmeyer joined the Holz-Martin party yesterday for several days running at the Las Lunas lakes. If the winged tribe do not want to take part in Thanksgiving dinner they will be wise to steer clear of that locality for the present.

Joseph Sponseller, the stock grower of Show Low, Arizona, passed through last night for Hutchinson, Kansas, where he will spend the winter fattening sheep for the block. Three car loads of his sheep went through yesterday and five more car loads are on the way. Mr. Sponseller is suffering from a severe wound in the foot inflicted by an axe.

From Thursday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones, guest of the family of H. E. Rogers, have gone to Los Angeles.

H. M. Taylor, the old Colorado stock man, left on No. 1 for the south this morning.

Dr. S. B. P. Knox and wife left on passenger No. 3 this morning for Santa Barbara, Cal.

D. C. Henderson, the soap man, went west this morning to counteract the effects of alkali.

John Shannon, day time clerk at the freight depot, and wife left on No. 2 for a visit to Denver.

Gabriel Armijo, of old Albuquerque, witnessed the double hanging at Santa Fe on last Tuesday.

M. Mammoth, who went south on a business trip for the Mandell house, returned last evening.

S. Alexander having won his case at court and everything else in sight, went home this morning.

A. Mennet, the Las Vegas drummer, is as busy as a midge. He came in on No. 2 and went south on No. 1.

Deacon Sanford is practicing for his big Thanksgiving spread. He gave his guests a sample of the feast to-day.

J. B. Manby made some cattle purchases recently in the obscure and hitherto unsought region of Nevada.

Don Roman Garcia is here from Valencia county selling cattle and sheep. He is one of the best stock traders in New Mexico.

Peter Molitor, brother of John Molitor of this city, will arrive today from Fond du Lac, Wis. He will locate in Albuquerque.

J. A. Phillips, who has been photographing in old town, went south with his outfit to San Marcial on this morning's train.

Marshal Fornoff turned the cattle thieves over to Deputy Chas. Fowler and he took the woman in the case to the penitentiary last night.

Base ball boosers could have got a lesson in pitching at the Albuquerque brewery yesterday. Jake Loeds pitched 200 kegs in two hours, and was as fresh as a morning glory after the job.

Bohemian hops purchased by Henry Loeb when abroad, are now in transit and will soon arrive for a special brew of Augustene beer. The big southwestern brewery is behind the date in nothing.

Miss Lillian Mason, daughter of Mr and Mrs. A. H. Meyer, has arrived from Atlanta, Ga., where she has been starring for a theatrical company and, it is understood, will remain in the city for some time.

HOME AGAIN.

The Isleta Indians Return from their Starring Trip.

A [illegible] of the return of the Isleta Indians [illegible] Sedillo's [illegible] Lopez, Richard [illegible] Louis, arrived yesterday morning after Manager Bell, Robert [illegible] Brown, Gilbertus [illegible] with all parts and appear to be [illegible] by the trip. [illegible] one and one-half years. [illegible] about the western [illegible] Mayor Gortner, Judge Seeds, [illegible] at Silver City, Deming, Las Cruces, El Paso, Socorro, Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Las Vegas and other points in northern New Mexico. Where so ever the speakers of Chief Isleta appeared in months ago.

A [illegible] in the Indian tongue, the [illegible] Chief Isleta, [illegible] Mr. Bell, the manager, [illegible] Mr. Gortner, Mr. Seeds, Mr. Gortner, Mr. Seeds, Mr. Gortner, Mr. Seeds,