TROUBLE FOR ENGLAND

An Outbreak of Warlike African Tribes.

British Settlements in Metabelaland Attacked.

People Leaving Their Homes and Flocking to the Towns.

AFFAIRS LOOK THREATENING.

(Copyrighted 1896 by Associated Press.)

Cape Town, March 27.—Dispatches received from Bulawayo, Metebelaland, this morning, indicate that the uprising in that part of the colony was very serious. Telegrams from the front yesterday merely outlined it as a revolt of a few natives in Inzza and Filabusi districts, and reported the dispatch of a small force of volunteers to the scene of the disturbance.

The dispatches to-day show that the disturbance is widespread, and becoming vastly more alarming. An extensive rising of natives has taken place, and the revolt may spread to other parts of South Africa.

Settlers in Matabeleland are flocking into the towns, which are being placed in condition of defense. Volunteers are being enrolled everywhere, and all steps necessary are being taken to meet the exigency.

Reinforcements of mounted police have already been sent to Bulwayo. Inzza and Umbosi, supplies of ammunition are being hurried to Bulwayo, and all horses in the disturbed territory have been commanded to be brought in, by Colonel Napier, who is also in charge of the government forces.

The natives are raiding farms and killing white settlers in Matapabo hill district, and rumor has it that over fifty persons have been slain.

GREAT RACE

The Great Annual Aquatic Event in England.

London, March 27.—The great annual boat race between Oxford and Cambridge takes place to-morrow on the Thames. There is as much interest in the event as in any previous year, and the contest between the picked oarsmen of the two universities promises to be witnessed by an immense throng of spectators, although there will be fewer royalties on the banks than in previous years. Both crews took their final practice spin to-day, several thousand people, a goodly number belonging to the betting fraternity, turning out to form their final judgments on the performances of the two crews.

Throughout the week the Oxonians have been in excellent form, although the Cambridge men have had the benefit of the supervision of Trevor-Jones, the celebrated coach, and as a result the darkies are slightly the favorite in the betting. This will be the fifty-second race between the two universities. Oxford has been the winner in twenty-seven contests and Cambridge in twenty-two, while the one in 1877 was a dead heat. The start will be made between 1 and 2 o'clock, London time, the Thames being at high tide at 1:45.

Australian Mine Horror.

Wellington, New Zealand, March 27.—All hope of saving the sixty miners who are entombed in a mine at Brunnerton yesterday, by the explosion of fire-damp, which killed five men outright, has been abandoned.

Fire in Missouri

Kansas City, March 27.—A special to the Star from Springfield, Mo., says fire completely destroyed the grand opera house this morning. The building cost $[illegible], and was insured for $35,000. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The property was owned by F. S. Heffern.

A Correction.

During the progress of the Washington case a reference was made by a vice-president in our columns to the supposed unprofessional manner of attempt to prove certain statements, alleged to have been made by a man now deceased, by one of the attorneys conducting. We have since learned that Judge Collier, after the testimony was finished, in a written opinion summing up the matter, stated that the attorney did nothing improper, and that his statements were entirely justified by the circumstances. In justice to one of our leading lawyers THE CITIZEN takes pleasure in making this correction.

Gets Himself in Trouble.

Theodore Zimmer, the second-hand dealer on First street, who was arrested on a warrant sworn out before Justice Wagg by J. Edward Priest, charging Zimmer with obtaining money under false pretenses, had a hearing before the justice late yesterday afternoon, and he Zimmer was bound over to the next grand jury on a $500 bond. Mr. Priest accuses Zimmer of selling him a stove on misrepresentations, and for which he paid Zimmer $10. Judge W. C. Heacock appeared for Priest, Mr. Zimmer assayed to plead his own cause.

Chicago Grain Market.

Chicago, March 27.—Wheat, March, 62; May, 63¾. Corn, March, 28¼; May, 29¼. Oats, March, 18¾; May, 19¼.

Chicago Stock Market.

Chicago, March 27.—Cattle steady. Texas steers, $3.00@3.80.

Sheep steady, unchanged.

Placed Under Bonds.

Col. J. F. Moore, the democratic postmaster at Bernalillo, was brought in from the Rio Puerco country yesterday by Sheriff Hubbell and taken before the district court. The colonel was indicted by the grand jury for fencing in land at Bernalillo that belonged to other people. He gave bond in the sum of $[illegible] for his appearance when his case is set for trial.

Aboard Ship.

