Weekly Citizen

ALBUQUERQUE, -- DEC. 7, 1895.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[illegible] Interest Regarding the Opening of Congress.

[illegible]

ROMANCE OF A WIG.

A Very Simple Trick That Ended in a Tragedy.

[illegible]

NEW MEXICO.

Items of Interest Clipped From the Territorial Press.

Arrangements have been perfected for an excursion of the West Texas Press association to Roswell about the 8th of December.

It is reported that District Attorney [illegible], the main guy of the pardon bureau and the keeper of the democratic consciences, is preparing to have two, and perhaps three, of the supreme judges fired, because they did not a convict Catron, an ex-[illegible] Lordsburg Liberal.

Southern Grant county is coming to the front with a bang. Some pay to the miners of Big Bonanza strikes and generally all the camps. Deming as a center is prospering accordingly.—Deming Herald.

The first beautiful snow of the season covered mother earth last Sunday morning in this valley, but it soon vanished when it soon made its appearance in the eastern horizon, and set down upon it its grating rays.—Eddy Independent.

The Bonanza [illegible] has not yet caused [illegible] of Kelly. Hot Jack, if spring chicks and rabbits are being bought in our dailies, deer and antelope adorn our markets, and in fact wild game [illegible] description [illegible] can be found.—Lake Judge Valent.

[illegible] Mr. Bryan [illegible] Mr. Bryan [illegible] Mr. Bryan [