Sea voyages are usually deemed promotive of health. So they are in most cases. But it may well be doubted if the shaking up aboard ship, which people of very fragile constitution and weak nerves get, is not prejudicial if its efforts are not averted or nullified by a medicinal safeguard. The best, if we are to believe the testimony of ocean travelers, whether they go abroad for health, pleasure or business, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Invalids, commercial travelers, sea captains and yachtmen concur in recommending this time-defensive tonic. So do emigrants to the frontier, the inhabitants of malarious regions, and all who are exposed to hardship or rigors of climate. For malarial, rheumatic or kidney trouble, nervousness, dyspepsia, liver complaint and constipation it is eminently efficacious, and commended by the medical fraternity far and near.

Easter Bazaar.

Architect Tinney has completed the designs for the booths for the Festival of Days, and they are very unique. Let everybody attend.

The Easter booth is under the direction of Mrs. Whitson, Miss Pearl Strong, and Miss Alban.

The ice cream booth will be delightfully served by Mrs. L. B. Dunlap, Mrs. C. G. Anderson and Mrs. Geo. Gainsley.

The men's booth is named "Miscellaneous." Let all the boys as well as men take an interest and send them "miscellaneous" for the booth. You will have to wait and see it before you will know anything about it. They are very "mum," but we feel sure you will find anything you want there.

Armory hall, April 1 and 2, afternoons and evenings.

A Noble Work.

About four months ago Mr. and Mrs. Strowbridge came to this city and established a Rescue Mission on South First street. This mission has proved a "Haven of Rest" to a great number of people who very seldom see the inside of a place of worship. Many of them have been lifted up and are now leading better lives. This mission is doing a good work and should be supported. After careful investigation it is ascertained that they are not able to meet the expenses, which only amount to thirty dollars a month. They have never taken a collection, neither have they solicited money. A subscription list was circulated among the business men some time ago by a lady interested in the work, but only thirteen dollars was subscribed to be paid monthly. Mr. and Mrs. Strowbridge receive no salary, nor are they supported in any way outside of the city. Albuquerque needs a work of this kind and cannot well afford to see it fail for the lack of a few dollars. Let us help them without delay.

Take a dose of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, just for the good they will do you. These little pills are good for indigestion, good for indigestion, good for liver complaint, good for constipation. They are good. Pillsbury & Walton.

TOM REED'S DAY!

Massachusetts Republicans in State Convention.

The Wildest Enthusiasm for the Man from Maine.

Platform Favors the Gold Standard and Opposes Silver.

SPEECHES AND RESOLUTIONS

Boston, March 27.—Accompanied with enthusiasm that rocked the great music hall, the convention for the election of delegates to the republican national convention at St. Louis was held here today.

The delegates came with only one name on their minds, as their choice for the presidential nomination. It was that of Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, consequently any reference to the man of his sentiments was a signal for cheers and applause, and again and again the building trembled with the shouts and hand clapping, cheers and waving of hats, as the delegations contended with each other in manifesting their appreciation of their favorite.

Mr. George Lyman, chairman of the state committee, called the convention to order at 10:30 a. m. and addressed the delegates.

The convention will content itself with nominating delegates to St. Louis, leaving the state ticket to be dealt with at a future gathering.

The platform to be presented by Senator Lodge, chairman of the committee, will, in placing Speaker Reed formally as a candidate before the people, eulogize his record, and will set forth what he desires the St. Louis convention to adopt as the national republican platform of 1896.

The delegates are in accord on the question of declaring in plain terms for sound money, the Ohio monetary plank being characterized by many as an evasion on the lines of the Minneapolis straddle.

It follows as a matter of course that the delegation to be elected will be strong Reed adherents.

Major McKinley has many friends, but sectional pride is paramount, and it is the sentiment that the convention should be unanimous in declaring Speaker Reed the proper candidate.

Following Chairman Lyman's address, committees on credentials and on permanent organization, resolutions and ballots, were appointed. Committee on credentials reported that the convention was entitled to 2002 delegates and that 1851 delegates were present.

Congressman Samuel W. McCall, of Winchester, was chosen permanent chairman, and made a ringing speech on taking the gavel.

Following is an abstract of the platform.

After pledging the electoral vote of Massachusetts to the candidate to be chosen by the St. Louis convention, it says:

Two years of uncontrolled democratic supremacy were enough to prove that the democratic party was unable to conduct the government without disaster, while thirty years of rule have shown the republican party both in war and in peace as able to govern and legislate.

It then advocates ample revenue, with a sufficient surplus for coast defense, enlarging the navy and reduction of the public debt, favors a protective tariff and reciprocity, advocates discriminating duties in favor of American bottoms, so that our old time carrying trade may be restored, regards the silver agitation as hurtful to business, and destructive to confidence, utterly opposes the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and any change in the existing gold standard, except by international agreement, opposes the unsound and dangerous system of state banks and advocates the expansion of the national banking system to meet the demands of business and the population of the country. The civil service law should be thoroughly enforced, immigration should be restricted, so as to least at exclude the totally ignorant and illiterate.

The United States should adhere rigidly to the American principle of entire separation of church and state, no appropriation of public money for sectarian schools or churches of any kind should be permitted.

Our interests in the American continent must be carefully guarded, and for the protection of those interests we should maintain our influence in the Hawaiian islands, and build and control the Isthmian canal.

The Monroe doctrine as declared in 1823, and enforced in 1865, and 1886, must always be upheld.

We sympathize with the Cubans in their struggle for independence, and believe the United States should use its influence to bring to an end the useless and bloody war now desolating Cuba, and give to the people of that island peace and self government.

Massachusetts republicans have never undertaken to pledge their delegates to a national convention, but we think it fitting to declare our decided preference for the republican nomination to the presidency, and that preference is for Thomas B. Reed of Maine.

Senator Lodge, as chairman, presented the report of the committee of resolutions.

He was frequently applauded. This was especially marked when the Cuban and the gold standard planks, the section referring to separation of church and state were read, but all previous demonstrations were as naught compared with the roar that followed the mention of Reed's name as the nominee of the republicans of Massachusetts for the presidency.

Then followed the election of four delegates at large to the national convention. They are Henry Cabot Lodge, W. T. Murray, Crane, Rhodes, Draper and Curtis Guild, Jr. They were chosen by acclamation.

The following were elected alternates: Louis C. Southard, Roland H. Boutwell, R. F. Hawkins, Dr. S. K. Courtney.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Tom Sherman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Ionia Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery, it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in its results." Trial bottles free at Pillsbury & Walton. Regular size 50c and $1.

STATEHOOD BILLS.

The New Mexico and Arizona Bills Will be Reported.

BRICE BONDS LEGALIZED.

Washington, March 26.—Statehood bills for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico will be again passed upon by the house committee on territories next Thursday. Today the committee decided without any formal vote to take the bills up next week and vote upon them the second time.

The New Mexico bill has been reported favorably to the senate but the house committee by a very close vote taken several weeks ago, decided not to report them to the house. It is now claimed by the advocates of statehood that two committeemen who voted against reporting the bills have come to the opinion that the best plan will be to lay them before the house and let the whole house take the responsibility of passing or rejecting them. This course has been advocated by some of the party leaders.

The committee has finished its discussion of the house bill amended by the senate to validate the bonds issued by the territory of New Mexico for building the capitol, it was decided to accept the senate amendment secured by Senator Brice to include bonds to the amount of $172,000 issued by Santa Fe county to aid the Santa Fe railway, and the committee also added amendments to include in the provisions of the bill $250,000 Santa Fe liquidating bonds and $50,000 issued by Silver City. Interest upon the bonds was reduced from 6 to 4 per cent. The bill in its present form validates the bonds of the territory.

THE U. S. LAND COURT

Opinions Announced in Two Important Cases.

In the United States court of private land claims yesterday an opinion was handed down confirming the entire Ignacio Ana Bend Colony grant of 26,325.59 acres to Numa Reymond et al, petitioners.

A decree was also entered up rejecting the Neris Antonio Montoya grand, involving 3,546.06 acres in Valencia county, of which J. Franco Chaves was the claimant.

Surveys of confirmed grants were approved as follows: Ranche de Rio Grande, 102,018.05 acres in Taos county; Baltazar Cisneros grant, 8,000 acres in Rio Arriba county; La Majada grant in Santa Fe and Bernalillo counties.

The New Mexican says: The court held no session today, but will meet at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, at which time the docket will be called and the cases set for trial at the next term.

"Success is the reward of merit" not of assumption. Popular appreciation is what tells in the long run. For fifty years, people have been using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and to-day it is the blood purifier most in favor with the public. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures.

"Rip Van Winkle," that play which many of our citizens have seen Joe Jefferson produce, was rendered at Grant's opera house last night, and the Peyton Comedy company members were at their best. This evening, "The Phoenix" will be produced.

Conductor Barney, who brought in the No. 4 passenger train this morning from the west, states that the tramps are becoming desperate. He was forced to stop his train several times last night en route to the city, and put off tramps.

L. P. Wilson, a writer on the New York Sun, who was on a visit to San Francisco, is expected here this evening. He is a particular friend of W. F. Lindley, one of the gentleman getting up the illustrated edition of THE CITIZEN.

The Southwestern Brewery company have just put in four big casks, each holding fifty five barrels. The company's business is increasing so rapidly, that it necessary to constantly make improvements.

Nestor Montoya, the court interpreter, went up to Thornton this morning. He will return this evening.

REED'S BOSTON BOOM.

Los Angeles, March 26.—A special train arrived last evening, bearing Cornelius Vanderbilt, Chauncey M. Depew, John Hone, Jr., and George F. Fearing, all intimately related to the Vanderbilt railway interests. When asked for his views on the political situation, Depew said: "It is generally conceded that on the first ballot at the republican national convention McKinley will receive more votes than any other candidate. This, however, singles him as the one man dangerous to all the others, and as often happens in national conventions, numerous combinations will doubtless be made to counteract the influence of his candidacy upon wavering delegations. I am confident he will not have the votes necessary to win, and will be forced in the end to abandon the field. Every indication favors the presumption Morton will profit from this failure of McKinley, and the presidential candidate will come from New York."

DAVIS MILLIONS.

The Wife of the Millionaire Wants the Estate.

Butte, Mont., March 26.—Consternation was thrown into the camp of the numerous heirs and claimants of the Davis millions last night when Attorney M. J. Cavanaugh filed a petition in the district court in behalf of Mrs. Hannah Queen Davis, otherwise known as Hannah Shell, of Kern county, Cal., laying claim to the whole estate of many millions, alleging that she is the surviving wife of the dead millionaire. Davis was not known to have been married and his relatives here laughed at the claims of the California woman when first heard about a year ago. She alleges she was married to Davis August 15, 1842, in Carroll county, Arkansas, and was his lawful wife until his death in Butte, March 14, 1894. Two children were born to them, she says—one May Isabelle, now Mrs. Isabelle Martin, of Fresno, California, the other, Laura Annie Calhoun, living in San Francisco. The petitioner asks that all the property now in the hands of the administrators be divided among them according to law, by which she is entitled to half and each of the daughters to a fourth.

After their marriage Davis went to California, and his wife heard he was dead and married again. Later she went to California and met him again.

Mrs. Calhoun, one of the daughters, is the mother of Eleanor Calhoun, the actress now in Paris.

Reed's Candidacy.

Boston, March 26.—Speaker Reed's presidential boom will be formally christened by the republican state convention here to-morrow, and the hotels are already well filled with delegates who are enthusiastic over the fact that, by being first in the field in the matter of New England conventions, they are enabled to present the "czar" and his claims to the consideration of the nation. The committee on resolutions, of which Senator Lodge, the most intimate friend of the speaker, is chairman, will meet this afternoon and give the finishing touches to the platform, the draft of which is in the senator's own handwriting. It fairly and squarely places the speaker as a candidate before the people and takes ground in emphatic language against the free coinage of silver except by international agreement.

It is believed the platform will declare unequivocally against any change in the currency.

Export Report Wanted.

Washington, March 26.—At the opening of the house to-day, Mr. Heatwole, republican, Minnesota, introduced the following resolution, which was referred:

"Whereas, in lieu of our present inadequate banking and currency system, it is desirable that congress have the aid of such recommendations as a non-partisan commission of experts might be able to offer, therefore,

Resolved, That the president is hereby authorized to appoint nine citizens, eminent in trade, political economy and banking, to act with the comptroller of the currency as such commission, and that such commission reports its conclusions to congress.

Cuban Revolution.

Havana, March 26.—A column of troops commanded by Colonels Sanchez and Echevarria have captured the camps of the insurgents at Cherito and Santa Monita, in the province of Pinar Del Rio, and are said to have obtained possession of nearly all the supplies of the insurgents in that province. The insurgents lost fifty killed and retired with many wounded. The troops destroyed stores which could not be made available for the use of the army. It is estimated the stores captured were worth over $200,000.

Death on a Train.

Rev. James Milne, a Presbyterian pastor of Nevada, Iowa, on his way home from Redlands, Cal., died near Navajo springs, Arizona, about noon yesterday. His remains were brought here and taken to O. W. Strong's undertaking establishment for embalmment. The remains will be forwarded this evening. Rev. A. B. Shrader, a Lutheran pastor also of Nevada, and a friend of Mr. Milne, accompanies the body. Rev. Milne was an unmarried man, about 30 years of age, and had been in the ministry but about two years. He was a native of Scotland, orphaned at an early age and left to fight life's battles alone. Amid many hardships he had fought his way, and had just stepped out into a wide field of usefulness when his health gave way. He gave promise of eminent success in his chosen profession. Prompted with a desire to be buried among the scenes of his labors he had started home. This desire was not granted, but he was resigned and passed calmly to his rest. Traintimen and passengers were tender and thoughtful in their kindness. Rev. Shrader expresses the warmest thanks.
